SIR,

I TRANSMIT, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from Captain Maitland, of His Majesty's Ship Loire, giving an Account of the Success which has attended an Enterprize he sent the Boats of that Ship on, under the Orders of Lieutenants Temple and Bowen. The good Conduct and Intrepidity of the Officers and Men employed on that Service make it unnecessary for me to add any Comment, persuaded that it cannot be lost Sight of by their Lordships.

I am, &c. JNO. COLFOYS.

SIR, Loire, off L'Isle de Bas, June 28, 1803.

I HAVE the Pleasure of informing you, that, last Night, Three of the Boats of His Majesty's Ship Loire, commanded by Lieutenants Temple and Bowen, in a most gallant Manner boarded, and, after a very severe Conflict of nearly Ten Minutes on her Deck, carried the National Brig Venteux, bearing Four long Eighteen-Pounders, and Six Thirty-six-Pound Brass Carronades, commanded by Mousf. Montfort, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, lying close under the Batteries of the Isle of Bas.

When it is considered that the Venteux, perfectly prepared, manned with Eighty-two Men, all of whom were upon Deck, and covered with very heavy Batteries, was opposed to the Crews of Two of our Boats, (as the Third, from rowing heavy; did not get up till the Brig was completely gained Possession of,) I feel confident that you will view it in the Light that I do, as one of those brilliant Exploits which add Lullre to the British Arms, of which, though so many Instances occurred during the late War, no one has before been happy enough to have thrown in his Way during the present.

The Success of Mr. Temple's daring Attempt speaks sufficiently for his Conduct, and that of every one under his Command, to render it superfluous for me to enter into any Eulogium on the present Occasion.

Mr. Bridges has served his Time and passed for Lieutenant nearly a Year; of whose Conduct Mr. Temple speaks in the highest Terms, together with that of every Officer and Man under his Command.

I am very sorry to add that the Loss on our Side is rather heavy, as Mr. McGwire, the Boatswain, is so severely wounded as to render him incapable of doing his Duty for a considerable Time. Four Seamen and a Marine are also badly wounded, Two of the Seamen, I fear, past Recovery.

The Venteux had her Second Captain and Two Seamen killed: The Captain, with Four Officers, all the had, and Eight Seamen, wounded. She was stationed at the Isle of Bas to guard the Coast, and regulate the Convoys of Stores, &c. bound to Brest: is a Vessel of large Dimensions, being Seventy-four Feet long and Twenty-four wide, and perfectly in a Condition immediately to be employed.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

F. MAITLAND.

*Sir John Colpoys, K. B.

Admiralty-Office, July 5, 1805.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Fleet, to Sir Peter Nugent, Bart. dated the 26th of 4 Month.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

duce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service, of Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to Our further Pleasure, and also save and except as hereinafter-mentioned,) but subject to the Payment of all such or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter set forth; that is to say,

That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprisals, (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service of, Our Commissioners aforesaid,) may be sold and disposed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters, and others to whom such Letters of Marque and Reprisals are granted, for their own Use and Benefit after final Adjudication, and not before.

And We do hereby further order and direct, that the neat Produce of all Prizes which are or shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, (save and except when they shall be acting on any conjunct Expedition with Our Army, in which Case We reserve to Ourselves the Division and Distribution of all Prize and Booty taken; and also save and except as hereinafter-mentioned,) shall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Post-Office, Captains, Commanders, and other Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers on board our said Ships and Vessels at the Time of the Capture; and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise.

The Distribution shall be made as follows: The Whole of the neat Produce being first divided into Eight equal Parts:

The Captain or Captains of any of Our said Ships or Vessels of War, who shall be actually on board at the taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighth Parts; but in case any such Prize shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the Three Eighth Parts; the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations as are hereinafter mentioned.

The Lieutenants and Quarter-Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns, and Quarter-Masters of Land Forces, Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Second-Masters of Line of Battle Ships, Boatswains, Gunners, Purifiers, Carpenters, Masters' Mates, Chirurgens, Pilots, and Chaplains on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:

The Midshipmen, Captains' Clerks, Master Sail-makers, Carpenters' Mates, Boatswains' Mates, Gunners' Mates, Masters at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Coxswains, Quarter-Masters, Quarter-Masters' Mates, Chirurgens' Mates, Yeomen of the Powder-Room, Sergeants of Marines and Land Forces on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:

And We do hereby further order, That in the case of Cutters, Schooners, and other armed Vessels commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of such Lieutenants shall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unless such Lieutenants shall be under the Command of a Flag Officer or Officers in which case the Flag Officer or Officers shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts, to be divided among such Flag Officer or Officers, in the same Manner herein-before directed, in the Case of Captains serving under Flag Officers.

Secondly, We direct, That the Share of the Master or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the Pilot, (if there happens to be one on board,) shall be One Eighth Part, to be divided into Three Equal Parts, of which Two Thirds shall go to the Master, or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the remaining One Third to the Pilot; but, if there is no Pilot, then such Eighth Part to go wholly to the Master or Person acting as Second in Command:

And the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Persons on board, assisting in the Capture, shall be Two Eighth Parts.

But it is Our Intention, nevertheless, that the above Distribution shall only extend to such Captures as shall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, or Armed Vessel, without any of Our Ships or Vessels of War being present, or within Sight of, and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy; but in case any of Our Ships or Vessels of War shall be present or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men on board such Cutters and Schooners, or armed Vessels, shall share in the same Proportion as is allowed to Persons of the like Rank and Denomination on board of Our Ships and Vessels of War; and such Cutters, Schooners, or Armed Vessels, shall not, in respect to such Captures, convey any Interest or Share in the Flag Eighth to the Flag Officer or Officers, under whose Orders such Cutters, Schooners, and Armed Vessels, may happen to be.

And whereas it is judged expedient, during the present Hostilities, to hire into Our Service Armed Vessels, to be employed as Cruisers against the Enemy, which Vessels are the Property of, and their Masters and Crews are paid by, the Merchants of whom they are hired, although several of them are commanded by Our Commissioned Officers in Our Pay; it is Our further Will and Pleasure, that the net Produce of all Prizes taken by such Hired Armed Vessels (except as hereinafter mentioned) shall be for the Benefit of Our Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Masters and Crews on board the said Hired Armed Vessels at the Time of the Capture, and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents, after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise; the Distribution thereof shall be as follows:

The Whole of the next Produce being divided into Eight equal Parts;

Our Officer commanding any Hired Armed Vessel, who shall be actually on board at the taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighths; but in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts, the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations as are herein after mentioned:

In case there be acting on board such Hired Armed Vessel, besides Our Officer commanding the same, one or more of Our commissioned Sea Lieutenants in Our Pay, such Lieutenant or Lieutenants shall take One Eighth:

One Eighth shall belong to the Master and Mate, of which the Master shall take Two Thirds, and the Mate One Third; but in case there shall be acting on board such Hired Armed Vessel one or more Midshipmen, or other Person in Our Pay, of those who are classed with Midshipmen in the former Part of this Our Proclamation, in that case, the Master shall take One Half of the Eighth, and the other Half shall be equally divided between the Mate, Midshipmen, and such other Persons in Our Pay:

Three Eighths shall belong to, and be divided among the other Officers and the Rest of the Crew.

And in the Case of Prizes taken by any Hired Armed Vessel not commanded by any of Our Commissioned Officers, One Eighth shall belong to the Flag Officers, to be divided as aforesaid, in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be under the Command of a Flag:

Two Eighths shall belong to the Master and Mate, of which the Master shall take Two Thirds, and the Mate One Third:

Three Eighths shall belong to and be divided among the other Officers and the rest of the Crew in Manner aforesaid:

The Surplus, the Distribution of which is not herein directed, shall remain at Our Disposal, and if not disposed of within a Year, after final Adjudication, the same shall belong and be paid to Greenwich Hospital.

And in the Case of Prizes taken jointly by any of Our Ships of War and any Hired Armed Vessel, Our Commissioned Officer or Officers on board such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with Our Commissioned Officer or Officers of the same Rank on board Our Ship or Ships of War being Joint Captors, the Master of such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with the Warrant Officers; the Mate of such Hired Armed Vessel, with the Petty Officers, and the Seamen of such Hired Armed Vessel with the Seamen on board Our said Ship or Ships of War, save and except, that in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be commanded by one of Our Commissioned Officers having the Rank of Master and Commander, and there shall be none of Our Lieutenants on board, or in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be commanded by the Master, in both those Cases the Master of such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with the Lieutenants of Our Ships of War, and the Mate with the Warrant Officers.

And in case any Difficulty shall arise in respect to the said Distribution, not herein sufficiently provided for, the same shall be referred to Our Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, whose Decision thereupon shall be final, and have the same Force and Effect as if herein inserted.

Provided, that if any Officer being on board any of Our Ships of War, at the Time of taking any Prize, shall have more Commissions or Offices than one, such Officer shall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes which, according to the above-mentioned Distribution, shall belong to his superior Commission or Office.

Provided also, that in all Prizes taken by any of Our Squadrons, Ships, or Vessels, while acting in Connection with any Squadron, Ship or Vessel of any other Power that may be in Alliance with Us, a Share of such Prizes shall be set apart and be at Our further Disposal, equal to that Share which the Flag and other Officers and Crews of such Squadron, Ships, or Vessels would have been entitled to if they had belonged to Us.

And We do hereby strictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Vessels of War taking any Prize, to transmit as soon as may be, or cause to be transmitted to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a true List of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, who were actually on board Our Ships and Vessels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture, which List shall contain the Quality of the Service of each Person on board, together with the Description of the Men, taken from the Description Books of the capturing Ship or Ships, and their several Ratings, and be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on board: And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such Lists by the Muster Books of such Ships and Vessels of War and Lists annexed thereto, to see that such Lists do agree with the said Muster Books and annexed Lists, as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others belonging to such Ships and Vessels of War; and, upon Request, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any List transmitted to them, to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take care and dispose of such Prize; and also, upon Application to them, (the said Commissioners,) they shall give, or cause to be given to the said Agents, all such Lists from the Muster Books of any such Ships of War and annexed Lists, as the said Agents shall find requisite for their Direction in paying the Produce of such Prizes, and otherwise shall be aiding and assisting to the said Agents in all such Matters as shall be necessary.

We do hereby further will and direct that the following Regulations shall be observed concerning the One Eighth Part hereinafore mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag Officer who shall actually be on board at the taking of any Prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein :

First, That a Captain of a Ship shall be deemed to be under the Command of a Flag when he shall actually have received some Order directly from, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by, a Flag Officer ; and shall be deemed to continue under the Command of such Flag so long as the Flag Officer by whom the Order was issued, or any other Flag Officer acting upon the same Station, shall continue upon such Station ; or until such Captain shall have received some Order directly from, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by, some other Flag Officer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Secondly, That a Flag Officer Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag Officer upon Service, shall have to his own Use the said One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels under his Command.

Thirdly, That a Flag Officer, sent to command on any Station, shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels employed there before he arrives within the Limits of such Station, and actually takes upon him the Command, by communicating Orders to the Flag Officer previously in Command : save only that he shall be entitled to a Share of Prizes taken by those particular Ships to which he shall actually have given some Order, and taken under his Command, within the Limits of such Station.

Fourthly, That a Commander in Chief, or other Flag Officer, appointed or belonging to any Station, and passing through or into any other Station, shall not be entitled to share in any Prize taken out of the Limits of the Station to which he is appointed or belongs, by any Ship or Vessel under the Command of a Flag Officer of any other Station, or under Admiralty Orders, unless such Commander in Chief, or Flag Officer, is expressly authorized by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to take upon him the Command in that Station in which the Prize is taken, and shall actually have taken upon him such Command, in Manner aforesaid.

Fifthly, That when an inferior Flag Officer is sent to reinforce a superior Flag Officer on any Station, the superior Flag Officer shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag Officer before the inferior Flag Officer shall arrive within the Limits of the Station, and, moreover, shall actually receive some Order directly from him, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by him.

Sixthly, That a Chief Flag Officer quitting a Station either to return Home, or to assume another Command, or otherwise, except upon some particular urgent Service, with the Intention of returning to the Station as soon as such Service is performed, shall have no Share of Prizes taken by the Ships or Vessels left behind, after he shall have passed the Limits of the Station, or after he shall have surrendered the Command to another Flag Officer appointed by the Admiralty to be Commander in Chief upon such Station.

Seventhly, That an inferior Flag Officer quitting a Station, except when detached by Orders from his Commander in Chief out of the Limits thereof upon a special Service, with Orders to return to such Station as soon as such Service is performed, shall have no Share in Prizes taken by the Ships and Vessels remaining on the Station, after he shall have passed the Limits thereof ; and in like Manner the Flag Officers remaining on the Station shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by such inferior Flag Officer, or by the Ships and Vessels under his immediate Command, after he shall have quitted the Limits of the Station, except when detached as aforesaid.

Eighthly, That when Vessels, under the command of a Flag, which belong to separate Stations, shall happen to be Joint Captors, the Captain of each Ship shall pay One Third of the Share to which he is entitled to the Flag Officers of the Station to which he belongs ; but the Captains of Vessels under Admiralty Orders, being Joint Captors with other Vessels under a Flag, shall retain the Whole of their Share.

Ninthly, That if a Flag Officer is sent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels which have sailed, or shall sail, from that Port by Order from the Admiralty.

Tenthly, That when more Flag Officers than One serve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Vessels of the Fleet, or Squadron, shall be divided in the following Proportions, viz. If there be but Two Flag Officers, the Chief shall have Two Third Parts of the said One Eighth, and the Other shall have the remaining Third Part ; but if the Number of Flag Officers be more than Two, the Chief shall have only One Half, and the other Half shall be equally divided among the other Flag Officers.

Eleventhly, That Commodores, with Captains under them, shall be esteemed as Flag Officers with respect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief, or serving under Command.

Twelfthly, That the first Captain to the Admiral, and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and also the first Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet, or Squadron of Ten Ships of the Line of Battle or upwards, shall be deemed and taken to be a Flag Officer, and shall be entitled to a Part or Share of Prizes, as the Junior Flag Officer of such Fleet or Squadron.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Seventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's, July 6, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, feel ourselves called upon, at this important Crisis, to offer to your Majesty the fullest Assurances of the most affectionate Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government.

At a Time when the Views of Aggrandizement, and Schemes for the Subjugation of other Powers, with the Extinction of Civil Liberty, manifested by the present Government of France, and its repeated Insults and Menaces, directed against your Majesty and the British Empire, have compelled your Majesty to appeal to Arms, to vindicate the Dignity of your Crown, and the Laws and Liberties of your Subjects, we trust that the Zeal, Public Spirit, and Exertions of a brave and loyal People, will, under Divine Providence, enable your Majesty to employ the Power and Resources of this United Kingdom, in opposing the Designs of the Enemy.

Conscious of the transcendent Excellence of the British Constitution, sensible that its Preservation, with all that is valuable to us, depends on vigorous Measures, and relying on your Majesty's Paternal Care and Attention, we confidently assure your Majesty that your faithful Citizens of Bristol will contribute cheerfully to the necessary Expenses of the War, and, in Concert with our fellow Subjects, will stand forth with determined Resolution in Defence of your Majesty's Rights, and those of our Country, against every Kind of Insult and Act of Hostility.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Charles Bragge, and Evan Baillie, Esq. Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of the Master Wardens and Commonalty of the Merchant Venturers of the City of Bristol.

PERMIT us, most gracious Sovereign, to make a Tender, at the Foot of your Throne, of our inviolable Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to assure your Majesty that we will cheerfully devote ourselves to promote whatever Operations may, in your Majesty's Wisdom, be devised for the Success of a War into which we are impelled by the boundless Ambition of a restless and imperious Foe.

Firm in the Justice of our Cause, and in the Assurance of the united Spirit and Exertions of your Majesty's Subjects of every Rank and Description, we despise the Threats of our Enemies, and behold their Preparations without Alarm.

May the Nations of Europe, animated by your Majesty's illustrious Example, awake from their State of Torpor and Inaction; and, by opposing a determined and effectual Resistance to the unjust Pretensions of a domineering Government, assert their Independence, and vindicate their injured Rights. Thus shall the Deliverance of Europe, from a most intolerable and ignominious Yoke, confer upon your Majesty another Claim to the Love and Gratitude of Mankind.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Charles Bragge, Representative in Parliament for the said City.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Aldermen, Recorder, Coroner, Assistant Justices, Capital Burgeses, and Burgeses of the Common Council of the ancient Borough of Bury Saint Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, feel it our bounden Duty in the present critical Situation of public Affairs, to offer to your Majesty an unfeigned Testimony of our Attachment and Allegiance to your royal Person and Government.

Sincerely as we regret the Impossibility of preserving those Blessings which our Hopes and Wishes naturally anticipated on the Restoration of Peace, we acknowledge the urgent Necessity which now calls upon us to resist the Ambition, and repel the Aggressions of France, to avenge the Indignities offered by her Rulers to the august Character of our beloved Sovereign, and to meet the insolent Defiance which they have proclaimed against this Country in the Face of Europe.

We are fully aware that the present Contest must require, from every Description of your Majesty's Subjects, Sacrifices and Privations of the most important Nature; but when we reflect on the accumulated Aggressions which have led to the Renewal of Hostilities, we are convinced that those Sacrifices will be made without Reluctance, and those Privations endured without a Murmur.

Happy in that mutual Confidence which results from the exemplary Beneficence of the Sovereign, and the grateful Affection of the People, the Nation which feels the Blessings of your Majesty's Reign, fears not the threatened Invasion of the Enemy.

That Confidence, as it has long been the peculiar Happiness of this favoured Country, will also be our surest Protection in the Hour of Danger: the Justice of our Cause will consecrate our Arms in the Sight of Heaven; and every Consideration of public Duty, every Feeling of national Honor, will inspire us with Resolution to maintain the Dignity of our Sovereign, and defend the Interests of the British Empire, with the combined Resources and collective Energy of the whole State.

Given under our Common-Seal for the said Borough, the Fourth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Hervey, One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, accompanied by the Recorder of Saint Edmund's Bury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Aldermen of the City of Norwich.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Aldermen of the City of Norwich, are anxious to express our Gratitude for your Majesty's dignified Forbearance in the Expectation of finally receiving from the Government of France due Satisfaction and Redress for multiplied Aggressions and arrogant Pretensions, equally infringing upon the Dignity of the Crown, and the Rights of the People.

We contemplate with Abhorrence and Indignation the insatiate Ambition and insidious Endeavours of the Consular Power to interfere with your Majesty's Judicial Courts, to distress the National Commerce and Manufactures, and to violate the Liberty of the British Press.

We are solicitous at this Crisis to convince the World, that the Interests of our gracious Sovereign and his faithful People are inseparable, and that the Resources of the United Kingdom will be exerted with Energy and Unanimity in Defence of our King, our Country, our Independence, and invaluable Constitution.

Through the Divine Protection, we trust, that the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the Skill and Intrepidity of your Navy and Army, combined with the Loyalty and Spirit of your faithful Subjects will speedily enable your Majesty to terminate the War with Glory, and to re-establish the Blessings of Peace.

Done at a full Court of Mayoralty held at the Guildhall of the said City, the Twentieth Day of June, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

By the Court, De Hague.

[Presented by the Mayor of Norwich, Sir Roger Ker-ri-son, and Lieutenant-Colonel Palfen, of the Norwich Volunteers.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Commander in Chief, the Bailiff, the Jurats, and Officers of the Royal Court, and the Dean and Clergy of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey assembled, beg leave, for themselves and the other Inhabitants of your Majesty's said island, to approach your Majesty's sacred Person, to join the national Emulation in reproaching the base, unjust, and deceitful Proceedings of the French Government in its daring and wanton Breach of a most solemn Treaty of Peace, which your Majesty was so anxious to observe, and act up to, for the Tranquillity of Europe, and the Ease of your Majesty's Subjects, could it have been done consistently with the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Security of the Nation.

Conscious of the Necessity to repel the ambitious Views of that restless Government, and frustrate its avowed Intentions to overthrow that happy Constitution, which, under your Majesty, consolidates the Happiness of the Nation, all your faithful Subjects must see, and gratefully acknowledge, the wise and vigorous Measures taken by your Majesty, and unite in concurring therein.

With hearts full of Affection and Loyalty to your Majesty, and Attachment to your Royal Family, we humbly beg leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall equal any of your Majesty's Subjects in our Zeal and Courage to defend and preserve ourselves under your Majesty's auspicious Government.

With these Sentiments, we humbly beg leave to subscribe ourselves, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and truly loyal Subjects, the Commander in Chief, the Bailiff, the Jurats, and Officers of the Royal Court, and the Dean and Clergy of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey.

SIR, Endymion, at Sea, June 25, 1803.

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that this Morning, in Lat. 47 Deg. 10 Min. North, and Long. 20 Deg. West. the Endymion fell in with and captured, after a Chase of Eight Hours, La Bacchante French Corvette, of Eighteen Twelve-Pounders, commanded by Lieutenant de Vaisseau Perimel, and having on board Two Hundred Men. La Bacchante is a remarkably fine Ship, of large Dimensions, quite New, and sails very fast. She was on her Return to Brest, having been sent from thence Three Months ago with Dispatches for St. Domingo. The Captain perished so long in his Endeavours to escape, that the Endymion's Chase Guns killed her Second Captain and Seven Men, and wounded Nine others. I am happy to add her Fire did us no Harm.

I am, &c.

CHARLES PAGET.

On Monday July 25.

The Sergeants from the Foot Guards at Ninepence per Diem; the Sergeants, Corporals, and Private Men who received the increased Pension on Account of Blindness; as also the Sergeants disbanded from the late Independent Companies, who receive One Shilling per Day; with the Private Gentlemen who receive Annuities from the late 111 and 21 Troops of Horse Guards.

And that all Out Pensioners (as well Lettermen as others) belonging to the said Hospital, who live at a greater Distance than Twenty-five Miles from London, and those in Scotland and Ireland, are hereby required and commanded, after the 25th of December next, and after every succeeding 25th of June and 25th of December, until further Orders, to apply to One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the Neighbourhood where they reside, and make the following Affidavit, which the said Magistrate for the County, City, Borough, or Riding before whom the Pensioner appears, will sign and date, viz.

"I came before me, One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of _____, and made Oath, that he was admitted an Out Pensioner of Chelsea Hospital on the _____ Day of _____ 17 (or 18) from the _____ Regiment of _____, commanded by _____; was then aged _____ Years, served in the _____ Army _____ Years, was discharged for _____, and that he is no otherwise provided for by the Public but as a Pensioner of the said Hospital, and now lives in the Parish of _____, in the County of _____.

"Sworn before me this _____ Day of _____ 180 _____."

The Affidavit, drawn according to the above Form, dated and attested by a Magistrate, is to be put up in a Cover, and sent by the General Post, directed thus, "To the Right Honourable the Paymaster-General, at the Bank Court, London." And Counterparts, or Duplicates, of the said Affidavits, are to be relayed by the Out Pensioners respectively, to be exhibited to such Persons as shall be directed to pay them, that they may be satisfied that all such as may claim Out Pensions are the real Persons entitled to receive the same.

And to the End that the Commissioners for the Affairs of Chelsea Hospital may be satisfied that the Pensioners are the same Persons who have passed their Examination, it is hereby further directed, that such of them who have served in, and have been discharged from, any of the Regiments, or Independent Companies of Invalids, are not to mention in their Affidavits such Regiment or Company of Invalids in which they served last, but the Regiment, Troop, or Corps of the Army, from which they were first discharged, and recommended, and received at Chelsea Hospital.

And as the General Payments in Great Britain and Ireland, at the End of the ensuing Six Months, are generally regulated by the Places of Residence mentioned by the Pensioners, who are mustered at Chelsea in Person, and in the Body of the Affidavits of those who live at a Distance, it is hereby ordered and directed, that no Person who shall change the Place of his Abode given in at his Muster, or specified in his Affidavit aforesaid, and who may apply for his Pension (excepting to the Officers of Excise near such Place of Abode), shall receive the same, unless it appears by the Certificate of respectable Persons, that such Removal was through unavoidable Necessity, which he or they could not foresee or prevent.

It is also hereby notified, that none will be entered upon the Pay Lists of the said Hospital, or be entitled to receive any Benefit therefrom, who shall not act agreeably to these Orders and Directions.

And His Majesty has been pleased to command, on this Occasion, that all the Lettermen, Sergeants, Trumpeters, and Drummers, on the Out Pension of Chelsea, or Kilmainham Hospitals, residing within the above District, whether discharged from the Regular Cavalry or Infantry, or from the Militia, or Fencibles, (such Men as by the Hospital Books, are now more than Sixty Years of Age, or who have lost a Limb, or their Eyesight, or are Cripples, or who received a Certificate of their total Unfitness for further Service, from any of the Officers employed at the General Examination of Out Pensioners, in the Month of December 1802, excepted,) do, at the Times of their Appearance, as above mentioned, put themselves under the Orders of the Officers, who have been appointed to take them in Charge, and to cause them to be examined, as to their Fitness for Duty, either in the Army of Reserve, or on such other Service, as His Majesty may think proper to employ them upon, for the Defence of the Realm.

His Majesty is graciously pleased to declare, that all the said Lettermen, Sergeants, Trumpeters, and Drummers shall be considered as entitled to the Pension for the Six Months commencing from Midsummer last, notwithstanding those found fit for Service will commence Pay according to the Ranks which they held when discharged, from the respective last of their Appearance, in pursuance of this Order.

His Majesty is further pleased to declare, that every Man found fit for Duty shall also be entitled, on his joining the Corps to which he shall be appointed, to receive a Bounty of One Pound Five Shillings, or so much thereof as shall remain, after supplying him with proper Necessaries.

And it is hereby notified, that all Out Pensioners in London, or within Twenty-five Miles thereof, discharged in the Banks aforesaid, (except as above excepted,) who shall not appear at the Times herein appointed, will be considered as otherwise provided for by Government, or as dead, and they will accordingly be struck off the Books of the Out Pension of the said respective Hospitals, of Chelsea or Westminster, without any Prospect of being restored thereto.

For granting the Distribution of Prizes during the present Hostilities.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, by Our Order in Council, dated the Sixteenth Day of May last, We have ordered that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of France; and by Our Order in Council, dated the Sixteenth Day of June last, We have ordered that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the Batavian Republic; so that as well Our Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque, or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to France or the Batavian Republic, or any Persons being Subjects of France or the Batavian Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of France or of the Batavian Republic, and bring the same to Judgment in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within Our Dominions, duly authorized and required to take Cognizance thereof: We being desirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects who shall lawfully seize the same, and having declared in Council, by Our Order of the Sixteenth Day of June last, Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods during the present Hostilities, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice and Consent of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken, the Right whereof is inherent in Us and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service, of Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to Our further Pleasure, and also save and except as herein after-mentioned,) but subject to the Payment of all such or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandise; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter set forth; that it is so say,

That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprisals, (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service of, Our Commissioners aforesaid,) may be sold and disposed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters, and others to whom such Letters of Marque and Reprisals are granted, for their own Use and Benefit after final Adjudication, and not before.

And We do hereby further order and direct that the neat Produce of all Prizes which are or shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, (save and except when they shall be acting on any conjoint Expedition with Our Army, in which Case We reserve to Ourselves the Division and Distribution of all Prize and Booty taken; and also save and except as hereinafter-mentioned,) shall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag-Officers, Captains, Commanders, and other Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers on board our said Ships and Vessels at the Time of the Capture; and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prizes, and not otherwise.

The Distribution shall be made as follows: The Whole of the neat Produce being first divided into Eight equal Parts:

The Captain or Captains of any of Our said Ships or Vessels of War, who shall be actually on board at the taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighth Parts; but in case any such Prize shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War under the Command of a Flag or Flag, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the Three Eighth Parts; the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations as are hereinafter-mentioned.

The Captains of Marines and Land-Forces, Sea Lieutenants, and Master on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; but that every Physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, shall, in the Distribution of Prizes which shall hereafter be taken by the Ships in which he shall serve, or in which such Ships' Company shall be entitled to share, be classed with the Sea Lieutenants with respect to the said One Eighth Part, and be allowed to share equally with them: provided such Physician be actually on board at the Time of taking such Prizes:

The Lieutenants and Quarter-Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Esquires, and Quarter-Masters of Land-Forces, Secretaries of Admirals or of Commanders, with Captains under them, Second-Masters of Line of Battle Ships, Boatswains, Gunners, Bombardiers, Corporals, Master's Mates, Chirurgians, Pilots, and Chaplains on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:

The Midshipmen, Captains' Clerks, Master Sail-makers, Carpenter's Mates, Boatwain's Mates, Gunners' Mates, Masters at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Coxswains, Quarter-Masters, Quarter-Masters' Mates, Chirurgians' Mates, Yeomen of the Powder-Room, Sergeants of Marines and Land Forces on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:

The Trumpeters, Quarter-Gunners, Carpenters' Crew, Stewards, Cooks, Armourers, Stewards' Mates, Cooks' Mates, Gunsmiths, Coopers, Sashers, Ordinary Trumpeters, Barbers, All Seamen, Ordinary Sailors, and Marines and other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty and assisting on board, shall have Two Eighth Parts to be equally divided amongst them.

And We do hereby further order, That in the case of Cutters, Schooners, and other armed Vessels commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of such Lieutenants shall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize; unless such Lieutenants shall be under the Command of a Flag Officer or Officers, in which Case the Flag Officer or Officers shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts, to be divided among such Flag Officer or Officers, in the same Manner hereinbefore directed. In the Case of Captains serving under Flag Officers.

Secondly, We direct, That the Share of the Master or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the Pilot, if there happens to be one on board, shall be One Eighth Part, to be divided into Three Equal Parts, of which Two Thirds shall go to the Master, or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the remaining One Third to the Pilot; but, if there is no Pilot, then such Eighth Part to go wholly to the Master or Person acting as Second in Command:

That the Share of the Chirurgian, or Surgeon's Mate (where there is no Chirurgian), Midshipman, Clerk, and Steward, shall be One Eighth:

That the Share of the Boatwain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's Mates, Yeoman of the Sheets, Sail-Maker, Quarter-Master, and Quarter-Master's Mate, shall be One Eighth:

And the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other

Persons on board, assisting in the Capture, shall be Two Eighth Parts.

But it is Our Intention, nevertheless, that the above Distribution shall only extend to such Captures as shall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, or Armed Vessel, without any of Our Ships or Vessels of War being present, or within Sight of, and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy: but in case any of Our Ships or Vessels of War shall be present or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men on board such Cutters and Schooners, or armed Vessels, shall share in the same Proportion as is allowed to Persons of the like Rank and Denomination on board of Our Ships and Vessels of War: and such Cutters, Schooners, or Armed Vessels, shall not, in respect to such Captures, convey any Interest or Share in the Flag Right to the Flag Officer or Officers, under whose Orders such Cutters, Schooners, and Armed Vessels, may happen to be.

And whereas it is judged expedient, during the present Hostilities, to hire into Our Service Armed Vessels, to be employed as Cruizers against the Enemy, which Vessels are the Property of, and their Masters and Crews are paid by the Merchants of whom they are hired, although several of them are commanded by Our Commissioned Officers in Our Pay: it is Our further Will and Pleasure, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken by such Hired Armed Vessels (except as hereinafter mentioned) shall be for the Benefit of Our Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Masters and Crews on board the said Hired Armed Vessels at the Time of the Capture, and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents, after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise; the Distribution thereof shall be as follows:

The Whole of the neat Produce being divided into Eight equal Parts:

Our Officer commanding any Hired Armed Vessel, who shall be actually on board at the taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighths; but in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be under the Command of a Flag or Flag, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts, the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations as are hereinafter mentioned:

In case there be acting on board such Hired Armed Vessel, besides Our Officer commanding the same, one or more of Our Commissioned Sea Lieutenants in Our Pay, such Lieutenant or Lieutenants shall take One Eighth.

One Eighth shall belong to the Master and Mate, of which the Master shall take Two Thirds, and the Mate One Third; but in case there shall be acting on board such Hired Armed Vessel one or more Midshipmen, or other Persons in Our Pay, of those who are classed with Midshipmen in the former Part of this Our Proclamation, in that case, the Master shall take One Half of the Eighth, and the other Half shall be equally divided between the Mate, Midshipmen, and such other Persons in Our Pay:

Three Eighths shall belong to, and be divided among the other Officers and the Rest of the Crew.

And in the Case of Prizes taken by any Hired Armed Vessel not commanded by any of Our Commissioned Officers, One Eighth shall belong to the Flag Officers, to be divided as aforesaid, in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be under the Command of a Flag :

Two Eighths shall belong to the Master and Mate, of which the Master shall take Two Thirds, and the Mate One Third :

Three Eighths shall belong to and be divided among the other Officers and the rest of the Crew in Manner aforesaid :

The Surplus, the Distribution of which is not herein directed, shall remain at Our Disposal, and if not disposed of within a Year, after final Adjudication, the same shall belong and be paid to Greenwich Hospital.

And in the Case of Prizes taken jointly by any of Our Ships of War and any Hired Armed Vessel, Our Commissioned Officer or Officers on board such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with Our Commissioned Officer or Officers of the same Rank on board Our Ship or Ships of War being Joint Captors, the Master of such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with the Warrant Officers; the Mate of such Hired Armed Vessel, with the Petty Officers, and the Seamen of such Hired Armed Vessel with the Seamen on board Our said Ship or Ships of War, save and except, that in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be commanded by one of Our Commissioned Officers having the Rank of Master and Commander, and there shall be none of Our Lieutenants on board, or in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be commanded by the Master, in both those Cases the Master of such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with the Lieutenants of Our Ships of War, and the Mate with the Warrant Officers.

And in case any Difficulty shall arise in respect to the said Distribution, not herein sufficiently provided for, the same shall be referred to Our Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, whose Direction thereupon shall be final, and have the same Force and Effect as if herein inserted.

Provided that if any Officer being on board any of Our Ships of War, at the Time of taking any Prize, shall have more Commissions or Offices than one, such Officer shall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes which, according to the above-mentioned Distribution, shall belong to his superior Commission or Office.

Provided also, that in all Prizes taken by any of Our Squadrons, Ships, or Vessels, while acting in Conjunction with any Squadron, Ship, or Vessel of any other Power that may be in Alliance with Us, a Share of such Prizes shall be set apart and be at Our further Disposal, equal to that Share which the Flag and other Officers and Crews of such Squadron, Ships, or Vessels would have been entitled to if they had belonged to Us.

And We do hereby strictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Vessels of War taking any Prize, to transmit as soon as may be, or cause to be transmitted to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a true List of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, who were actually on board Our Ships and Vessels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture, which List shall contain the Quality of the Service of each Person on board, together with the Description of the Men, taken from the Detachments, Books of the capturing Ship or Ships, and their several Ratings, and be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on board: And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such Lists by the Master Books of such Ships, and Vessels of War and Lists annexed thereto, to see that such Lists do agree with the said Master Books, and annexed Lists, as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others belonging to such Ships and Vessels of War; and, upon Request, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any List transmitted to them, to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take care and dispose of such Prizes; and also, upon Application to them, (the said Commissioners,) they shall give, or cause to be given to the said Agents, all such Lists from the Master Books of any such Ships of War and annexed Lists, as the said Agents shall find requisite for their Direction in paying the Produce of such Prizes, and otherwise shall be aiding and assisting to the said Agents in all such Matters as shall be necessary.

We do hereby further will and direct that the following Regulations shall be observed concerning the One Eighth Part hereinbefore mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag Officers who shall actually be on board at the taking of any Prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein :

First, That a Captain of a Ship shall be deemed to be under the Command of a Flag when he shall actually have received some Order directly from, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by, a Flag Officer; and shall be deemed to continue under the Command of such Flag so long as the Flag Officer by whom the Order was issued, or any other Flag Officer acting upon the same Station, shall continue upon such Station; or until such Captain shall have received some Order directly from, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by, some other Flag Officer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Secondly, That a Flag Officer Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag Officer upon Service, shall have to his own Use the said One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels under his Command.

Thirdly, That a Flag Officer, sent to command on any Station, shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels employed there before he arrives within the Limits of such Station, and actually takes upon him the Command, by communicating Orders to the Flag Officer previously in Command: save only that he shall be entitled to a Share of Prizes taken by those particular Ships to which he shall actually have given some Order, and taken under his Command, within the Limits of such Station.

Fourthly, That a Commander in Chief, or other Flag Officer, appointed or belonging to any Station, and passing through or into any other Station, shall not be entitled to share in any Prize taken out of the Limits of the Station to which he is appointed or belongs, by any Ship or Vessel under the Com-

Fourthly, That a Flag Officer of any other Station, or under Admiralty Orders, unless such Commander in Chief, or Flag Officer, is expressly authorized by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to take upon him the Command in that Station in which the Prize is taken, and shall actually have taken upon him such Command, in Manner aforesaid.

Fifthly, That when an inferior Flag Officer is sent to reinforce a superior Flag Officer on any Station, the superior Flag Officer shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag Officer before the inferior Flag Officer shall arrive within the Limits of the Station, and, moreover, shall actually receive some Order directly from him, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by him.

Sixthly, That a Chief Flag Officer quitting a Station either to return Home, or to assume another Command, or otherwise, except upon some particular urgent Service, with the Intention of returning to the Station as soon as such Service is performed, shall have no Share of Prizes taken by the Ships or Vessels left behind, after he shall have passed the Limits of the Station, or after he shall have surrendered the Command to another Flag Officer appointed by the Admiralty to be Commander in Chief upon such Station.

Seventhly, That an inferior Flag Officer quitting a Station, except when detached by Orders from his Commander in Chief out of the Limits thereof upon a special Service, with Orders to return to such Station as soon as such Service is performed, shall have no Share in Prizes taken by the Ships and Vessels remaining on the Station, after he shall have passed the Limits thereof; and in like Manner the Flag Officers remaining on the Station shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by such inferior Flag Officer, or by the Ships and Vessels under his immediate Command, after he shall have quitted the Limits of the Station, except when detached as aforesaid.

Eighthly, That when Vessels, under the Command of a Flag, which belong to separate Stations, shall happen to be Joint Captors, the Captain of each Ship shall pay One Third of the Share to which he is entitled to the Flag Officers of the Station to which he belongs; but the Captains of Vessels under Admiralty Orders, being Joint Captors with other Vessels under a Flag, shall retain the Whole of their Share.

Ninthly, That if a Flag Officer is sent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels which have sailed, or shall sail, from that Port by Order from the Admiralty.

Tenthly, That when more Flag Officers than One serve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Vessels of the Fleet, or Squadron, shall be divided in the following Proportions, viz. If there be but Two Flag Officers, the Chief shall have Two Third Parts of the said One Eighth, and the Other shall have the remaining Third Part; but if the Number of Flag Officers be more than Two, the Chief shall have only One Half, and the other Half shall be equally divided among the other Flag Officers.

Eleventhly, That Commodores, with Captains under them, shall be esteemed as Flag Officers with respect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief, or serving under Command.

Twelfthly, That the first Captain to the Admiral, and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and also the first Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet, or Squadron of Ten Ships of the Line of Battle or upwards, shall be deemed and taken to be a Flag Officer, and shall be entitled to a Part or Share of Prizes, as the Junior Flag Officer of such Fleet or Squadron.

On Monday July 25.

The Sergeants from the Foot Guards at Ninepence per Diem; the Sergeants, Corporals, and Private Men who received the increased Pension on Account of Blindness; as also the Sergeants disbanded from the late Independent Companies, who receive One Shilling per Day; with the Private Gentlemen who receive Annuities from the late 1st and 2d Troops of Horse Guards.

And that all Out Pensioners (as well Lettermen as others) belonging to the said Hospital, who live at a greater Distance than Twenty-five Miles from London, and those in Scotland and Ireland, are hereby required and commanded, after the 25th of December next, and after every succeeding 25th of June and 25th of December, until further Orders, to apply to One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the Neighbourhood where they reside, and make the following Affidavit, which the said Magistrate for the County, City, Borough, or Riding before whom the Pensioner appears, will sign and date, viz.

"I came before me, One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of _____, and made Oath, that he was admitted an Out Pensioner of Chelsea-Hospital on the _____ Day of _____ 17 (or 18) from the _____ Regiment of _____, commanded by _____; was then aged _____ Years, served in the _____ Army _____ Years, was discharged for _____, and that he is no otherwise provided for by the Public but as a Pensioner of the said Hospital, and now lives in the Parish of _____, in the County of _____.

"Sworn before me this _____ Day of _____ 1803."

The Affidavit, drawn according to the above Form, dated and attested by a Magistrate, is to be put up in a Cover, and sent by the General Post, directed thus, "To the Right Honorable the Paymaster-General, at the Horse Guards, London." And Counterparts, or Duplicates, of the said Affidavits, are to be referred by the Out Pensioners respectively, to be exhibited to such Persons as shall be directed to pay them, that they may be satisfied that all such as may claim Out Pensions are the real Persons entitled to receive the same.

And to the End that the Commissioners for the Affairs of Chelsea Hospital may be satisfied that the Pensioners are the same Persons who have passed their Examination, it is hereby further directed, that such of them who have served in, and have been discharged from, any of the Regiments, or Independent Companies of Invalids, are not to mention in their Affidavits such Regiment or Company of Invalids in which they served last, but the Regiment, Troop, or Corps of the Army, from which they were first discharged, and recommended, and received at Chelsea Hospital.

And as the General Payments in Great Britain and Ireland, at the End of the ensuing Six Months, are generally regulated by the Places of Residence mentioned by the Pensioners, who are muliered at Chelsea in Person, and in the Body of the Affidavits of those who live at a Distance, it is hereby ordered and directed, that no Person who shall change the Place of his Abode given in at his Muster, or specified in his Affidavit aforesaid, and who may apply for his Pension (excepting to the Officers of Excise nearest such Place of Abode), shall receive the same, unless it appears by the Certificate of respectable Persons, that such Removal was through unavoidable Necessity, which he or they could not foresee or prevent.

It is also hereby notified, that none will be entered upon the Pay Lists of the said Hospital, or be entitled to receive any Benefit therefrom, who shall not act agreeably to these Orders and Directions.

And His Majesty has been pleased to command, on this Occasion, that all the Lettermen, Sergeants, Trumpeters, and Drummers, on the Out Pension of Chelsea, or Kilmainham Hospitals, residing within the above District, whether discharged from the Regular Cavalry or Infantry, or from the Militia, or Fencibles, (such Men as by the Hospital Books, are now more than Sixty Years of Age, or who have lost a Limb, or their Eye-sight, or are Cripples, or who received a Certificate of their total Unfitness for further Service, from any of the Officers employed at the General Examination of Out Pensioners, in the Month of December 1802, excepted,) do, at the Times of their Appearance, as above mentioned, put themselves under the Orders of the Officers, who have been appointed to take them in Charge, and to cause them to be examined, as to their Fitness for Duty, either in the Army of Reserve, or on such other Service, as His Majesty may think proper to employ them upon, for the Defence of the Realm.

His Majesty is graciously pleased to declare, that all the said Lettermen, Sergeants, Trumpeters, and Drummers shall be considered as entitled to the Pension for the Six Months commencing from Midsummer last, notwithstanding those found fit for Service will commence Pay according to the Ranks which they held when discharged, from the respective Days of their Appearance, in pursuance of this Order.

Admiralty-Office, July 12, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated off Ushant, 7th July, 1803.

SIR,

I REQUEST you will be pleased to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty the enclosed Copy of a Letter to Rear Admiral Collingwood, from Captain Wallis of His Majesty's Ship Naiad, giving an Account of his having, with the Boats of that Ship, under the Command of Lieutenant William Deane, taken out from an Anchorage, within the Rocks at the Saints, a French National Schooner; which Service appears to have been performed very much to the Credit of those who were intrusted with the Execution of it.

I am, &c. W. CORNWALLIS.

His Majesty's Ship Naiad, in the Bay of Brest, 5th July 1803.

FROM the Information I received, that a French National Schooner was lying in the Saints, and which I had the Honor to communicate to you Yesterday, I made a Disposition of the Boats of His Majesty's Ships under my Command to bring her out last Night, and placed them under the Direction of Mr. William Deane, First Lieutenant; he was assisted by Mr. John Louis Third Lieutenant, Lieutenant Irwin of the Marines, Messrs. Gordon, Glenny, and Stewart, Midshipmen, all Volunteers on the Occasion; and, notwithstanding all the Difficulties they had to encounter, by the Rapidity of the Tide, and the Number of Rocks and Shoals they had to pass, they brought her off to me this Morning without the smallest Accident happening to either the Boats or Men.

She proves to be La Providence, of near 200 Tons Burthen, only Two Guns mounted, and had Twenty-two Men, commanded by Citizen Martres Preville, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, who, on the Approach of our Boats, got on Shore with his Officers and Crew, except one Man and Two Boys. She was bound to Brest from the Foundry near Nantes, and is laden with Heavy Cannon of Thirty-six, Twenty-four, and Eighteen French Poundsers, and some choice Timber for their Navy.

Lieutenant Deane's Conduct on this Occasion merits my warmest Approbation, and he speaks greatly in Praise of the Officers and Men placed under his Command.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JAMES WALLIS.

*Rear-Admiral Collingwood,
&c. &c. &c.*

St. James's, July 6, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, for themselves, and in Behalf of the Community of the said City.

WE beg Leave, at this important Crisis, to lay before your Majesty the Assurances of our continued Affection and Loyalty. We, in common with the Rest of your faithful People, have beheld with proper and indignant Feelings that Spirit of Encroachment against the Powers of the Continent, and that rancorous and determined Hatred against this Country, which have marked the Proceedings of the French Government in all its Relations, and in all its Acts, since the Conclusion of the Peace.

We are satisfied that, between Peace and War, at the present Moment, your Majesty had no Choice; and, as we are sensible that your Majesty has drawn your Sword in Defence of the Liberty and Independence of your People, your Majesty may be assured that your faithful Subjects of this City will devote their Lives and Fortunes in Support of the Honor and Dignity of the Crown.

The long and unexampled Happpines which Providence has bestowed on these Nations, makes the Defence of our glorious Constitution, a religious, as well as a civil Duty; and we beg leave to assure your Majesty, that, animated by Gratitude to Almighty God, and by Attachment to your Person, we shall not consider any Sacrifices as too great, which your Majesty and Parliament may require for the Prosecution of the War.

The Resources of this great Empire are yet unimpaired, your People are unanimous, and we rely on your Majesty's Paternal Care for their Safety, to direct the whole Resources and Spirit of the Nation to defeat the Attacks, and chastise the Insolence of the Enemy.

In contributing our full Proportion of Men and Money to your Majesty's Service, we beg your Majesty to believe that we give cheerfully and heartily, well knowing that all that is dear to us is involved in the Defence of a Sovereign, whose mild, but dignified Reign, has excited the Envy and Hatred of an Enemy who wishes to overthrow what his bad Passions do not allow him to imitate.

We again beg your Majesty to rely on the Zeal and Loyalty of the Inhabitants of this Capital, and on our most decided Exertions to forward your Majesty's Service, both by our Example as Men, and our Authority as Magistrates.

Signed in Name of, and in Presence of the Council, and by their Appointment, 6th July 1803. Neil Macvicar, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Lord Advocate to the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, and presented by his Lordship to the King.]

TO THE KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Highland Society of Scotland, incorporated by Royal Charter, assembled in a special general Meeting, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, with renewed Assurances of Affection for your Majesty's Person, and of Attachment to your Family and Government.

We trust that your Majesty will believe that we warmly participate in the just Indignation which has been expressed by both Houses of Parliament at the recent Proceedings of the French Government. Those Proceedings are so much in contradiction to the Spirit of Peace, and mark such a determined and malignant Hostility to the British Empire, as we are persuaded can only originate in the Envy of the Condition of this Country, the benign and paternal Sway of whose Sovereign, and the Freedom and Happiness of whose Subjects expose equally the Tyranny of the Government of France, and the degraded State of its People. Our Representatives, Sir, have pledged our Lives and Fortunes to support your Majesty; that Engagement we cordially ratify, and entreat your Majesty to believe, that we shall consider the most energetic and vigorous Efforts which your Majesty may adopt, not as Burdens which are imposed upon us, but as a fresh Proof of the Wisdom of your Parliament, and your Majesty's Paternal Care for the Safety of your People. We know your Majesty's Aversion to encrease the Burdens and Privations of your Subjects, but we humbly entreat that no such Consideration may prevent your Majesty from calling forth the whole Resources of this great Empire. We are sensible that your Majesty has called on your People to arm against the most imminent Danger, which, for a long Time has threatened this Nation; a Danger which we deprecate in Proportion to the superior Blessings which under your Majesty's mild Administration, Providence has hitherto permitted us to enjoy. We know and feel that our own Happiness, and that of our Children, depend on preserving the Constitution in its full Vigour, and your Majesty's Throne in undiminished Splendour. We therefore repeat our Assurances to support your Majesty in the Hour of Peril, and our most earnest Prayer that you will be pleased to dispose of every Aid and Service in our Power in defending the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Rights and Safety of your People.

Signed by order of the Meeting. Melville.

St. James's, July 13, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of Perthshire, at this momentous Crisis present at your Majesty's Throne, our Assurances of zealous and determined Support in the arduous Contest in which the British Empire is engaged:—We well know, that the present is no common Warfare:—We know, that we are now contending for our Existence as a Nation, and for every Thing that is dear to Britons, or to Men:—We know, that a domineering and arrogant Enemy, after having reduced to Slavery, or subjected to his Controul many of the Nations of Europe, is exerting every Effort in order to subdue and destroy that People whose Spirit and Resources have hitherto, by the Blessing of Heaven, preserved their Independence and their Greatness, and saved them from gigantic and desolating Ambition. Recent Events have convinced us that every Effort to procure or preserve Amity with France, and the Ruler of France was unavailing; and that that Period which ought to have been the Period of Peace, has been characterized by a Spirit of Hostility, of Insult, and of Injury to this Country: Every further Concession or Relinquishment, it was therefore manifest could answer no other Purpose than to diminish the Power of Resistance and to facilitate the Means of Destruction. On the Issue of the War in which we have been involved (while we are neither appalled by the Danger, nor shrink from the Contest), we feel and we know depends the Enjoyment of our National Liberties, of our Freedom, of our political, domestic, and individual Happiness. If we fail, (and we can only fail from a Deficiency in Exertion,) abject Thralldom and Wretchedness must be our Portion; but if, under Providence, we are victorious, we shall attain more permanent and honorable Security and Prosperity, than even we, as a Nation, have hitherto enjoyed.

In this arduous Contest, which affects the Inhabitants of this Country of all Ranks and Descriptions, and in which all Classes of Men are interested, we can assure your Majesty that in this Part of your Dominions the same Spirit, and the same Zeal, to avenge the Insults of our menacing and vain foe, animates every Individual. Embarked, as all now are, in one common Cause of Interest, of Danger, and we trull, of Glory, the Feelings by which all are influenced, are those by which, at this momentous Crisis, Britons ought to be animated, and the Conduct which all are anxious to adopt is such, as in the present Times Britons ought to pursue. We therefore beg to declare to your Majesty that the Sacrifices and Exertions which your Vigilance and the Wisdom of Parliament have called for, are deemed by us highly ac-cessary in this Emergency, and shall be cheerfully made on our Part; and we also beg to assure your Majesty that we shall willingly make such additional Sacrifices and Exertions as may, in the Situation of the Country, be demanded, for our Conduct is not to be influenced by that short-sighted and insatuated Policy which looks only to the Pressure of the Sacrifice, and not to the Magnitude of the Evil it is calculated to avert.

The Resources of the British Empire are immense; the Spirit of that numerous, powerful, and loyal People over which your Majesty reigns, prompts them to Achievements worthy of the British Name, and of the Fame and the Renown of their Ancestors; and we have no Doubt your Majesty will employ those Resources and that Power with Vigour and Effect, and will call forth into active Exertion that Spirit in such a Manner as not only to afford complete Protection against hostile Invasion, but also to establish the permanent Security of the British Empire.

Signed by our Princes, in our Name, and by our Appointment at Perth, the Ninth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Charles Moray Stirling, P.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and ancient Borough of Northampton, in our Guildhall at this Time assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with Hearts glowing with the warmest Affection and the truest Loyalty. The restless and insatiable Ambition of our inveterate Enemy, who has again plunged us into the Horrors of War, and who at this Moment openly threatens us with the total Subversion of our glorious Constitution, and the Destruction of every Thing dear to us, as a free and independent Nation, irretrievably calls upon every Description of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, to press forward with one Heart and one Voice to offer to your Majesty their firm and most active Support in repelling the insolent Designs of the Enemy. We are happy in obeying the animating Call, and with the utmost Readiness to offer to your Majesty our willing though inconsiderable Services, relying with perfect Confidence on your Majesty's kind and paternal Goodness, in restoring to us, whenever it can be attained, consistent with the true Honor and lasting Security of the British Empire, the inestimable Blessings of Peace.

[Presented by the Honorable Spencer Perceval and the Honorable E. Bouverie, Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

A PROCLAMATION,

For granting the Distribution of Prizes during the present Hostilities.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, by Our Order in Council, dated the Sixteenth Day of May last, We have ordered that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of France; and by Our Order in Council, dated the Sixteenth Day of June last, We have ordered that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the Batavian Republic; so that, as well Our Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque, or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to France or the Batavian Republic, or any Persons being Subjects of France or the Batavian Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of France or of the Batavian Republic, and bring the same to Judgment in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within Our Dominions, duly authorized and required to take Cognizance thereof: We being desirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects who shall lawfully seize the same, and having declared in Council, by Our Order of the Sixteenth Day of June last, Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods during the present Hostilities, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice and Consent of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken, the Right whereof is inherent in Us and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service, of Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to Our further Pleasure, and also save and except as hereinafter-mentioned,) but subject to the Payment of all such or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter set forth; that is to say,

That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprisals, (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service of, Our Commissioners aforesaid,) may be sold and disposed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters, and others to whom such Letters of Marque and Reprisals are granted, for their own Use and Benefit after final Adjudication, and not before.

And We do hereby further order and direct, that the neat Produce of all Prizes which are or shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, (save and except when they shall be acting on any conjunct Expedition with Our Army, in which Case We reserve to Ourselves the Division and Distribution of all Prize and Booty taken; and also save and except as hereinafter-mentioned,) shall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag-Officers, Captains, Commanders, and other Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers on board our said Ships and Vessels at the Time of the Capture; and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents after the same shall have been to the finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise.

The Distribution shall be made as follows: The Whole of the neat Produce being first divided into Eight equal Parts:

The Captain or Captains of any of Our said Ships or Vessels of War, who shall be actually on board at the taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighth Parts; but in case any such Prize shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the Three Eighth Parts; the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations as are hereinafter-mentioned.

The Captains of Marines and Land-Forces, Sea Lieutenants, and Master on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them: but that every Physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, shall, in the Distribution of Prizes which shall hereafter be taken by the Ships in which he shall serve, or in which such Ships' Company shall be entitled to share, be classed with the Sea Lieutenants with respect to the said One Eighth Part, and be allowed to share equally with them: provided such Physician be actually on board at the Time of taking such Prizes:

The Lieutenants and Quarter-Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns, and Quarter-Masters of Land Forces, Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Second-Masters of Line of Battle Ships, Boatswains, Gunners, Purfers, Carpenters, Masters' Mates, Chirurgens, Pilots, and Chaplains on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:

The Midshipmen, Captains' Clerks, Master Sail-makers, Carpenters' Mates, Boatswains' Mates, Gunners' Mates, Masters at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Coxswains, Quarter-Masters, Quarter-Masters' Mates, Chirurgens' Mates, Yeomen of the Powder-Room, Sergeants of Marines and Land Forces on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:

The Trumpeters, Quarter-Gunners, Carpenters' Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourers, Stewards' Mates, Cooks' Mates, Gunsmiths, Coopers, Swabbers, Ordinary Trumpeters, Barbers, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines and other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty and assisting on board, shall have Two Eighth Parts to be equally divided amongst them.

And we do hereby further order, That in the case of Cutters, Schooners, and other armed Vessels commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of such Lieutenants shall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unless such Lieutenants shall be under the Command of a Flag Officer or Officers, in which Case the Flag Officer or Officers shall have One of the said Three Eighths, to be divided among such Flag Officer or Officers, in the same Manner, herein before directed, in the Case of Captains serving under Flag Officers.

Secondly, We direct, That the Share of the Master or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the Pilot, (if there happens to be one on board), shall be One Eighth Part, to be divided into Three Equal Parts, of which Two Thirds shall go to the Master or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the remaining One Third to the Pilot; but, if there is no Pilot, then such Eighth Part to go wholly to the Master or Person acting as Second in Command:

That the Share of the Chirurgens, or Surgeon's Mate, (where there is no Chirurgens), Midshipmen, Clerk, and Steward, shall be One Eighth:

That the Share of the Boatswain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's Mates, Yeoman of the Sheets, Sail-Maker, Quarter-Master, and Quarter-Master's Mate, shall be One Eighth:

And the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other

Persons on board, assisting in the Capture, shall be Two Eighth Parts.

But it is Our Intention, nevertheless, that the above Distribution shall only extend to such Captures as shall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, or Armed Vessel, without any of Our Ships or Vessels of War being present, or within Sight of, and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy; but in case any of Our Ships or Vessels of War shall be present or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men on board such Cutters and Schooners, or armed Vessels, shall share in the same Proportion as is allowed to Persons of the like Rank and Denomination on board of Our Ships and Vessels of War; and such Cutters, Schooners, or Armed Vessels, shall not, in respect to such Captures, convey any Interest or Share in the Flag Eighth to the Flag Officer or Officers, under whose Orders such Cutters, Schooners, and Armed Vessels, may happen to be.

And whereas it is judged expedient, during the present Hostilities, to hire into Our Service Armed Vessels, to be employed as Cruizers against the Enemy, which Vessels are the Property of, and their Masters and Crews are paid by, the Merchants of whom they are hired, although several of them are commanded by Our Commissioned Officers in Our Pay; it is Our further Will and Pleasure, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken by such Hired Armed Vessels (except as hereinafter mentioned) shall be for the Benefit of Our Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Masters and Crews on board the said Hired Armed Vessels at the Time of the Capture, and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents, after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise; the Distribution thereof shall be as follows:

The Whole of the neat Produce being divided into Eight equal Parts;

Our Officer commanding any Hired Armed Vessel, who shall be actually on board at the taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighths; but in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts, the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations as are hereinafter mentioned:

In case there be acting on board such Hired Armed Vessel, besides Our Officer commanding the same, one or more of Our Commissioned Sea Lieutenants in Our Pay, such Lieutenants or Lieutenants shall take One Eighth:

One Eighth shall belong to the Master and Mate, of which the Master shall take Two Thirds, and the Mate One Third; but in case there shall be acting on board such Hired Armed Vessel one or more Midshipmen, or other Person in Our Pay, of those who are classed with Midshipmen in the former Part of this Our Proclamation, in that case, the Master shall take One Half of the Eighth, and the other Half shall be equally divided between the Mate, Midshipmen, and such other Persons in Our Pay:

Three Eighths shall belong to, and be divided

among the other Officers and the Rest of the Crew.

And in the Case of Prizes taken by any Hired Armed Vessel not commanded by any of Our Commissioned Officers, One Eighth shall belong to the Flag Officers, to be divided as aforesaid, in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be under the Command of a Flag:

Two Eighths shall belong to the Master and Mate, of which the Master shall take Two Thirds, and the Mate One Third:

Three Eighths shall belong to and be divided among the other Officers and the rest of the Crew in Manner aforesaid:

The Surplus, the Distribution of which is not herein directed, shall remain at Our Disposal, and if not disposed of within a Year, after final Adjudication, the same shall belong and be paid to Greenwich Hospital.

And in the Case of Prizes taken jointly by any of Our Ships of War and any Hired Armed Vessel, Our Commissioned Officer or Officers on board such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with Our Commissioned Officer or Officers of the same Rank on board Our Ship or Ships of War being Joint Captors, the Master of such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with the Warrant Officers; the Mate of such Hired Armed Vessel, with the Petty Officers, and the Seamen of such Hired Armed Vessel with the Seamen on board Our said Ship or Ships of War, five and except, that in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be commanded by one of Our Commissioned Officers having the Rank of Master and Commander, and there shall be none of Our Lieutenants on board, or in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be commanded by the Master, in both these Cases the Master of such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with the Lieutenants of Our Ships of War, and the Mate with the Warrant Officers.

And in case any Difficulty shall arise in respect to the said Distribution, not herein sufficiently provided for, the same shall be referred to Our Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, whose Direction thereupon shall be final, and have the same Force and Effect as if herein inserted.

Provided that if any Officer being on board any of Our Ships of War, at the Time of taking any Prize, shall have more Commissions or Offices than one, such Officer shall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes which, according to the above mentioned Distribution, shall belong to his superior Commission or Office.

Provided also, that in all Prizes taken by any of Our Squadrons, Ships, or Vessels, while acting in Conjunction with any Squadron, Ship, or Vessel of any other Power that may be in Alliance with Us, a Share of such Prizes shall be set apart and be at Our further Disposal, equal to that Share which the Flag and other Officers and Crews of such Squadron, Ships, or Vessels would have been entitled to if they had belonged to Us.

And We do hereby strictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Vessels of War taking any Prize, to transmit as soon as may be, or cause to be transmitted to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a true List of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, who were actually on board Our Ships and Vessels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture, which List shall contain the Quality of the Service of each Person on board, together with the Description of the Men, taken from the Description Book, of the capturing Ship or Ships, and their several Ratings, and be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on board: And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such Lists by the Muster Books of such Ships and Vessels of War and Lists annexed thereto, to see that such Lists do agree with the said Muster Books and annexed Lists, as to the Name, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marine, Soldier, and others belonging to such Ships and Vessels of War; and, upon Request, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any List transmitted to them, to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take care and dispose of such Prize; and also, upon Application to them, (the said Commissioners,) they shall give, or cause to be given to the said Agents, all such Lists from the Muster Books of any such Ships of War and annexed Lists, as the said Agents shall find requisite for their Direction in paying the Produce of such Prizes, and otherwise shall be aiding and assisting to the said Agents in all such Matters as shall be necessary.

We do hereby further will and direct that the following Regulations shall be observed concerning the One Eighth Part heretofore mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag Officers who shall actually be on board at the taking of any Prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein:

First, That a Captain of a Ship shall be deemed to be under the Command of a Flag when he shall actually have received some Order directly from, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by, a Flag Officer; and shall be deemed to continue under the Command of such Flag so long as the Flag Officer by whom the Order was issued, or any other Flag Officer acting upon the same Station, shall continue upon such Station; or until such Captain shall have received some Order directly from, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by, some other Flag Officer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Secondly, That a Flag Officer Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag Officer upon Service, shall have to his own Use the said One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels under his Command.

Thirdly, That a Flag Officer, sent to command on any Station, shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels employed there before he arrives within the Limits of such Station, and actually takes upon him the Command, by communicating Orders to the Flag Officer previously in Command; save only that he shall be entitled to a Share of Prizes taken by those particular Ships to which he shall actually have given some Order, and taken under his Command, within the Limits of such Station.

Fourthly, That a Commander in Chief, or other Flag Officer, appointed or belonging to any Station, and passing through or into any other Station, shall not be entitled to share in any Prize taken out of the Limits of the Station to which he is appointed or belongs, by any Ship or Vessel under the Command of a Flag Officer of any other Station, or under Admiralty Orders, unless such Commander in Chief, or Flag Officer, is expressly authorized by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to take upon him the Command in that Station in which the Prize is taken, and shall actually have taken upon him such Command, in Manner aforesaid.

Fifthly, That when an inferior Flag Officer is sent to reinforce a superior Flag Officer on any Station, the superior Flag Officer shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag Officer before the inferior Flag Officer shall arrive within the Limits of the Station, and, moreover, shall actually receive some Order directly from him, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by him.

Sixthly, That a Chief Flag Officer quitting a Station either to return Home, or to assume another Command, or otherwise, except upon some particular urgent Service, with the Intention of returning to the Station as soon as such Service is performed, shall have no Share of Prizes taken by the Ships or Vessels left behind, after he shall have passed the Limits of the Station, or after he shall have surrendered the Command to another Flag Officer appointed by the Admiralty to be Commander in Chief upon such Station.

Seventhly, That an inferior Flag Officer quitting a Station, except when detached by Orders from his Commander in Chief out of the Limits thereof upon a special Service, with Orders to return to such Station as soon as such Service is performed, shall have no Share in Prizes taken by the Ships and Vessels remaining on the Station, after he shall have passed the Limits thereof; and in like Manner the Flag Officers remaining on the Station shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by such inferior Flag Officer, or by the Ships and Vessels under his immediate Command, after he shall have quitted the Limits of the Station, except when detached as aforesaid.

Eighthly, That when Vessels, under the command of a Flag, which belong to separate Stations, shall happen to be Joint Captors, the Captain of each Ship shall pay One Third of the Share to which he is entitled to the Flag Officers of the Station to which he belongs; but the Captains of Vessels under Admiralty Orders, being Joint Captors with other Vessels under a Flag, shall retain the Whole of their Share.

Ninthly, That if a Flag Officer is sent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels which have failed, or shall fail, from that Port by Order from the Admiralty.

Tenthly, That when more Flag Officers than One serve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Vessels of the Fleet, or Squadron, shall be divided in the following Proportions, viz. If there be but Two Flag Officers, the Chief shall have Two Third Parts of the said One Eighth, and the Other shall have the remaining Third Part; but if the Number of Flag Officers be more than Two, the Chief shall have only One Half, and the other Half shall be equally divided among the other Flag Officers.

Eleventhly, That Commodores, with Captains under them, shall be esteemed as Flag Officers with respect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief, or serving under Command.

Twelfthly, That the first Captain to the Admiral, and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and also the first Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet, or Squadron of Ten Ships of the Line of Battle or upwards, shall be deemed and taken to be a Flag Officer, and shall be entitled to a Part or Share of Prizes, as the Junior Flag Officer of such Fleet or Squadron.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Seventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's, July 13, 1803

THE following Addressees having been presented to the King; which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Lord Lieutenant, High-Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Magistrates of the County of Buckingham, in Behalf of ourselves and of the Inhabitants of this County at large, beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we feel it equally the Duty and Inclination of your Majesty's faithful Subjects of this your loyal County of Buckingham to support your Majesty to the utmost, by every Exertion in our Power, in defending against an ambitious, insident, and perfidious Enemy the just Rights of your Majesty's Crown, and the Liberties, Properties, and Lives of the Inhabitants of this great and free Country: And that we doubt not, that, by the Exertion of that Courage, Perseverance, and public Spirit, by which Brits have always been characterized in the Hour of Difficulty or Danger, all hostile Attempts against this United Kingdom will be frustrated, and the Endeavour turned only to the Confusion of our Enemies.

Signed in Behalf of ourselves and the said Deputy-Lieutenants and Magistrates, and of the Inhabitants of this County at large, at a Meeting held at Aylesbury, in and for the said County of Buckingham, on Thursday the Fourteenth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Nagels Buckingham, Lieutenant of the County.

Jos. Franklin, High-Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Magistrates of the North Riding of the County of York, to the King's most gracious Majesty.

S I R E!

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Magistrates of the North Riding of the County of York, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and lay at your Majesty's Feet the Assurance of our heartfelt Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our determined Resolution to defend the Monarchy of this united Kingdom, as established by the Constitution, on its genuine Principles, against every Foe; and should the Threats of Invasion, held forth by the Government of France, take place, we solemnly pledge ourselves to your Majesty, and our Country, that every possible Effort shall be made by us, in Co-operation with our Fellow-Subjects, and in Conformity with the Laws of the Land, to resist and finally defeat the ambitious and insulting Invaders.

Leeds, Lieutenant.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Devizes, beg leave to repeat those Sentiments of Fidelity and Allegiance which the admirable Constitution of these Kingdoms, and your Majesty's paternal Solitude for the Welfare of your Subjects have so justly demanded.

After the short Cessation procured to your People by the conciliating Endeavours of your Majesty's Ministers, we lament that the unrelenting Malice, and insatiable Ambition of our implacable Enemy, has so soon renewed the Miseries of War.

Whilst we contemplate with Indignation the unjust Aggressions and injurious Pretensions of a Power which, ever hostile to the British Name, has, under its present Ruler, affected to aim at no less than the Subjugation of all Europe, permit us to assure your Majesty of our fixed Determination, as far as in our Power, to support every Measure which the Firmness, Wisdom, and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils may resort to for the common Defence.

Feeling confident that every Class of your Majesty's Subjects are warmly animated by the same Sentiments, and that the whole Nation will be united as one Heart and one Arm in the Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government, and the Preservation of the Rights and Liberties of your People, we look forward without Fear to the Issue of the Contest in which we are unhappily engaged, trusting that the Almighty will disappoint the Ambition of our Enemy, and place the Splendor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Prosperity of these Islands beyond the Power of Aggression.

That your Majesty may reign long and happy over a free, loyal, and united People, is our most earnest Prayer.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Addington.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of your ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes in Common Council assembled, ever eager to evince our Attachment to our most excellent Sovereign, beg Permission to lay before your Majesty the Assurances of our unshaken Loyalty.

Allow us, most gracious Sovereign, to express our Gratitude for the paternal Regard manifested in your Majesty's Endeavours to preferre to us the Blessings of Peace, upon Terms consistent with the Safety and Honor of these Realms. The Pride, Malice, Injustice, and Ambition, however, of our Enemy, having unhappily prevented your Majesty's Councils, actuated by Wisdom, Prudence, and Justice, from attaining the desired Object, we contemplate with Admiration the Vigour and Fortitude so eminently displayed by your Majesty and your Majesty's Councils, the Example of which we feel confident will justify us in assuring your Majesty of the Firmness and Unanimity with which your Majesty's Subjects will meet all the Difficulties, and all the Dangers attendant upon the ensuing Contest; the Issue of which we anticipate with Pleasure, in the Safety of our beloved King, and of that Constitution at all Times, but more particularly at the present Period, so justly dear to us.

Threatened as we are by an implacable Enemy, we rely with Confidence on an all-wise and an all-powerful Providence, who has heretofore so abundantly manifested his Benevolence to us:—to him, therefore, we offer up our earnest Prayers that he will guard and protect your Majesty's sacred Person, that he will shower down upon your Majesty every Happiness, and that he will be pleased to bless these Dominions with a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign.

Given under our Common-Seal in the Council-Chamber of the said Borough, the Ninth Day of July, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

By Order of Council,

James Gent, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Addington.]

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common-Council assembled, ever conscious of your Majesty's Zeal for the public Tranquillity, most gratefully respect your recent Exertions, as the Policy of real Virtue, supported with the Dignity of Equity and Justice.

We view with indignant Spirit the Warfare of infamous Usurpation, the Spoils of invaded States and the Vengeance of insolent Ambition denounced against your Majesty's Dominions.

A Period to awfully important to your sacred Person and United Kingdoms demands the firmest Union of all Hearts, the Liberty of Support, and the Ardour of Enterprize.

In the Confidence of your Majesty's gracious Care and Protection, we pledge the Assurance of our utmost Fidelity; we entrust our Defence to the Energy of virtuous Unanimity, and rest our Deliverance from impending Danger in the Supreme Disposer of all Victory.

Given under our Common-Seal of the said City this Twelfth Day of July, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by John Palmer, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry, feel it our Duty in the present Situation of public Affairs to offer your Majesty this unfeigned Testimony of our Attachment and Allegiance to your Royal Person and Government. We contemplate with Indignation the insatiate Ambition, and the insidious Endeavours of the Enemy to interfere with your Majesty's judicial Courts, to distress our National Commerce and Manufactures, and to violate the Freedom of the British Press. Fully sensible that your Majesty has shewn, during the late Negotiation, the most sincere Desire to preserve the Blessings of Peace, and observing the Spirit manifested by the Government of France to be inconsistent with the general Safety, and with the Liberties of this Country, we are ready to maintain to the utmost of our Ability whatever Measures your Majesty shall think expedient to adopt in Support of the Dignity of your Crown, and for the Security and Welfare of your People.

[Presented by Mr. Moore, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, attended by Mr. Bird, Chairman of the Meeting.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the ancient City of Chester, in Common-Council assembled, feel ourselves called upon at this important Crisis to offer to your Majesty the fullest Assurances of our Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government.

Permit us to assure your Majesty that we will most cheerfully devote ourselves to promote whatever Operations may in your Majesty's Wisdom be devised for the Success of a War into which we are impelled by the inordinate Ambition and the deceitful Proceedings of the Rulers of France.

Conscious of the Necessity to repel the Views and frustrate the avowed Intentions of that restless Government to overthrow that happy Constitution, which, under your Majesty, consolidates the Happiness of the Nation all your faithful Subjects must see and gratefully acknowledge the wise and vigorous Measures taken by your Majesty, and most cordially unite, as we do, in concurring therein.

Given under our Common Seal, this Fifteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Robert Hodgson, Mayor.

[Presented by Earl Grosvenor, accompanied by the Representatives in Parliament for the City, and the Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ardent dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the fullest Assurance to your Majesty, that we will, by every Means in our Power, use our utmost Exertions in Support of your Majesty in the present War;—a War unavoidable;—brought on by the unbounded Ambition of the Government of France.

We lament the Miseries that will attend this Contest, but trust, with the Assistance of Divine Providence, that the happy Union of your Majesty's Subjects, the Wisdom of your Councils, and the known Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, will bring it to a speedy Conclusion, and be the Means of procuring a solid and lasting Peace to your Majesty's Dominions, and of proving to the World the greatest Glory of Britons—their Loyalty to their King, and Attachment to that Constitution, by which they enjoy the Blessings of true Liberty.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and loyal People, and be the Means of transmitting the Happiness we enjoy to the latest Ages, is our most fervent Prayer.

Given under our Common-Seal this Fifteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, Inhabitants of the City, Close, and Neighbourhood, of New Sarum, beg Leave to approach the Throne, with all those Sentiments of genuine Loyalty, which have ever characterized this great and generous Nation.—The present Crisis is awful and momentous—we are called upon by your Majesty to contend with no common Foe. Intoxicated with Success, and having laid the greatest Part of the civilized World prostrate at his Feet, he braves the Power of the British Empire; the only one that has set Bounds to his gigantic Ambition; he threatens our Coasts with Invasion, and even avows the daring Project of utterly effecting our Destruction.

Indignant, but not dismayed in the Hour of Danger, we rely on the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and do most solemnly assure your Majesty, that, following the Example of our renowned Ancestors, we will shew ourselves worthy of your Confidence, by rising up, as one Man, in Defence of our Religion, our Laws, our Liberties, and our Constitution;—Objects dearer to Englishmen than Life itself.

Signed at the City of New Sarum, the Eighteenth Day of July, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign. James Sutton, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the County of Stafford, assembled in pursuance of your Majesty's Warrant directed to the Lord Lieutenant, feeling, in the fullest Manner, the Blessings which we have enjoyed under our present happy Constitution, calculated beyond that of any other Government to ensure the Happiness, the Liberty, and the Property of the Individuals who have the good Fortune to live under it, and fully satisfied, that, in the present Contest (a Contest of no less Importance than whether we shall continue to exist as an independent Nation, or add one more to those already held in Chains by the despotic Ruler of France), all party Distinctions are forgotten, and every Individual actuated by the same Motive, the Preservation of his King, his Country, and the Constitution established by the Wisdom and Valour of his Ancestors, we entreat your Majesty graciously to accept this our humble Address, and to be assured that we the above described Inhabitants of the County of Stafford, incensed by the Insolence, but not intimidated by the Threats of the Enemy, are ready to stand forward in the Defence of our Country; that we will take every Method necessary to place this Country in the best possible State either for offensive or defensive Operations; that it is our determined Resolution to stand or fall with the Liberties of our Country; and that your Majesty may depend upon every Measure which your Wisdom shall suggest being cordially and personally supported by us your loyal and faithful Subjects.

Signed at the Request of a Meeting held at Stafford the Fifteenth of July One thousand eight hundred and three. Unbridge.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, Yeomanry, and other Inhabitants of the County of Somerset, beg Leave to express our faithful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government at the present awful Crisis of public Affairs.

It is not without the utmost Indignation that we have witnessed the dangerous Spirit of Aggrandizement (aiming at nothing short of universal Empire) which has for some Time marked the Conduct of the French Republic. We feel, Sir, for the subjugated State of a great Part of Europe; nor are we inclined to dissemble the Danger that threatens our own Shores. But a free People can never be dismayed, however daring the Projects, or desperate the Machinations to accomplish their Ruin.

Actuated by this Sentiment, we shall meet with the Firmness of Britons the Exigencies of the Time; and we should deem ourselves unworthy of the dignified Rank we have held in the Scale of Nations, did we decline the most active Exertions in the Defence of our Country, and even to sacrifice our Lives for the Preservation of your Majesty's Person, and of those Laws and Liberties which have been hitherto so well secured by our glorious Constitution.

Such, Sir, are the Assurances that we presume to lay at your Majesty's Feet; and we are convinced that the Kingdom at large is animated with the same Spirit; and that Unanimity in so noble a Cause will obtain for us eventually, with the Blessing of Divine Providence, a safe and honorable Peace.

For and on Behalf of the Meeting,

Hugh Smyth, Sheriff.

Bridgwater, 14th July 1803.

[Presented by Sir Hugh Smyth, Bart. High Sheriff, attended by the Earl Poulett, Lord Lieutenant of the County. The Right Honorable John Hiley Adlington, William Gore Langton, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County. Sir Abraham Ellen, Bart. John Acland, Esq; Sir John Coxe Hippisley, Bart. Thomas Strangeways Horner, Esq; and John Tyndall Warre, Esq;.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the East Riding of Yorkshire, beg Leave to approach your Throne with renewed Assurances of the Fidelity and Attachment which we always bear towards your sacred Person and our happy Constitution, and more particularly at this Time, when our insatiate Enemy, the reigning Governor of France, hath threatened an immediate Attack upon our Country, with a View to general Plunder, and to reduce to Slavery a free and independent Nation.

It is not for us, perhaps, to speculate on what may be attempted by the Vanity of Insolence, or the Madness, of hitherto successful Ambition; but we trust, if ever the First Consul of the French should lead the Armies of France to invade England, that Day will prove an useful and memorable Lesson to both Countries,—to their's, that they cannot violate with Impunity the Rights or Liberties of this Country;—to our's, that, firm as our Forefathers, we can prize and still defend the Rights and Laws they have delivered down to us, and that when, by the Favour of the Almighty Ruler of all Things, we may be restored to the Blessings of Peace, we shall long continue an happy and united People under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,

Ralph Creyke, Chairman.

[Presented by the Honorable H. Lascelles and William Wilberforce, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with renewed Assurances of our unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty, and of our unalterable Attachment to our glorious Constitution.

At this awful Period, being called upon to defend every Thing that is dear to the Monarch and to the Subject, your Majesty may rest assured that we will most zealously concur in such Measures as the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils shall deem expedient for defending the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Safety of our Country.

The unexampled Temper and Moderation evinced by your Majesty during the late Negotiation with France, afford convincing Proof of your Majesty's Desire to preserve the Continuance of Peace; and we feel persuaded that no favourable Opportunity will be lost to restore to us that Blessing, when it can be attained consistently with the Dignity and Security of the United Empire. We therefore beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, until that can be effected, we will cheerfully submit to the Privation, and Burdens that must arise from the Nature of the Contest in which we are engaged.

May that Being, whose Providence has never ceased to shield your sacred Person in the Hour of Peril, still protect and guard your Majesty: May his Wisdom direct your Councils, and his Strength invigorate your Arms: May the present Contest be soon terminated by the Return of a solid and lasting Peace: And may your Majesty long continue to reign over this free and happy Nation.

William Hy, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants of the Borough of Leeds, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty at the present eventful Period with renewed Professions of permanent Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Deeply impressed with the Importance of Peace to the Welfare of this United Kingdom, we gratefully acknowledge the Solitude with which your Majesty sought to secure, and the dignified Moderation with which your Majesty endeavoured to preserve its Blessings to your People; with equal Surprise and Indignation have we viewed the pretended Accusations and real Aggressions of the Enemy which have finally compelled your Majesty, again to have Recourse to Arms.

The violent and no longer vague Menaces of Invasion by that Enemy cannot fail to call forth the spirited and steady Exertions of a Nation which feels, and will defend the numerous constitutional Advantages it enjoys, well aware, that in the present Contest every Thing dear to Freedom and Independence is involved.

We anxiously desire, for their adequate Maintenance, to unite in, and promote whatever Measures may most effectually guard the same, and preserve to your Majesty the Crown you have so long worn for the good of your affectionate and grateful People.

[Presented by the Honorable Henry Lascelles and William Wilberforce, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark-upon-Trent, in the County of Nottingham, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our sincere Belief that every Endeavour has been used by your Majesty and your Ministers to avert from this Country the Calamities of War, and to preserve the Blessings of a solid and uninterrupted Peace; but that in Proportion as these Endeavours have been made, we lament to have witnessed the increased Inveteracy and Enmity of the French Government, and their determined Hostility to this Country; we therefore deem it our indispensable Duty to express to your Majesty our earnest Solicitude to co-operate in such Measures, as shall be adjudged by your Majesty's Councils to be necessary for the Protection and Defence of these Realms, and for the Support of our dearest and most valuable Rights and Interests; and we feel the most decided Confidence that the Zeal, Courage, and Fidelity of all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects will form an insuperable Barrier to the malicious and avengeful Designs of an insulting, implacable, and ambitious Enemy, and eventually produce to this Country, and to the World, the inestimable Blessing of a permanent Peace.

[Presented by Vice-Admiral Sir Charles Pole and Sir Thomas Sutton, the Solicitor-General, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Beverley, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, deeply lament that your Majesty's earnest Endeavours to preserve the Peace of Europe have failed of Success; and we sincerely deplore the insatiable Ambition of the insatuated Ruler of France, which hath prompted him to project the Ruin of this Country, and the Destruction of our happy Constitution of Government, which hath hitherto been, and we trust ever will be, attempted in vain.

Should this rash Invader of the Rights of Nations proceed to make a Descent upon our Coasts, be assured, gracious Sire, that we, united with all other your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, will either conquer him or die in the Conflict; and that we shall deem no Sacrifice too great, no Privation too severe, to preserve our holy Religion, our beloved Sovereign and his Dominions, our inestimable Laws and Liberties, and the Independence of our Country.

Given under our Common-Seal this Sixteenth Day of July, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign. Wm. Middleton, Mayor.

[Presented by Major-General Burton, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this great and awful Crisis with Sentiments of the most affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and the most confident Reliance on the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Government.

Whilst we contemplate with deep Concern (yet without Despair) the Continuance of that Spirit of inveterate Animosity and desperate Ambition which has so long characterized the Government of France, and is invariably directed against our dearest Interests and invaluable Constitution, we cannot repress the Warmth of our Gratitude for the parental Anxiety and unremitting Solicitude manifested by your Majesty for the Welfare and Security of the United Kingdom, and that unexampled Moderation, Candour, and Consistency, which has left to our implacable Enemy no Means of Evasion, no Subterfuge of Disguise. It can be no longer denied that it is their fixed Determination to pursue, at all Hazards, their hostile Designs against the Happiness and Safety of your Majesty's Dominions, and to put an End to our Existence as a free and independent Nation.

Under such Circumstances, we feel the Duty we owe to God and to our Country. Animated by the same Sentiments which your Majesty has been pleased to declare to your People and to the World, attached to your Majesty by Principles of Duty and Gratitude, and sensible that it is only from Courage and Firmness that we can look for present Safety and future Tranquillity, we pledge ourselves to unite with our Fellow-Subjects in Defence of your Majesty's Throne, the Lives and Properties of your People, the Government and Constitution of our Country, and the Honor and Independency of the British Empire.

We know that great Exertions are necessary; we are prepared to make them; and placing our firm Reliance on that Divine Protection which has always hitherto been extended to us, we will support your Majesty to the utmost, and stand or fall with our Religion, our Liberties, and our Laws.

Given under the Common-Seal of the Borough of Derby the Ninth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thos. Lowe, Mayor.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Devonshire and Lord G. A. Cavendish.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, in Great Court assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, anxious upon every Occasion to shew our Zeal for the Support of the glorious Constitution of our Country, and our Loyalty to the best of Kings, humbly beg Permission to repeat our warm and sincere Assurances of that firm and decided Attachment to your Royal Person and Government which has always distinguished this ancient Town and Borough.

The Aggressions, the Spirit of Domination, and the thirst of Ambition which appear to actuate the French Government, having roused the indignant Feelings of every true Englishman, and compelled your Majesty justly to have Recourse to Arms in the Defence of our Laws, our Liberties, and all that is dear and valuable to us; we beg again to assure your Majesty of our fixed Resolution to dedicate our Lives and Fortunes to the Support of the Honour and Security of our Country, in Defence of your Majesty's Government, and of our most excellent and unrivalled Constitution; and during the Contest in which we are thus involved, it shall be our earnest Prayer to that Providence who ordereth all sublunary Things, to prosper your Majesty's Arms by Sea and Land, that the Arrogance and Presumption of our inveterate Foes being humbled and subdued, the Inhabitants of this much envied and happy Kingdom may enjoy the Blessings of uninterrupted Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Moothall, in the said Town and Borough, the Fourteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Sir Andrew S. Hamond, and William Middleton, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The loyal Address of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford, in Yorkshire.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects feel convinced that every Effort to preserve to us the Blessings of Peace has been rendered abortive by the frantic Ambition of the insatuated Ruler of France. With Indignation we have witnessed the shameless Calumnies daily heaped by our inveterate Enemy on your Majesty, your Government and People, and his haughty Menaces of Ruin and Destruction to our Commerce and our Country. Let the Voice of the People assure him that the Subjugation of Britain can never be effected but by the Extirpation of Britons. We cannot better express our Sense of the Prosperity and Happiness we have ever enjoyed under your Majesty's paternal Government, than by our Determination to support with our Persons and our Property every Measure which the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils may adopt, to uphold the Dignity of your Crown, the Honor and Independence of our Country, and the Preservation of all that is dear to a Nation of Freemen.

May God who directs the Destinies of Empires continue to be your Majesty's Guide and Protector.

J. A. Busfield, Chairman.

[Presented by the Honorable H. Lascelles and William Withersorce, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Renewal of Hostilities between your Majesty and the Government of France is an Event that calls for a Repetition of the best Assurances of Loyalty and Fidelity, which a brave and honorable People can make to their gracious and beloved Monarch, we therefore, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of your Borough and Parish of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon, much as we deprecate the Calamities of War, humbly beg Leave to declare to your Majesty, that we are fully prepared to meet them, feeling every Degree of just Indignation at the Aggressions and Insults which the Enemy has presumed to offer to your Crown and Dignity. The same Skill and Intrepidity of your Commanders, both by Sea and Land, together with the same Discipline and dauntless Valour of your Men of every Description, which were so eminently displayed during the late War, will, we doubt not, be equally conspicuous during the present Contest; and we trust that the effective Zeal of all Classes of Persons throughout your United Empire, will, under the Divine Blessing, convince our restless Foe of the Utility of his Projects for subduing and enslaving the free Subjects of a patriot King.

Given under the Seal of the Corporation of the said Borough and Parish, at the Guildhall, the Fourteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three. Wm. Servant, Mayor.

[Presented by William Dewarney, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Councilmen of the Town of Liverpool, in special Council assembled, entreat your Majesty to accept the Assurance of our Veneration for your Majesty's Person, and of our Anxiety to give Effect to every Measure which the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils may adopt for maintaining the Honor and Security of the Empire.

Accustomed to the Blessings of Constitutional Freedom, protected by the Power, and inspired by the Virtues, of a legitimate Sovereign, we spurn at the Degradation of that Military Despotism with which we are threatened by the restless and unprincipled Ambition of an implacable Foe.

Convinced of the Happiness and the Virtues which result from a Sense of national Independence, we are prepared to make every Sacrifice necessary to counteract the Views of the Enemy, and to frustrate every Attempt to destroy the glorious Fabric of our invaluable Constitution.

With these old English Feelings we will endeavour, by Advice, by Example, and by Authority, to animate all within the Sphere of our Influence, to combine their Exertions in repelling the Aggressions, and chastising the Insolence, of an Enemy, whose System is subversive of the Repose, and destructive of the Liberties of the whole human Race.

Given under our Common-Seal at Liverpool the Twelfth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by ——— Hargrave, Esq; the Recorder, accompanied by Lieutenant-General Turton and Major General Caisne, Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

We beg to beg your Majesty,
WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Traders, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, impressed with the Importance of the present Crisis, beg Leave to offer our Professions of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, to our free and happy Constitution, and to the just Rights of our Country.

At a Period like the present, when a proud and insolent Foe openly meditates an Attack, which has for its Object, not only to overturn our Constitution and Laws, but to involve the Blessings of Property, Security, and Civilization in one common Ruin, and blot from the List of Nations the English Name:—we think there is an imperious Necessity for suspending all lesser Questions, and looking only to the Safety of the Empire.

Permit us, Sir, to express our Hopes, that the Hearts and Hands of every Man will be united at the present Moment, and that your Majesty's Subjects may be universally found worthy of the Birthright which they have inherited, and of the high Lineage from which they are sprung.

Inconvenience, Privation, and Suffering may be expected, and must be endured; and we trust that we shall submit to them patiently, and even cheerfully, in the full Confidence of a happy Issue to the present Contest for the Rights and Independence of our Country, without which we can neither hope to enjoy Peace nor preserve Honor.

Signed at the Request and on Behalf of a General Meeting, held this Thirteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Town-Hall, at Liverpool.

Jonas Bold, Mayor.

Presented by Lieutenant-General Tarleton and Major-General Gaseigne, Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Justice, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AT this Crisis when the Government of France, actuated by Lust of universal Conquest and universal Tyranny, has created an unavoidable Necessity for War, we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Justice, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, feel it incumbent on us humbly to repeat our Assurances of loyal and unalterable Attachment to your Person, Crown, and Dignity: and to express our grateful Acknowledgments to your Majesty for the late reiterated and signal Proofs which you have been pleased to give of your firm Resolution to protect our Rights and Interests, and to preserve the Importance of this Realm in the Scale of Nations. Judging of our Fellow Subjects by ourselves, we conceive that the declared Intention of the Enemy to invade this Country, can have no other Effect than to concentrate the Affections and Energies of all Orders of People within this United Empire in one common Purpose of defending their King and Country, and to evince to the present and future Ages, that these Dominions, under a Monarch who is the Patron of the Civil and Religious Interests of his Subjects, are impregnable.

John Dickinson, Mayor.

[Presented by the Honorable Richard Ryder, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE!

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Portreeve, Bailiff, Rector, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Honiton, do humbly approach your Majesty's Throne with Sentiments of grateful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Sensible, as we are, of the many Blessings attendant on Peace, we have the most perfect Conviction that no Endeavours have been omitted on the Part of your Majesty, consistent with the Honor of your Crown, and the Interest and Happiness of your People, to prolong so great a Blessing.

We feel that we are forced to take up Arms in Defence of every Thing that is dear to Englishmen, by the restless Ambition of a Chief, whose Conduct to this Country, during a short Peace, has been one uniform System of Aggression and Insult, and who aims at our Destruction because we are a free and happy People, under a Sovereign whose exemplary Justice forms the most striking Contrast to his own Perfidiousness.

Conscious, therefore, of the Justice of our Cause, and confiding, under Divine Providence, in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, we deem it necessary to declare that we are ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of our Sovereign, our Liberties, and our Country.

Will. Williams, Portreeve.

[Presented by Sir John Honeywood, Bart. and George Shum, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Honiton, in the County of Devon.

SIRE!

WHILST we lament that the restless Ambition of the Government of France should have compelled your Majesty to the Renewal of Hostilities, we are anxious to express to our beloved Sovereign our entire Conviction that his Solicitude and paternal Care left no Means untried on his Part, and that he was ready to have made every Sacrifice consistent with the Dignity of his Crown, and the Welfare of his People, to preserve to us the Blessings of Peace.

If we look at the late Negotiations, how striking is the Contrast between the Two Powers! the one cool, temperate, firm:—the other impetuous, violent, insolent. In the Conduct of our Foe we see his bitter Inveteracy. It shews us his Chagrin and Disappointment at having his Will disputed, and his ambitious Views baffled, but it indicates no In-eliation to prevent the Calamities and Horrors of War.

When the proud Usurper of the Power of France threatens the Invasion of Great Britain, and dares to hope for Subjugation to his Power, an universal Indignation must be excited, every Breast must glow with Resentment, and every Heart and Hand must be ready to support our King and our Country against this impudent and daring Menacer of our Destruction.

At such a Period, then, we feel it our bounden Duty to approach our gracious Sovereign to declare our inviolable Attachment to him; and not only to assure him of our Obedience to the Laws of our Country, and of our Readiness to contribute our utmost to every Burthen which the Contest we are embarked in will require, but also to pledge ourselves for our best Exertions, at all Risks, and in every Danger, to support the Crown and Dignity of our King, and to preserve inviolate the Independence of our Country, our Laws, and our Liberties.

And we humbly trust that the God whom we adore will continue his Divine Protection to the Father of his People, and to this our native Land; that he will bless our Arms with Success, and defend us against all our Enemies; and that he will at last secure to us the Blessings of a firm, lasting, and honorable Peace.

Wm. Williams, Postreeve.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon, do most sincerely lament that your Majesty's earnest Endeavours for the Preservation of the Blessings of Peace for your People have been frustrated by the restless and ambitious Views of the Ruler of France, and that we are again embarked in a War necessary for the Preservation of our Liberties and Constitution; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we are ready to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, such Measures as your Majesty in your Wisdom, shall deem expedient for the Support and Dignity of your Crown, and the Honor and Safety of this United Kingdom.

Signed at the Court-Hall, in the Town of Huntingdon, the Fifteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Earl of Sandwich.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Lieutenantcy, the Freeholders, the Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors, and Justices of the Peace, of the County of Inverness.

SIR:

IS there a Time for the fullest Display of the Avowed and Exertions of Loyalty? It is that Hour when a sudden and serious Danger hangs imminent over the State. Were we to eliminate this Danger by the Arrogance and Hate of the implacable Enemy of our Freedom and Prosperity, we should have no other Course than to do and die: But, under the Protection of Divine Providence, with a just Cause, an exemplary and undaunted King, a free and a loyal People, what have we to fear?

Accept, Sir, of all the Exertions and all the Sacrifices we can make, faithful, as we are, from Climate, and from martial Habits, to Privations and to Action.

Fresh in our Gratitude, as we feel the generous Acts of the Legislature of these Imperial and United Kingdoms, what can we wish but to perish, or to prosper together?

We will, Sir, the Spirit of the Highlands, prepared, if it be so decreed, to fall in the noblest of human Efforts, or to rise triumphantly superior to the abortive Plans for universal Tyranny.

May Heaven preserve our Country and our King!

Signed by our Appointment, and in our Presence, by Sir James Grant, of Grant, Baronet, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Inverness, Prefes of our General Meeting held at Inverness the Fourteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three Years.

James Grant, Prefes.

[Presented by Charles Grant, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Deputy Lieutenants, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Ross, in a General Meeting of their Number held at Tain, on the Fourteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, whereof Sir George Mackenzie, of Coul, Baronet, was elected Prefes.

WE, the Deputy Lieutenants, Freeholders, and Magistrates of your County of Ross, beg Leave to approach your Throne at the present momentous Crisis of public Affairs with Expressions of the firmest Loyalty, Attachment, and Veneration for your sacred Person, and of Zeal for the Support of your Authority and Government, which we pledge ourselves to defend and maintain to the utmost Extent of our Abilities, against either domestic Treasons or foreign Enemies.

We feel, as we have ever done, the benign Influence of your Majesty's Government, uniformly acting for the Prosperity and Advantage of Subjects, with that happy Gratitude which animates the Souls of Britons: And we view with high Satisfaction the energetic Measures which, under your Majesty's protecting Arm, are carrying into Effect for the Protection and Defence of our Laws and Liberties, as well as our Lives and Properties, against the meditated Attempts of an evicious, a malignant, and most implacable Enemy, who presumes to threaten these happy Islands with Subjugation and Destruction.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Spirit of Union to which such Threats and such Declarations (joined to the Energy of your Government, have given Birth, and which we believe to be universal among your Majesty's Subjects, as it must prognosticate Shame and Disgrace to the Enemy of our Country, if he has the Temerity to carry his threatened Designs into Execution.

That your Majesty may long reign over the Lives and Properties, as you now do in the Hearts of a free, brave, and loyal People, is the ardent Wish of the Gentlemen who compose this Meeting, and of those who are under their Influence.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Magistrates and Gentlemen of the County of Forfar, assembled in consequence of your Majesty's Warrant under your Royal Sign Manual, addressed to the Lord Lieutenant of the County, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with an humble Tender of our Lives and Fortunes.

We consider the War in which your Majesty is engaged, as just, necessary, and unavoidable, from the total Want of Sincerity in your Enemies.

The Privations to which the War may expose us, we shall think lightly of, and contribute our Share towards the general Defence with Perseverance.

Your Majesty's Navy has hitherto presented an invincible Barrier to the Attempts of your Enemies, if, notwithstanding its Exertions, a direct Attack should be made on our Island, we trust, that like our Ancestors, we shall still be able to repel it.

That your Majesty may subdue all your Enemies, and long reign in the Hearts of a free and happy People, are the ardent Wishes of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects.

Subscribed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting. H. O. Fotheringham, Preses.

SIR,

I BEG you will make known to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Ship Amazon, under my Command, captured this Morning at Eight o'Clock, after a Chase of Four Hours, Le Felix, a very fine Copper bottomed French Schooner Privateer, armed with Sixteen Four-Pounders, (Fourteen of which were thrown overboard during the Chase,) and a Complement of Ninety-six Men. She belonged to La Rochelle, from which Port she had been out Twenty-four Days, and had made but One Capture, the Esther, a British Ship, from Honduras bound to London, the Master of which, with Part of the Crew, were found on board.

I am, &c.

W. PARKER.

Crown-Office, July 26, 1803.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Great Grimby.

The Honorable Charles Anderson Pelham, in the Room of Ayleoghe Boucherett, Esq; who hath accepted the Office of Steward of His Majesty's Manor of East Hendred, in the County of Berks.

St. James's, July 20, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the High Sheriff, the Nobility, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffex, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the strongest Assurances of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to express to your Majesty our firm Determination to resist, to the last Drop of our Blood, the Attacks of a ferocious and implacable Enemy, whom no Concessions can conciliate, and who has misconstrued the pacific Spirit in which those Concessions were made into Despondency and Fear, and has from thence derived Pretensions insulting to the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and incompatible with the Safety and Independence of the British Empire. We have observed with Indignation the System of universal Aggression and Domination which has actuated the Councils of France, and which she has pursued with too much Success by the Violence of her Arms, but with more Success by the Perversity of her Negotiations. We have contemplated with Sorrow and with Compassion in the Instances of a brave though ineffectual Resistance, and with equal Sorrow, but with another Sentiment in those of pusillanimous Compromise, the Degradation and Subjugation of many Nations upon Continent; but while we execrate the Violence on one Part and deplore the Mercy on the other, we have had the Prudence to draw from the Experience of those Events, a Lesson necessary for our own Security and Preservation.

We have learnt from the Conduct of France that the Lust of Plunder and Dominion is never satiated by Possession; we have learnt by the Sufferings of other Nations, that the Comfort and Happiness of the poorest Individual is not less endangered by the Aggressions of France, than the Interests of the Rich, and the Dignity of the Throne; we have learnt, that it is by persevering Resistance, and not by mean Concession that the Encroachments of France are to be frustrated and withstood; and that it is to British Valour alone that Britain has to look for Independence and Security. We admit that the Chance of Winds may afford to the Enemy a Possibility of eluding the Vigilance of the unexampled Valour of the British Navy, but relying upon the Magnanimity of your Majesty's Mind, and recollecting the Triumphs of your Majesty's Army, and the Victories of Lincelles, of Acre, and of Alexandria, and placing a just Dependence upon the Spirit of the Militia, and the unanimous Exertions of the British People when fighting for British Liberty on British Ground, we are confident that although a temporary Success may attend their Arms, and even carry them into the Metropolis, Despair will find no Place in your Majesty's Councils; and that, under your Majesty's Example, the Courage of Englishmen will rise in Proportion to the Dangers they may have to encounter. Such are the Sentiments which we presume to offer to your Majesty; and if they should be, as we trust they are, the Sentiments of the Kingdom at large, we shall feel no Doubt of the fortunate Issue of the present Contest, however arduous, to which we are compelled by the inordinate Ambition and inveterate Hostility of France.

[Presented by the High Sheriff of Suffex.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, sensible of the inestimable Benefits we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, beg Leave to renew before the Throne, our most zealous Assurances of Loyalty and Gratitude; and to express our warmest Indignation at the insulting Vaunts of our implacable and insidious Foe against the Peace and Independence of your United Kingdoms and our invaluable Constitution, the Envy and Admiration of the World.

Confiding most justly on the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the inflexible Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, and the Harmony and Unanimity so happily existing in all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, we look with indignant Contempt on the haughty Menaces of the treacherous and ambitious Disturber of European Tranquillity, whose vain Attempt to give Laws or prescribe Terms to these happy and independent Kingdoms we trust he will soon be convinced of; and that Nations groaning at present under his ignominious Yoke may join in the Triumph over this sanguinary and despotic Tyrant.

In paying this Tribute of Duty and cordial Affection to your Majesty, we cannot withhold the Pride we entertain in witnessing the energetic and united Exertions of your Majesty's faithful Subjects of this Town and Neighbourhood, evincing their loyal Attachment to their Sovereign, and their universal Determination to defend and maintain our glorious Constitution and blessed Country from every hostile Attempt to endanger their Security.

Permit us, gracious Sovereign, to add our most fervent Prayers that your Reign may continue long and prosperous over free, happy, and united Subjects; and that your Royal Descendants may transmit the Blessings the Nation now enjoys, to the latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the Borough of Newport, on the Sixteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Addington.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Heritors of the County of Berwick, in a General Meeting assembled, beg Leave, in the present important Crisis, to renew our unfeigned Professions of Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Engaged in a Contest for the Preservation of every Thing that can be most dear to us as Men and as Britons, we feel it to be the Duty of every faithful Subject to lay aside all meaner Considerations, and to think only how his Person and Fortune can be made most serviceable to the State. Impressed with these Sentiments, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that collectively and Individually we shall exert ourselves with Ardor and Alacrity to give Effect to the Measures which the paternal Care of your Majesty and the Wisdom of Parliament have thought necessary, and we trust in the Almighty, that under your Majesty's Direction, the Power, the Resources, and the Courage of the Subjects of the United Empire, will be employed with such Energy and Effect as to convince our Enemy of his Folly and Presumption.

That your Majesty may speedily defeat the Designs of this turbulent and ambitious Disturber of Europe, restore the Blessings of a secure and permanent Peace, and long continue to reign over a free, an happy, and united People, is the sincere and ardent Wish of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Heritors of the County of Berwick.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Greenlaw, the Fourteenth of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

George Baillie, Preses.

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Councillors of the Burgh of Irvine, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave, humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne with renewed Assurances of Affection to your Majesty's Person, and of our warmest Attachment to your Family and Government.

We are filled with Indignation at the Conduct and Behaviour of the Rulers of France, and their Threats against your Majesty's Subjects and Kingdom, the Happiness and Freedom of which, they wish to destroy, and to level, like their own, to a State of Degradation and Slavery: To prevent their Execution of these Threats, and to continue to us our inestimable Privileges, and our Rank among the Nations of Europe, is the Duty of all your Majesty's Subjects, and shall be our's in an especial Manner, to the utmost of our Power.

We trust in Divine Providence, that by your Majesty's wise Measures and Exertions, all these Attempts of France will be defeated, and that our valuable Privileges and happy Constitution will be preserved unimpaired.

We therefore repeat our Assurances of supporting your Majesty to the utmost of our Power, in the Defence of your Majesty's Person, Crown, and Dignity, and for continuing our invaluable Constitution.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment,
by Rob. Fullerton,
Council Chamber, Irvine, 14th July 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of Paisley, address your Majesty with unfeigned Assurance of Affection for your Majesty's Person, and of Attachment to your Family and Government.

At a Period when the Nation is justly roused in expressing Indignation at the malignant Hostility to the British Empire evinced by the French Nation, and their domineering and arrogant Ruler, we should be unjust to our own Feelings, and unworthy of the Protection of that happy Constitution under which we live, were we to refrain from transmitting to your Majesty our Sentiments upon this important Occasion. We feel and experience, that upon the Preservation of our Constitution, our Happiness, and Independence do wholly exist; and we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty that no Exertions shall be wanting on our Part which may tend to the Support of your Majesty's Crown and Government, and the Honor of your Family, and the Rights and Safety of the Nation.

Signed by our Chief Magistrate, in our Name, and by our Appointment, and sealed with the Seal of our Borough, this Eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Andrew Moody.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Totnes, in the County of Devon, impelled by Sentiments of the purest Loyalty and Affection towards your Majesty's Person and Family, and the most inviolable Attachment to the present Government and Constitution of the Country, think it our Duty, in the present Juncture of Affairs, to declare that we have long seen with Concern and Abhorrence the Attempts which the Government of France hath been making to crush the Commerce of your Majesty's Kingdoms, and on its Downfall to attempt universal Dominion. We therefore presume to approach your Majesty's Person for the Express Purpose of testifying our hearty Concurrence and Approbation of the Measures which your Majesty hath adopted to counteract the Designs of an Enemy, thus seeking to inflict on us and all Europe so great an Evil, and to add, that we now are, and shall be at all Times ready with our Persons and our Fortunes to support and defend your Majesty and the Constitution as by Law established, against the threatened Invasion, and all Attempts which may be made to subvert that Government under which we enjoy Blessings unknown to the Subjects of any other Potentate.

Geo. Farwell, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the General Convention of the Royal Burghs of Scotland, assembled in their Annual Meeting according to the ancient Statutes of this Realm, humbly approach the Throne to renew, in the Name of our Constituents, the most solemn Assurances of their firm Allegiance to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of their inviolable Attachment to the Liberties and Constitution of their Country.

The Spirit of Encroachment and Insolence manifested by the Governors of France during the short Interval of Peace, their undisguised Violation of the Rights of independent States, their daring Attempts to dishonour this Nation, by limiting the Exercise of its Freedom and Hospitality; their contemptuous Neglect of the Remonstrances made against the Injustice practised on your Majesty's Subjects; their avowed Hostility to the general Commerce and Prosperity of your Kingdoms, and their insulting Boast, that, in a Contest with France, Britons are unequal to their own Defence, these repeated Acts of Provocation and Aggression have demonstrated that, on their Part, the Peace was only a deceitful Truce, and have roused through every Corner of this Land the most determined Resolution to decline no Sacrifices which your Majesty may deem necessary for maintaining the Dignity and Independence of your Crown. In this patriotic Resolution the Convention of the Royal Burghs of your ancient Kingdom of Scotland most cordially participate.

As Guardians, in this Part of the Empire, of that great System of Commerce and Manufactures, which has raised Britain to her present envied Pre-eminence, and contributed so essentially to the Convenience and Improvement of the civilized World, we must be peculiarly sensible to the Evils of a War directed immediately against this Source of the public Prosperity. But we have learned that partial and temporary Evils must be borne for the Sake of universal and permanent Good. We have calculated the Dangers of the awful Struggle in which your Majesty has been compelled to engage; and we foresee the Loss and Embarrassment which it may occasion to ourselves, as well as the great Expence of Treasure and of Blood which it may cost the Nation. But we feel that the Glory, the Happiness, and even the Existence of our Country are now at Stake; we see around us the Wrecks of Nations, whom a short-sighted Selfishness withheld from making the requisite Exertions in due Time; and we are deeply convinced that no Danger can be equal to that of Subjection to a foreign Power, and no Loss so irreparable as the Loss of National Honor and Independence.

Animated by these Sentiments, the Convention of the Royal Burghs feel themselves called on to ratify, in its full Extent, the Pledge of Support given to your Majesty by our Representatives in Parliament; and we are ready to stand forth with our Lives and Fortunes in the public Cause. The Power and Resources of this Country, under your Majesty's auspicious Government, have reached a Height unknown in the Annals of our History. We are confident that, in the present eventful Crisis, your Majesty will employ them with Energy and Vigour; and we trust that, through the Blessing of Heaven on the Wisdom of your Councils, and the Justice of your Cause, they will enable your Majesty to repel the Attacks of the Enemy, to preserve the invaluable Blessings of our free Constitution, to protect and extend the Means of commercial Enterprise to your Subjects, and to furnish to many other Nations of Europe, our ancient Friends and Allies, an Opportunity of recovering their former Dignity.

Signed in our Name, by our Appointment, and in our Presence, Neil Macvicar, Preses.

Downing-Street, July 26, 1803.

THE King has been pleased to cause it to be signified by the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to the Ministers of Neutral Powers residing at this Court, that the necessary Measures having been taken by His Majesty's Command, for the Blockade of the Entrance of the River Weser, in consequence of His Majesty having recently received authentic Information of the Occupation of Parts of the Banks of that River by the French Troops, the said River is declared to be in a State of Blockade; and that from this Time, all the Measures authorized by the Law of Nations, and the respective Treaties between His Majesty and the different Neutral Powers, will be adopted and executed with respect to all Vessels which may attempt to violate the said Blockade. Lord Hawkesbury has been further commanded by His Majesty to signify to the Ministers of the Neutral Powers, that whenever the French Troops will evacuate the Positions which they now occupy on the Parts of the Banks of the Weser, and will remove to such a Distance from them as to leave the Course of that River perfectly free and secure to the Vessels of His Subjects, as well as of other Nations, His Majesty will immediately direct His Ships of War which may be stationed at the Mouth of the River Weser, for the Purpose of blockading the same, to be withdrawn.

Downing-Street, July 30, 1803.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been this Day received from Lieutenant-General Grinfield, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Troops in the Windward and Leeward Charibbee Islands, by the Right Honourable

Lord Hobart, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department :

MY LORD, St. Lucia, June 22, 1803.

IT is with Satisfaction I have the Honor to acquaint your Lordship, that this Day the Fortrefs of Morne Fortune was carried by Assault, and the Island of St. Lucia is in consequence unconditionally restored to the British Government.

I have to state to your Lordship, that in consequence of His Majesty's Order, signified to me in your Letter, dated the 16th of May, and received on the 14th Instant, which I immediately communicated to Commodore Hood, he arrived at Barbadoes on the 17th; the Troops, Stores, &c. were on board, or embarked on the 19th; failed on the 20th. On the 21st, at Day-break, they were off the North End of St. Lucia, in the Course of the Day the greatest Part of the Troops were disembarked in Choque-Bay; about Half-past Five, the Out-Posts of the Enemy were driven in, the Town of Caltrics taken, and a Summons was sent to the Commander of the Troops of the French Republic.

In consequence of the Refusal of Brigade General Nogués to accede to any Terms, and the Expectation of approaching Rains, it became necessary to get Possession of the Morne with as little Delay as possible. It was therefore determined, this Morning, to attack the Fortrefs by Assault, which was done accordingly at four o'Clock, and it was carried in about Half an Hour, and with less Loss, considering the Resistance, than could have been expected; but the Loss has been chiefly among the higher Ranks of Officers, and those the most truly valuable: but it is yet to be hoped most of them will recover, for the real Benefit of His Majesty's Service.

I cannot omit a Circumstance which reflects so much Credit, as well on the British Nation, as on the Conduct of the Soldiers actually employed, that, notwithstanding the severe and spirited Resistance of the French Troops, yet, no sooner were the Works carried by Assault, and the Opposition no longer excited, than every Idea of Animosity appeared to cease, and not a French Soldier was either killed or wounded.

The Return of the Killed and Wounded is herewith inclosed, which, excepting the Number of Officers of high Rank, is not equal to what might have been expected, and, by far, less than it would have been, in all Probability, had a formal Investment of the Fortres taken Place.

These Dispatches will be delivered to your Lordship by my Aid du Camp Captain Weir, to whom I beg to refer your Lordship, for any Information you may require.

Return of the Killed, Wounded, and Missing of the Troops in the Assault and Capture of the Fortres of Morne Fortunée, in the Island of St. Lucia, in the Morning of 22d June 1803.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board the Centaur, in Choc Bay, St. Lucia, 22d June 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that, on my Arrival at Barbadoes on the 17th, late in the Evening, having consulted Lieutenant-General Grinfield with respect to the intended Co-operations of the Army and Navy, I instantly took Measures to prevent further Supplies being thrown into St. Lucia, (the Ships on this Service, under the Orders of Captain O'Brien, of the Emerald, made some Captures of Trading Vessels,) and every Disposition was settled for embarking the Troops and Light Artillery on board the Ships of War, and the necessary Stores, &c. in small Vessels for the Expedition; by great Exertions the Whole was effected on the 20th, and the Arrangements completed: The Lieutenant-General having embarked with the Troop, I put to Sea with the Ships named in the Margin *; was joined the next Morning by the Emerald and Osprey, having Brigadier-General Prevost on board, and were all anchored by Eleven o'Clock in this Bay.

There being a strong Breeze, the Boats of the Squadron had a heavy Pull with the First Division of the Army, composed of the 2d Battalion of the Royals, and Two Field-Pieces, under the Command of Brigadier-General Brereton; but, by the great Energy and excellent Disposition made by Captain Hallowell, were landed in good Order about Two P. M. and by the Perseverance of every Officer and Man employed in landing the Remainder of the Troops, the Lieutenant-General was enabled to make an early Arrangement for an Attack on that very important and strong Post, Morne Fortunée, where the Force of the Enemy was assembled, which, on the Commandant refusing to give up when summoned, was ordered to be attacked with that Decision and Promptitude which has always been the characteristic Mark of Lieutenant-General Grinfield, and carried by Storm at half-past Four this Morning, with the superior Bravery which has ever distinguished the British Soldier: this placed the Colony completely in our Possession.

To Captain Hallowell's Merit it is impossible for me to give additional Encomium, as it is so generally known; but I must beg Leave to say, on this Expedition, his Activity could not be exceeded; and by his friendly Advice I have obtained the most effectual Aid to this Service, for which he has been a Volunteer, and, after the final Disembarkation, proceeded on with the Seamen to co-operate with the Army. The Marines of the Squadron, by Desire of the Lieutenant-General, were landed and ordered to take Post near Gros Ilet, to prevent Supplies being thrown into Pigeon Island, which, on the Fall of Morne Fortunée, was delivered up.

We are already occupied in re-embarking Troops and other necessary Service for future Operations.

Captain Littlehales (of this Ship) is charged with the Dispatch, whose Assiduity and Attention I with much Satisfaction acknowledge, will be able to give their Lordships any further Information.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SAM. HOOD.

Copy of another Letter from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board the Centaur, off St. Lucia, the 25th June, 1803.

SIR,

THE Moment I am under Sail, with Lieutenant-General Grinfield and Troops, the Emerald has brought in a very fine Schooner Corvette, called L'Enfant Prodiges, Citizen Victor Lefebvre, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, Commander, pierced for sixteen Guns. She sailed from the Careenage the Evening the Troops landed, with Dispatches for Martinique. The Emerald was sent in Chace from the Squadron, and did not capture her until after a Run of Seventy-two Hours, during which Time she threw all her Guns overboard; being a remarkable fine Vessel, I shall direct her to be valued and purchased into the Service, which I hope will meet their Lordships' Approbation.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

St. James's, July 27, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wexford, convened by the High Sheriff, on Monday the Eighteenth of July One thousand eight hundred and three, pursuant to public Notice.

AT this Time of active and general Preparation to engage in the arduous Contest forced upon us through the restless and inordinate Ambition of the Rulers of the French Nation, we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wexford, deem it to be our bounden Duty to declare, in the warmest Terms, our affectionate and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and to offer the unqualified Support, as well of our Persons as of our Properties, in the vigorous Prosecution of a War so just, so necessary, and unavoidable. The Wisdom evinced by your Majesty's Ministers in terminating the late War, their Patience and Forbearance in the Discussion of certain important but unsettled Points in the Treaty of Amiens, their Firmness and Decision when the hostile Dispositions of our insatiable Enemies were developed, all unite to create in us a Confidence, that by their Guidance, under the protecting Arm of that Almighty Power who has on many Occasions been graciously pleased to manifest his good Providence to our beloved Sovereign and his Dominions, that this War will be brought to an happy Conclusion, and that the Blessings of an honorable and permanent Peace, will, at no great Distance of Time, be restored to your faithful People.

Signed by Order,

Henry Archer, High Sheriff of the County of Wexford.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow, beg Leave, at this very important Crisis, to renew the Assurances of our unshaken Loyalty and determined Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Crown, and Government; and while we do it gives us Pleasure to see that a Spirit of Unanimity and Resolution, equal, if not superior, to what has appeared at any former Period, now manifests itself all over the British Empire.

Thoroughly satisfied of the implacable Hatred of the present Rulers of France towards this Country, and of their fixed Resolution, if possible, to overthrow that glorious Constitution which cost our Fathers so dear, and by which, under your Majesty's mild Administration, and the Blessing of Providence, we have enjoyed an unexampled Degree of Happiness and Prosperity, we feel ourselves imperiously called upon to make great Sacrifices of our Time and Property, and to unite with our loyal Fellow-Subjects throughout the Realm, in maintaining and defending our Rights, and the Honor and Interest of our most gracious Sovereign, and in resisting to the uttermost the ambitious Projects of an insulting Foe.

Trusting in your Majesty's paternal Care, in the Wisdom of your Councils, and the Skill and Valour of your Navy and Army, combined with the Loyalty and Spirit of your faithful Subjects, and crowned with the Divine Blessing, we feel no Diffidence at the Threats of our Enemy, but, on the contrary, have well-founded Hopes that your Majesty will soon be enabled to terminate the War with Glory, and to secure a safe, honorable, and lasting Peace.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said City, in the Name, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Common-Council of the said City, at Glasgow, the Twenty third Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Lau. Craigie, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants and Visitors of the City of Bath, humbly beg Leave, at this critical Conjunction, to assure your Majesty of our firm and unshaken Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government, and that we will, with the greatest Alacrity, embrace every Opportunity of exerting ourselves in the Support of both.

Steadfast in our Allegiance, unalterable in our Loyalty, unanimous in the Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, we view with Indignation the proud and impious Threats of our Enemies, and with Pleasure offer our most devoted Services in the furtherance of such Plans of National Defence and Annoyance of our Enemies as your Majesty's Wisdom with the Concurrence of your Parliament may think proper to direct in a Contest of such National Importance.

Navy Office, July 25, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, beg Leave, at the present highly interesting and important Crisis, to lay before your Majesty the Renewal of those Assurances of our most fervent and sincere Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, which we have repeatedly offered to your Majesty on former Occasions.

Deeply impressed with the invaluable Blessings we derive from living under the Laws and Constitution of this great and free Country, we no less acknowledge it to be our bounden Duty, than we hereby declare it to be our determined Resolution, to support your Majesty by every Exertion in our Power in resisting the unjust Attacks of an insolent and inveterate Enemy; and humbly, but firmly, relying on the Protection of Divine Providence, so often experienced by this Kingdom in Periods of Difficulty and Danger, we feel the fullest Confidence that the zealous and loyal Efforts of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, all happily united in the Support of a just Cause, will be amply sufficient to frustrate the hostile Attempts of our ambitious Enemy against our just Rights and Independence, and will enable us sufficiently to maintain the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Religion, Liberties, and Prosperity of your People.

Signed on Behalf of the County,

J. H. Thurstley, Sheriff.

[Presented by Francis, Dickens and William Ralph Cartwright, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Sentiments of the warmest Loyalty and Affection, we, your Majesty's very dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Freeholders, the Commissioners of Supply, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of Peace, and others, the Inhabitants of your Majesty's County and Town of Cromarty, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne in this Manner at this momentous Period.

Met here this Day for the express Purpose of carrying into Effect the very wise and spirited Measures recommended through your Majesty's Ministers for the Defence and Security of these Realms against the vain and insidious Designs of our inveterate Foe, we thus solemnly tender unto your Majesty the Disposal of our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of our Country, in the Support and Maintenance of its Religion and Laws, and of that Constitution by which, under Divine Providence, and the best of Kings, the freest and the happiest People on Earth have hitherto been secured in the Enjoyment of every human Blessing, with the Attainment of that proud Pre-eminence of Rank as a Nation that renders us the Envy of the Universe.

Long may your Majesty live to reign over an extensive and now happily united Empire; and ever may your People be sensible of, and gratefully thankful for, the multiplied Blessings they must enjoy under so great and good a King.

Signed by our Appointment, and in our Presence, by our Preses, David Urquhart, Esq; of Brealangwell, at Cromarty, Eighteenth July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Da. Urquhart, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Bankers, and other principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Kingston-upon-Hull.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to approach the Throne at this momentous Crisis with the most solemn Assurances of our firm and faithful Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Crown, and Government.

We have contemplated with grateful Satisfaction your Majesty's Solicitude for the Interests of Humanity, evinced in your unwearied Efforts for the Maintenance of Peace: These Efforts we have seen frustrated by the faithless and infuriate Policy of the French Government, which has perverted to Purposes of Rapine and Oppression the sacred Obligation of Treaties; and, assuming the Attitude of Peace, has treacherously meditated the Renewal of War.

We deeply lament the Necessity of again appealing to the Sword; and we pray the Almighty Disposer of Events that it may not be long unsheathed, but that the Justice of your Majesty's Cause, and the zealous Loyalty of a brave and united People, prepared to concur in the Support of every Measure which your Majesty's Councils shall deem expedient for the Preservation of their Property, their Laws, and their Religion, may speedily triumph, and permanently establish an effectual Barrier against the daring Projects of an insatiable Ambition, and rescue from its baneful Grasp the Laws, the Liberties, and the Religion of Europe.

May this glorious Work, not less inseparable from the true Interests of Europe than essential to the Security of this Realm, be the happy Achievement of your Majesty's Reign! And, in the Father of his People, may the whole civilized World hail their Deliverer and Protector!

Dated at the Guildhall in Kingston-upon-Hull, the Twelfth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesty King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorized by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Judicatory or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brais, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the Kings Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol-Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Judicatory or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any Ship or Boat, not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up, or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall, for every Offence, forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Effoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Suffrance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Chester, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our fixed Resolution to exert our utmost Endeavours in Support of the Honor and Security of our Country during this unavoidable War, brought on by the unbounded Ambition of the Government of France.

We lament the temporary Distress that will attend this Contest, but trust, with the Assistance of Divine Providence, that the happy Union of your Subjects, the Wisdom of your Councils, and the known Bravery of your Forces by Sea and Land, will bring it to a speedy Conclusion, and prove the Means of procuring a solid and lasting Peace to your Majesty's Dominions, and of ascertaining to the World the greatest Glory of Britons, their Loyalty to their King, and their sincere Attachment to that Constitution under which they enjoy the Blessings of true Liberty.

Robt. Hodgson, Mayor.

Chester, July 27, 1803.

[Presented by Earl Grosvenor, and the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, sincerely regretting that your Majesty's Endeavours, attended with unexampled Moderation, to secure to your Subjects the invaluable Blessings of Peace, have been frustrated by the ambitious Views of the implacable Ruler of the French Nation, now beg Leave to approach the Throne to assure your Majesty of our firm Reliance on the collective and individual Co-operation of our Fellow-Citizens, with ourselves, in the Protection and Defence of our Country against the common Enemy, whose sole View is to annihilate the British Empire, and whose greatest Envy is the Happiness experienced by all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

We fervently pray that your Majesty's Arms both by Sea and Land, aided by the unanimous Support of all your Majesty's Subjects, will convince not only the French Government, but the whole World, of the Futility of attempting the Subjugation of a Nation inheriting the Valour and Intrepidity of their Ancestors, and who will, we are confident, cheerfully exert themselves in the Preservation of all that is dear to Britons, their King, the Constitution, and the Laws and Liberties of their Country.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City the Second Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

Hammond.

[Presented by the Honorable George Watson and John Baker, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Citizens, and Inhabitants of your ancient City of Rochester, desire, at this critical Time of threatened Invasion by our Enemy, to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Attachment to your Person and Government; and of our Resolution, collectively and individually, to give Effect, as far as lies in our Power, to such Measures for frustrating their ambitious and cruel Designs, as your Majesty, in your Wisdom, and the Legislature shall direct. We are sensible that the Safety of our Laws and Constitution, of our Liberty, and our Lives, depends on the strenuous and united Exertions of the whole Body of the People—as a Part of which we engage to use our utmost Efforts in opposing the Enemy, and to spare neither our Fortunes nor our Lives to defeat his malicious Purposes, and repel his Violence. We trust in that Providence, which has so often wonderfully preserved this Country in Times of greater apparent Peril than the present, to rescue us from the threatening Danger, by giving Success to our Endeavours to protect our beloved Sovereign and our Families from Sulk and Maltreat, and all that we possess of public or private Rights and Property, from Plunder and Ruin. For this Hope, Sir, we derive every Encouragement from the Unanimity of your People, and the Zeal pervading all Ranks for the Defence of their common Country. It is our sincere and ardent Wish that this cordial Union and generous Spirit may not only repel the present Danger, but may survive among us for our future Safety, and defend to our latest Posterity.

R. Thompson, Mayor.

[Presented by R. Thompson, Esq; Mayor of Rochester, and James Hulker, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, beg Leave to approach the Throne of your Majesty with every Assurance of the most profound Veneration and Attachment to your sacred Person, and to express our determined and unalterable Resolution on all Occasions to support your Majesty in such Measures as in your Wisdom, and with the Advice of your Parliament, you shall judge necessary for the Maintenance of your Crown and Dignity, and the permanent Welfare and Prosperity of your People.

We contemplate with equal Indignation and Abhorrence the various Acts of Perfidy, Aggression, and Insult to which your Majesty and your Subjects have been exposed from the French Government since the Conclusion of the Treaty of Amiens, and we most sincerely lament, that the laudable Example of Moderation and good Faith which has uniformly distinguished your Majesty's Councils, has proved insufficient to controul the ambitious and aggrandizing Spirit of France, and to secure the general Tranquillity of Europe. Fully satisfied that no Effort has been wanting on the Part of your Majesty to preserve to us the Blessing of Peace, and that the War in which we are engaged is not only just, but indispensably necessary to the Security and Independence of your Dominions. We beg Leave to assure your loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiff, and Commonalty of this ancient City, are fully prepared to submit with Cheerfulness to such Barriens, and to unite with one Hand and with one Heart in giving such further Assistance to your Majesty's Efforts as shall be found necessary to vindicate the Honor of your Crown, to repel the Aggressions of the Enemy, and finally to secure the Rights, the Independence, and the Prosperity of your People.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council Chamber, this Twenty first Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Sir Richard Gamen, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor and Inhabitants of the City of York, beg Leave to approach the Throne with unfeigned Assurances of our firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to that Constitution which the unjust Violence of the First Consul of France has rendered it peculiarly necessary for us at this Moment to maintain.

Your Majesty has stood forth the Defender of the Rights and Interests of your People, permit us, therefore, Sir, to declare our determined Purpose to stand forth to the utmost of our Power the Defenders of your Majesty's sacred Person, of the Rights and Dignity of your Crown, and of those Laws and Liberties, which, under your Majesty's wise and virtuous Sway we have so long so happily enjoyed.

If the Nations of Europe withhold their Assistance from a Cause which is assuredly common to them all, we humbly confide that, under God, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland can singly contend against the Power of France, and that your Majesty will find yourself at the Head of a People who are both ready and willing to defend your Majesty's just Rights and those of their Country against every Insult and Aggression.

We have a well-grounded Confidence that these Sentiments are concurrent with those of all your Majesty's Subjects, and that the Prayer is unanimous which implores the Almighty to enable your Majesty, through a lengthened and happy Reign, to repel the Violence and repress the Ambition of our invasive Enemy; to secure, by an effective War, the Blessings of Peace, and to preserve to your People that Religion and those Rights which we gratefully acknowledge to have been at all Times the Objects of your Majesty's pious and paternal Care.

Dated at York, the Twenty-seventh Day of July, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Signed by Order and on Behalf of the Inhabitants

Thomas Hartley, Mayor, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Middlesex, inspired with the ardent Love of our Country, and the Blessings we enjoy under the British Constitution, the Palladium of our personal Security, Liberty, and Property; actuated by our Duty, and induced by our merited Esteem, for a gracious Sovereign and his Royal Family, approach your sacred Person to express our warmest Indignation against the Disturbers of the Peace, Comforts, and Consolations of Mankind; to proclaim our just Abhorrence of the treacherous Designs of deluded and domestic Foes; and declare our patriotic Disdain of the Threats and Vauntings of our foreign Enemies. Actuated by such loyal and constitutional Sentiments, we solemnly pledge our united Assistance, by the Offer of our personal Service and Property, to defend and preserve inviolate your Majesty's Person and Government, our Laws, Liberties, and Religion, and our long established Constitution, purchased by the Blood of our Ancestors, the Pride of Britons, and the Envy of the World. Permit us, therefore, most gracious Sovereign, to assure your Majesty, that no hostile Threats can intimidate a People animated by the Love of Liberty, and inspired with a Sense of Duty and Affection; who, confiding in the Divine Providence, the Wisdom of your Councils, and the Valour of your Fleets and Armies, are resolved to employ their utmost Efforts to repel the Insults, and defeat the Attempts, of our inveterate Enemy, who has declared that nothing short of the Destruction of this Empire can gratify his insatiable Ambition.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Lumble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Lanark.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, impelled with the most ardent Affection and Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave, at this momentous Crisis, humbly to approach your Throne.

We behold, with proper Repentment, the insulting Demeanour of the present Ruler of the French Nation; and we regard, with Disdain, the Malice and indecent Threats of that Person, and of the degraded People who groan under his tyrannical Hand, against the enviable Happiness of your Majesty's Subjects. We feel ourselves called upon to refrain and punish these Aggressions; and, however severe the Conflict may be, we reflect with Satisfaction upon the Rectitude of Conduct your Majesty's Government has shewn in the recent Appeal to Arms; and, as the War we are engaged in has been forced upon us by the Insolence and Ambition of our Enemy, it is a Measure both just and necessary upon our Part.

We regard, with the most indignant Feelings, the Menaces of the Foe to injure or overturn the happy Constitution of this Country, under your Majesty's benignant Reign, we have long enjoyed the pre-eminent Blessings that flow from that admired System. We are proud of that distinguished Rank which in this, as in every other Respect, we hold amongst Nations; and we would ill merit the Name of Britons, if we were not resolved to preserve these Advantages against all Attempts; and, as they have been handed down to us by our Ancestors, to transmit them with unsullied Honor and undiminished Splendor to Posterity.

Actuated by these Sensations, we beg Leave to express our decided Approbation of the dignified Tone assumed by your Majesty and your Councils, and by both Houses of Parliament, upon the recent Conduct of the Enemy. Our Representatives, with constitutional and patriotic Spirit, have declared their Resolution to support the warlike Measures in which you are engaged. Permit us, Sire, to renew the Pledge, and to assure your Majesty, that we, his faithful and loyal Subjects, are prepared to devote our Lives and Fortunes, in avenging the Insults he has obtained, in maintaining his Independence as a Nation, and in supporting the Honor and Dignity of his Crown. We are, nevertheless, alarmed at the many Sacrifices which, in doing the present Contest, we expect to make; we, therefore, with Satisfaction, confident that the imminent Returners of this Nation will be dedicated to the most important Purposes; and if more than is hitherto been called for shall be required, we have no Doubt of assuring your Majesty that they will be willingly given.

Though the Hatred of our Enemy is unbounded, his Threats deep, and his Persecutions grievous, we believe, than upon any former Occasion of Hostilities, we neither feel appalled by the Danger, nor will flinch from the Conflict. We are confident, that a great and free Nation, bound together in the most perfect Unanimity, and under the Guidance of a benignant Sovereign, who reigns in the Hearts of his People, never can be overcome.

With conscious Pride we call to our Remembrance the Glory of our Ancestors; and, with equally animating Sensations, do we reflect upon the high Renewal your Majesty's Arms have more recently acquired in every Quarter of the Globe; and that the very Foe who now braves us has again and again felt the Prowess of your brave Subjects, and the irresistible Force of their justly provoked Indignation. These, Sire! are Recollections which, at this Moment, we trust, warm every British Bosom; and, actuated by their Impressions, we hesitate not to avow our Confidence, that the gallant Fleets and Armies of this mighty Empire, directed by the God of Battles, will soon be crowned with Victory, and overwhelm their Assaultants with Disgrace and Defeat.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Clergy, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, convened at Hamilton the Twenty-fifth Day of July, One thousand eight hundred and Three.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey, humbly beg Leave, at this awful Crisis, to renew our Assurances of Affection for your Majesty's Person, and of Attachment to your Family and Government.

We contemplate without Dismay the avowed Determination of our Enemy to pursue at all Hazards his hostile Designs against the Happiness and Safety of your Majesty's Dominions, being convinced that this Avowal cannot fail to animate the Zeal, and to call forth the spirited and Ready Exertions of all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, in the Defence of every Thing that is dear to them as Men and as Britons.

Sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we entreat your Majesty to believe, that we should think ourselves unworthy of the dignified Rank which we have held in the Scale of Nations if we were not fully prepared to sacrifice our Fortunes and our Lives in the Support of the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Preservation of the Rights and Liberties of your People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen Heritors of the County of Fife, in a General Meeting assembled, Twenty-sixth July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen Heritors of the County of Fife, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to repeat and renew the Expressions of our Fidelity and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, Family, and Government, at a Time when not only these, but our happy Constitution, our very Existence as a Nation, and every Thing dear to us as Men, are threatened by an insolent and malevolent Enemy, to whose wild Ambition his own Will seems to be the only Bounds. Fully sensible of the Blessings of our invaluable Constitution, and of the Happinesses we enjoy under our beloved Sovereign, we trust we shall all meet on Situations as Men, as Freemen, and above all, as Britons, convinced that on this alone, with the Divine Aid, depends the Preservation of our Rights and Liberties from the Yoke of Gallic Despotism.

We assure your Majesty of our Readiness and firm Determination to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in support of the Independence of the British Empire, and of your Majesty's most sacred Person.

Long may your Majesty be preferred to reign over us; and may the Hand of the Almighty go forth with your Majesty's Fleets and Armies to set bounds to the restless and insatiable Ambition of the present unprincipled Ruler of France, to rescue the World from his Tyranny and Oppression, and to re-establish Peace on an honorable, equitable, firm, and lasting Foundation.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the County of Kent.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Men of Kent, beg Leave, at this important Crisis, to approach your Majesty, with those Sentiments with which our Hearts are animated, and in Conformity with which, our Hands are prepared to act.

We acknowledge with Gratitude, the Goodness of Divine Providence, in having hitherto preferred to us our Laws, our Liberties, and our Constitution, under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government amidst the Wreck and Desolation of surrounding Nations, and by uniting with your Majesty in Defence of these inestimable Blessings, we desire to prove, that we are not unworthy of them.

We contemplate with Anxiety the formidable Attack with which we are threatened, but without Difmay.

We are sensible that no apparent Difficulties are sufficient to arrest the Progress of unbounded Ambition and unbounded Power, and that no Attempt will seem desperate to Pride and Revenge, intoxicated by Success, and irritated by Resistance. In a Word, we do not underrate our Danger, but resolve to meet it.

Placed by Nature in the Situation most exposed to the Assaults of the Foe, and forming, as it were, the Advanced Guard of your Majesty's armed Subjects, we feel that more than common Exertions may be expected from us, and we are prepared to make them, in humble Confidence that, if put to the Trial, we shall justify our traditional Boast, and prove to our Sovereign, and to the World, that Men of Kent will never be conquered.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Yeomanry, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the County of Berks, ever true to our King and Country, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Royal Person to express our Indignation at the violent Threats of an ambitious Despot, who has declared his Intention of invading our Country, destroying our much-beloved Sovereign and his Family, overturning our Constitution, and depriving us of every Thing most dear to us.

Sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under the mild Government of your Majesty, and feeling the Advantages of a Constitution founded upon Liberty, and framed for the Happiness of Mankind, be at ferred that any Attack upon what is so justly dear to us will be repelled by every Means in our Power.

Animated with the Spirit of Britain, and actuated by both Love and Reverence to your illustrious Family, under which the Nation has risen to its present Splendour and Glory, we shall devote our Lives and Fortunes for the Protection of your Majesty, our Constitution, our Religion, and Laws.

Design to accept the Prayers of us your faithful Subjects, that your Majesty may long reign over us; that, under the Blessings of Divine Providence, your Dominions may continue to prosper; and that the War we are engaged in may terminate to the Confusion of our Enemy, and to the Glory of our King and Country.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Rutland, feel it our Duty, at the present important Crisis, to express to your Majesty our Sentiments of affectionate Loyalty to your Person and Government; and our Determination to support, by every Exertion in our Power, that happy Constitution which has been transmitted to us by our Forefathers. We feel perfectly convinced of the Necessity of the vigorous Measures which the Ambition and Wickedness of the Enemy have forced your Majesty to adopt; and we beg to assure your Majesty that we will exert ourselves with true Zeal, and that we will endeavour by every Means in our Power to promote their Success; we feel the Justice of our Cause; we feel that the Prosperity of the Country and of every Individual in it is now at stake, and that we are bound by every Sense of Duty and of Honor not to hesitate at any Sacrifices which we may be called upon to make for the Attainment of a happy Issue to this Contest. We feel with infinite Satisfaction the Spirit of the Country rise in Proportion as the Danger threatens, and trusting that this Spirit will induce all Persons to prepare to meet the Danger; we feel a Contempt for the boasting Menaces of our Enemy, and view his Preparations with full Confidence in the Means we possess of rendering them abortive.

WE, the High-Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Gloucester, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with renewed Assurances of our unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty, and of our unalterable Attachment to our glorious and envied Constitution.

Accustomed to the Blessings of Constitutional Freedom, protected by the Powers, and animated by the Virtues, of a lawful Sovereign, we spurn at the Degradation of that Military Despotism with which we are threatened by the efforts of our disciplined and inviolable Armies.

Conscious of the Happiness which result from a Secure and permanent Independence, we are prepared and determined to make every Sacrifice to preserve it.

We therefore entreat your Majesty graciously to accept of our humble Address; and to be assured, that, incited by the Thoughts, but not intimidated by the Threats, of the Enemy, we are ready to go forward in the Defence of our Country, being resolved to stand or fall with our Liberties; and that for this Purpose we will cheerfully support, and to the best of our Power carry into Execution every Measure which may be suggested by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Flint, beg Leave humbly to offer our Address to your Majesty, expressing the Indignation we feel at the Series of Insults and Aggravations which has continually marked the Conduct of the French Government since the Signature of the Treaty of Amiens, and compelled your Majesty to have Recourse to the dreadful Remedy of War.

Convinced, as is common with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects we must feel, that there can be no middle Course between such a Determination and an absolute Surrender of our Independence as a Nation, we rely with the utmost Confidence in your Majesty's Exertions to secure, as much as by human Wisdom can be effected, a glorious Issue to the Contest: And we doubt not your Majesty will find, from all your faithful Subjects, the like earnest Desire to make every Sacrifice of Life and Fortune necessary to obtain so highly precious an Object, by which your Majesty's loyal County of Flint protects themselves to be actuated.

And we humbly but firmly trust, that the Almighty may so direct your Majesty's Councils as to shew the World, that a Christian King, impelled by the anxious Desire to maintain to his People the Comforts of social Life and pure Religion, will, by the Divine Blessing on his Piety, effectually secure the same against the Assaults of the Foe to the Peace and Independence of Mankind.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Cambridge, feel ourselves imperiously called upon at this important Crisis of the British Empire, to offer to your Majesty the fullest Assurances of our affectionate Loyalty, and of our Determination to support to the utmost Extremity, the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, the Integrity of our inestimable Constitution, and the vital Interests of the whole Nation.

We have observed with infinite Concern, that your Majesty's earnest and unceasing Endeavours to preserve Peace, have been frustrated by the insolent Behaviour, the ambitious Views, and perfidious Conduct of the exiling Government of France, and feeling as Britons, we cannot but consider such Infidelity as most intolerable, such Ambition as most dangerous, and such Perfidy as totally incompatible with the Preservation of any Peace consistently with public Safety.

We are therefore strongly impressed with the Necessity of making every possible Effort to disappoint and Defeat the malignant and destructive Projects of our implacable Enemy, who appears vainly to aim at nothing less than the utter Degradation of the British Name, and the total Annihilation of our Commerce, our Independence, and our Laws.

We are conscious that we are bound by every Tie of Interest as well as of Duty to defend this sacred Inheritance, and we shall deem no Sacrifice too great, no Privation too severe, to support your Majesty in the just Cause in which you are engaged, and which cannot fail to animate and unite the Hearts of all your faithful Subjects in the steady and determined Defence of every Thing that is dear to Britons.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Maj^y Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Southampton, humbly desire to present to your Majesty the warmest Testimony of our Gratitude for the recent Proofs of your Majesty's gracious and paternal Solitude for the Welfare of your People, and the Maintenance of our invaluable Constitution and National Independence against the avowed Designs of our Enemies.

We feel a just and animated Sense of our bounden Duty to obey, with the utmost Alacrity and Zeal, the provident Call which your Majesty has been pleased to make for the unanimous Efforts of our Loyalty and Patriotism in the present momentous Position of our Country.

With the earnest Declaration of our own Feelings and Resolutions, we venture also confidently to answer for those of the general Community to which we belong, that perfectly aware of our public Situation, and of the Necessity for prompt and vigorous Precautions against the threatened Attempts of our Enemies, we are firmly resolved, not only to oppose to them the best Exertions of our Resources for Defence, but to forward and supply, by every zealous Aid in our Power, effective Means for offensive Operation and Attack.

Feeling, as it certainly behoves us to do, the real Exigency of the present Crisis, we do not mean thereby to acknowledge any Doubt of our Faculties if exerted with Ardor and perseverance, under the Blessing of Divine Providence, to subdue as well as to resist the utmost Violence and most malevolent Intrigues of our inveterate Foe.

Impelled by these fervent but steady and deliberate Sentiment, we presume to approach your Majesty with the devoted Offer of our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person, in Support of the Honor and Glory of your Imperial Crown and Dominions, in the Protection of the happy Constitution of our Country, and in the full Preservation of our Independence Civil and Religious.

W. Mills, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, Yeomanry, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of York, feel it to be one of our proudest Privileges, as well as our most sacred Duty in this Hour of Danger, to approach your Majesty's Throne with the emphatic Assurance of our unshaken Attachment to your Royal Person, and of our most ardent and entire Devotion to the Constitution delivered to us by our Fathers; what they established with their Blood, with our Blood we will defend.

We have heard with Astonishment indeed, but without Dismay, the ferocious Threats of an insolent and unprincipled Enemy. We know his delirious Energies, his blaspheinous Self-confidence, and his implacable Malignity, but with a firm Trust in God, and our own Exertions, we set them all at Defiance. And we beg to be accepted to the amplest Extent of our Professions, when we here solemnly pledge ourselves by every Scene and Monument of English Glory, to conquer or to perish with our Country.

Such, Sir, in this awful Crisis, is our most deliberate, unanimous, and inflexible Resolve.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free, happy, and united People is the sincere Wish of this great and loyal County.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Ayr.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr, assembled here this Day by public Advertisment, beg Leave to approach the Throne in order to renew, at this important Crisis, the Assurances of our inviolable Allegiance and Fidelity to your Majesty's Person, Crown, and Government.

With Feelings of indignant Regret we have observed, Sir, the hostile and insulting Conduct of the Government of France to this Country ever since the Treaty of Amiens, with its systematic Attempts to ruin our Commerce, and to sink us in the Eternity of all the Nations of the World: And we rejoice, most gracious Sovereign, to find ourselves unshackled from a Peace used by our inveterate Foe to bind us, and hold him free.

With these Sentiments we make offer to your Majesty to support your just Claims, and the Interest, Honor, Freedom, and Independence of our Country, with our Lives and Fortunes.

Deeply sensible of the incalculable Value of your Majesty's sacred Life, under whose mild and patriotic Reign we have enjoyed the unbounded Blessings of our free Constitution, we most earnestly pray that Almighty God may enable your Majesty to conduct your People, united in their Efforts, successfully to repel every Danger which threatens them, and to continue those united Exertions until they shall be crowned by a safe, honorable, and permanent Peace.

Signed by our Prefes, in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Ayr, the Twenty second Day of June One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon, beg Leave to renew our Sentiments of Fidelity and Allegiance to your Majesty's Person, and to assure your Majesty that we are most fully convinced of the unavoidable Necessity of the present War, for the Preservation of our glorious Constitution, and for repelling the inordinate Ambition of France, which nothing but the depriving us of our Existence as a free and independent Nation can satisfy.

It is our fervent Prayer, that under the Protection of an all-wise and gracious Providence, the Valour of our Fleets and Armies may bring the present Contest to a glorious and happy Conclusion; and to produce this Effect, we, on our Parts, individually pledge ourselves to support your Majesty with our Services, Lives, and Fortunes.

[Presented by Sir James Duberley, the High Sheriff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeeses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton.

SIRE!

MAY it please your Majesty to permit the Mayor Bailiffs, Burgeeses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton, to lay at your Feet their sincere Professions of Loyalty, and Pledges of their utmost Exertions, on an Occasion which calls forth to Arms all Men who have a Sense of the Happiness enjoyed under your benign and parental Government.

The insidious Character of the French Consul, his boundless Ambition and insatiate Thirst of Power, are so well known, that all Surprise is lost in the Indignation we feel at a Conduct which irresistibly compels your Majesty to renew a Contest, the Foes of which are yet unhealed, and its Progress marked by Desolation and the Voice of Misery.

Ever zealous in Defence of our Holy Religion, our Country, and our King; exulting in the Unity which unites our Fellow Subjects; and in the unvalued Bravery of your Fleet and Armies, we hear the Sound of War without Dismay, cheerfully offering to your Majesty our firm Support in a Cause so highly interesting to your Kingdoms, and to the injured and insulted States of Europe.

Proceed, great Sir, to assert the Dignity of your Crown, your Rights of Dominion, and the Welfare of your People, that it may again be seen what Men can do who fight for all Things sacred, all Things dear, against an impious and tyrannical Usurper!

And may the God we worship, and in whom we trust, appoint your Majesty to be the Avenger of such complicated and extended Wrongs; and when the Sword shall have done its deadly Work, may he make you the Messenger of glad Tidings to despairing Nations restored to Liberty and Peace.

Signed in the Name and at the Request of the Meeting,
A. Scott, Mayor.

[Presented by James Annyatt, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and others of the County of Anglesey, deeply impressed with a Sense of public Duty, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty at this momentous Crisis. We are truly sensible of the various Blessings we enjoy under a Constitution formed upon Principles that embrace the equal Good of all Orders of Men, as well as of your Majesty's paternal Care in the Government and just Administration of the Laws of these Realms.

With these Impressions, and impelled by every other Feeling that can attach us to our Country, we regard the Preparations and Menaces of France (professedly with a View to our Extermination,) not with Dismay, but as Men conscious of the Importance of the Contest in which we are engaged; a Contest involving no less than the Preservation of our Civil and Religious Rights, our personal Possessions, our domestic and social Happiness; or, on the other Hand, consigning us to the despotic Rule of a foreign Tyrant, whose Power, accidentally acquired, has hitherto been principally exerted in the Subjugation of the People of France, in the Overthrow and Plunder of defenceless States, in rapacious Exactions from involuntary Allies, in a solemn Mockery of a sanctities of Religion, and whose Act of Peace, as it now appears, concealed the treacherous Project of a more destructive War.

We therefore humbly entreat your Majesty to receive the Assurance of our most zealous Support, collectively and individually we will exert our utmost Efforts to repel every Attempt at Invasion, nor will we suffer any Abatement of the Means in our Power to aid the Measures your Majesty may be graciously pleased to direct for the general Welfare.

W. B. Hughes, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Alridge.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholder, and other Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Poole, beg Leave to approach the Throne, with all those Sentiments of ardent Zeal and purest Loyalty which have ever characterized this great and generous Nation, and to express our warmest Testimony of Gratitude for your Majesty's gracious and paternal Solitude for the Safety, Honor, and Welfare of your People in protecting them from the Dangers of an ambitious and insupportable Force.

We feel in common with all your Majesty's faithful Subject, a just and imprudent Sense of the Danger to which our Lives, our Laws, and our Liberties would be exposed if a daring and inveterate Enemy should be able to subdue the united Efforts of a brave and generous People.

We contemplate with the utmost Abhorrence, the violent Outrage and atrocious Acts which have been recently committed by divers Persons engaged in a treacherable and daring Infurrection against your Majesty's Government in one Part of your Majesty's Dominions, and sincerely pray that the Perpetrators of such enormous Offences, and all those who stimulated or incited them to such rebellious Infurrections and treasonable Practices, may be speedily brought to condign Punishment.

Firmly united, as we are, with one Mind in every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection to the best of Kings, we consider it as our bounden Duty to obey, with the utmost Alacrity and Zeal, the Call of our Country for the Efforts of our Patriotism, and the Execution of our utmost Energy in the present Moment of impending Danger.

Impressed with these fervent but steady Sentiments our Fortunes and our Lives will always be cheerfully devoted to the Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person, and in the Support of that happy Constitution which has for Ages remained the Glory of Britons, and the Admiration of the civilized World.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergymen, Yeomanry, and other Inhabitants of the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergymen, Yeomanry, and other Inhabitants of the said County, do beg Leave most humbly to address your Majesty, impelled by the warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, impressed with the truest Gratitude for the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Reign, and highly sensible of the Happiness we derive from the Excellence of our Constitution, we feel we should be wanting in every Duty to your Majesty, and to our Country, if we did not at this Time declare ourselves ready to come forward with an Offer of our Lives and Possessions in Defence of our Liberty, and to take every Measure necessary to place our Country in the best possible State either for defensive or offensive Operations. If our Affections to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government did not urge us to these Proceedings at this awful Crisis, our Horror and Indignation at the barbarous Proceedings of our Enemy would alone invite us to these Exertions: the recent Transactions, of that tyrannical Republic are fresh Proofs of its Cruelty, Rapine, and Outrage: its Ferocity increases in Proportion to its Power and Capabilities, however infant, and Submissions, however humble, serve only to culture a more horrible and savage Treatment to the conquered. Incensed, therefore, by the barbarous Conduct and continued Insolence, but not intimidated by the Threats of our Enemy, your Majesty may depend upon every Measure, which your Wisdom shall suggest, being co-dially and personally supported by your loyal and faithful Subjects of the County of Dorset.

At the Request, and in the Name of the County,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE!

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham, in Common-Hall assembled, at the present awful Crisis, beg Leave once more to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Attachment to your Majesty and to the Constitution of Government happily established in these Realms.

We solemnly pledge ourselves to your Majesty and our Country to defend, by every Means in our Power, in conformity with the Laws of the Land, and in cheerful Co-operation with our Fellow-Subjects, our revered Constitution, the just Rights of your Majesty's Crown, and the Lives, Liberties, and Properties of the Inhabitants of these Islands, against the desperate Attack of that daring and malignant Foe, who now threatens to invade us.

We commit your Majesty, and the Security, Safety, and Happiness of these Kingdoms, with the utmost Confidence, to the Guardianship of a brave, a united, and a free People, imploring the Supreme Disposer of Human Events to aid your Majesty's Councils, and the Efforts of our Countrymen, through the Hour of Danger and Difficulty; so that all hostile Attempts may end in the entire Confusion and Defeat of the inselting Invaders of our Native Land.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the Town of Nottingham, the Twenty-seventh Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Portland, and presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Town of Carnarvon, being truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your happy Government, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne to testify our deepest Concern at the present Situation of public Affairs, we feel convinced that every Effort to preserve us the Blessings of Peace was rendered ineffectual by the frantic Ambition of that implacable Tyrant and insatiable Ruler of France, which compelled your Majesty to have recourse to the present just and unavoidable War in Defence of our Rights and glorious Constitution; we consider it the Duty of every Man in your Majesty's Dominions to exert himself to the utmost of his Power to repel the Views of so haughty and invidious a Foe, who threatens us not only with Invasion, but the Overthrow of our happy Government, and the Privation of our envied Liberty; and we rely with the utmost Confidence on your Majesty's Exertions, assisted by your Councils, to adopt the most vigorous Measures by Sea and Land to bring the present Contell to an Issue honorable to the Independence of the Crown, and Dignity of your United Kingdom.

And we humbly and firmly trust, that, by the Interposition of Divine Providence, a Reign distinguished by so mild and salutary an Exercise of Power, may not be abridged by the Exertions in Arms of a despotic Tyrant, who thinks no Sacrifice too great for the Destruction of a Nation which forms the only Obstacle to his unbounded Ambition and Views of universal Dominions. Usbridge, Mayor.

[Presented by the Earl of Usbridge, Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Parish of Rye.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person in this Time of Peril with Assurances of the utmost Exertion of every Energy we possess to repel an inveterate and implacable Enemy who dares to insult your Majesty's Dignity by a threatened Invasion of this Country.

Permit us, at the same Time, to assure your Majesty, that our zealous Exertions will be actuated, as well by the Love we bear our Country, and Veneration for its Constitution, Religion, and Laws, as by the Respect, Affection, and Regard we have ever entertained for your Royal Person.

The Hour of Danger will be the Hour of Trial of British Courage, and we trust, under the Blessing of God, of triumphant Glory.

May your Majesty's great and virtuous Exertions, aided by your faithful People, be the Means of restoring to this Country and to the World Confidence and universal Peace.

Signed at the Request, and in the Name of the Meeting, the Twentieth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thos. Phil. Lamb, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury and T. Davis Lamb, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Wakefield, in the County of York, beg leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, impressed with a deep Sense of the present Situation of our Country, and to assure your Majesty of our cordial Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our firm Resolution to defend the happy Constitution of this United Kingdom against every Foe; and should the Invasion, with which this Country is now threatened by the Government of France, take place, we solemnly pledge ourselves to your Majesty and our Country, that we will make every Effort in our Power to co-operate with our Fellow-Subjects in repelling and detesting the Attempts of an ambitious and insatiable Enemy.

Signed on Behalf of the Meeting of the Inhabitants, Jo. Telfon, Chairman.
Wakefield, 23d July 1803.

[Presented by the Honorable Henry Laflolles and W. Wilberforce, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

By the KING.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated the 1st Instant.

SIR,

HAVING directed Captain Hamond, of His Majesty's Ship Plantagenet, to cruize Ten Days to the Westward for the Protection of the Trade, I have the Honor to enclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copies of Two Letters from him, giving an Account of the Capture of Two French Privateers by that Ship.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

His Majesty's Ship Plantagenet, at Sea, 25th July 1803.

SIR,

A FRENCH Brig Privateer, Le Courier de Terre Neuve, of Four Guns and Fifty Men, belonging to St. Malves, was yesterday captured by His Majesty's Ship under my Command, in Lat. 49 Deg. Long. 14 Deg. 30 Min. West. She failed some Days ago from Abreverack, and has not taken any Thing.

I have, &c.

GRAHAM. E. HAMOND.

Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

Plantagenet at Sea, July 30, 1803.

AT Noon on the 27th Instant, I fell in with His Majesty's Sloop Rosario, in Chase of an Enemy's Vessel. The Rosario, by 4 o'Clock, had gained on the Chase so as to be much within Gun-Shot, when her Fore-Top-Mast being carried away by the great Puffs of Sail upon it, she dropt a-tern.

By 8 o'Clock the Plantagenet had got close alongside the Chase, when she struck her Colours. I found her to be the French Ship Privateer L'Atalante, of Bourdeaux, commanded by M. Arnaud Martin, with a Complement of One Hundred and Twenty Men, and pierced for Twenty-two Guns, but having only Fourteen Six Pounders mounted, the Remainder having been thrown over-board during the Chase.

L'Atalante is an exceeding handsome Vessel, coppered, and sails remarkably fast, having run us nearly Ninety Miles in the Night Hours. She was out Six Days from Bourdeaux, and had taken Nothing.

I have the Honor, &c.

(Signed) GRAHAM E. HAMOND.

Admiralty-Office, August 6, 1803.

I am, &c. W. CORNWALLIS.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the ancient City of Exeter, beg Leave to approach the Throne to declare our firm and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

The encroaching Spirit, the daring Menaces and ambitious Designs, of a restless and implacable Enemy having involved us again in the Horrors of War, we are prepared, in our several Stations, to repel every Attempt at an Invasion of this United Kingdom: Threats will only bind us more firmly to your Majesty's Person and our glorious Constitution, in Defence of which we are ready to sacrifice our Fortunes and Lives. W. Collyns, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir C. W. Bampfylde, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled, deeply impressed with the momentous Aspect of public Affairs, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with an Assurance that our Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, and the invaluable Constitution of these Realms, remains firm and unalterable, and that in their Defence and Protection we are determined at all Times to stand forth to the utmost of our Power.

At a Moment when your Majesty is waging a War of absolute Necessity against an Enemy, whose boundless Ambition, whose Envy and Hatred of this Country, and whose formidable Military Power conspire to give the most serious Weight to his declared Intentions of invading your Majesty's Dominions, ill indeed would your Majesty's Subjects uphold that Name and Character which have been handed down to them by preceding Ages, and obtained for them a proud Pre-eminence among Nations, if they failed to unite with Firmness and Resolution to repel the meditated Attack, and avert the unspeakable Calamities which might await the Want, at such a Crisis, of their wonted Loyalty and Courage.

It is, therefore, with a Pride and Pleasure suited to the Importance of the Occasion, that we witness the universal Manifestation amongst our Fellow-Subjects of a Spirit, and of Preparations, that can leave no Doubt, under Divine Providence, of the glorious Issue of any Struggle for British Independence upon British Ground: Nor can we refuse to ourselves the Satisfaction this Opportunity offers us of humbly representing to your Majesty, in Testimony of the Feelings and Disposition of the Citizens of Oxford, that they are forming themselves into Military Array in a Manner that will effectually evince their Loyalty to your Majesty, and their Devotion to their Country.

Given at our Council-Chamber the Twenty-seventh Day of July, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beg Leave, at this momentous Period, to approach the Throne, and to avow our grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Protection of the just Rights and Privileges of these your Kingdoms and People, as well as the Continuance of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Although we regret that the inestimable Blessings of Peace should suffer any Interruption, yet, when we observe an insidious and implacable Enemy indiscriminately endeavouring to enslave many of its surrounding Neighbours, and offering unprovoked

To us, your Majesty, and your faithful Subjects, and now, ever, to us, to attack and invade our Kingdoms, and to our incumbent Duty, in the public Manner, to tell you not only our most ardent Approbation of those timely Measures which have already been taken for defeating all such Attacks, and for maintaining and preserving the Honor of your Crown, and the Freedom and Independence of your Kingdoms, but also our determined Resolution to support such Measures by every Effort and Exertion in our Power.

That your Majesty's Councils may be directed with such Wisdom and Prudence, and that your Arms may be crowned with full Victory and Success, as may tend the way to restore Peace to your Kingdoms and People, is the earnest and fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Aberdeen.

Signed in their Name and Presence, and by their Appointment, and the Common City Seal hereto annexed, at Aberdeen, this Twenty-third Day of July, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three, by J. Hadden, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The her. Lie. Address of the Governor, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Magistrates of the Isle of Wight.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Governor, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Magistrates of the Isle of Wight, humbly request Permission to express our grateful Sense of your Majesty's gracious and paternal Solitude for the Welfare of your People, and the Maintenance of our invaluable Constitution in Church and State, manifested by the recent Communication made to us through your Majesty's Principal Secretary of State.

We are anxious to assure your Majesty of our immediate and most earnest attention to the important Objects referred to your careful and vigilant Superintendence.

We can venture to answer not only for ourselves, but for the Community in general to which we belong, and over which we are officially placed, that, though fully aware of our public Situation, and of the Necessity for prompt and vigorous Preparations against the menacing Attempts of our Enemies, we are fully resolved not only to oppose to them the best Exercise of our Resources for Defence, but to forward and supply, by every zealous Aid in our Power, the Means of offensive Operation and Attack.

We do not acknowledge in our Declaration of feeling the Exigency of the present Crisis, any Doubt of our Fate lies, under the Blessing of Divine Providence, if exerted with Aid and Perseverance, to decide as well as to resist the utmost Violence or Intrigues of our inveterate Foe.

With the earnest but steady and deliberate Sentiments we presume to approach your Majesty with the devout Obedience of our Lives and Fortunes in the Support of your Majesty's Crown, and of the happy Constitution of our Country, and in the Preservation of our Independence, civil and religious.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, assembled here this Day by public Advertisement, beg Leave at this Period of Alarm and threatened Danger, humbly to express our unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government; and we sincerely hope for the Happiness of ourselves and our Posterity, that the Constitution which we now enjoy may be preserved entire under your Majesty and your august Descendants until the Next Ages.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that we are ready to contribute with our Lives and Fortunes to the Maintenance of the present most necessary and unavoidable War, a War which involves in its Consequence our Existence as an independent Nation, with every Thing besides that is dear to Man, our Properties, our Liberties, our Religion, and our Laws; for the Preservation of these we hold no Sacrifices too great, and will most readily and cheerfully contribute the last Farthing of our Estates, and spill the last Drop of our Blood, to render vain and abortive the Efforts of that ambitious and unprincipled Enemy, by whom our Existence as a Nation is threatened with Destruction.

Lastly, we beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that however formidable the Preparations of France for invading these Kingdoms may be, yet that we can perceive nothing in them, which, under the Blessing of Divine Providence, the Strength, Vigilance, and Courage of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, aided by the zealous Co-operation of a numerous, brave, and loyal People in Arms, are not capable of repelling and destroying.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of Greenock.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of Greenock, in Council assembled, presume to address your Majesty with Feelings of the most profound Respect, and Sentiments of the strongest Attachment. None of your Majesty's Subjects can desire with greater Sincerity than we do, to appreciate justly the Advantages of Peace to a Nation, nor could any be more alive to Gratitude than we were, when in your Wisdom they were, as much as depended on your Majesty, restored to the World. We deeply lament that our fond Wishes for the Permanence of a state the most favorable to the Extension of Commerce, and the Spirit of internal Improvement, are disappointed by the overbearing Influence, and Disregard of every Principle of true Liberty, which so distinctly mark the Conduct of the Government of France; but we are not the less sensible of the Value of your Majesty's anxious Sollicitude and strenuous Exertions to secure for your People the Blessings of Peace, nor of the Prudence displayed by an Administration remarkable for its enlightened Views or the best Interests of the Country, as well as its unceasing Attention to promote them. Venerating a Constitution the most friendly to rational Freedom and to Laws, and regarding with true Affection a Government, which, acting according to its Principles, can be antithetical only for the Happiness and Prosperity of the People; we listen in the present important Crisis to express our firm Determination—a Determination which cannot but prevail in every British Mind, zealously to support every Measure calculated for the Welfare of the Empire, and the Protection of your Majesty's Person and Family. At the same Time it would discover the Height of Inconsiderateness and Folly not to know, that the Contest in which we are engaged is full of Interest and of the last Moment. Yet as entering into it was no longer a Point of dubious Propriety but of the most imperious Necessity, to maintain our Freedom as a Nation, we humbly hope, under Divine Providence, for the happiest Issue, and we commit ourselves with Confidence to your Majesty's paternal Affection—to the Vigour and Uprightness of your Majesty's Councils, and to the Bravery of a free and powerful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorchester, have at various Times expressed our unfeigned Attachment to the Constitution of this happy Country, and our zealous and affectionate Regard to your Majesty.

Awakened by the Expectation of a new and extraordinary Crisis, threatened by the mad and merciless Ambition of the Tyrant of France, we feel it our first Duty to repeat with increased Zeal those Assurances.

We utter not the adulatory Address of Vassals, but the free Sentiments of a free People—we offer in the Defence of a Constitution which we reverence, of a Country which we love, of your Majesty's sacred Person to which we are inviolably attached, ourselves, our Fortunes, and our Lives.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commandry, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Winchester, in the County of Suffex, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Attachment, and to assure your Majesty, that, at this Time of threatened Invasion, your Majesty may, with Confidence, rely on our strenuous Exertions to repel the daring Attempts of a implacable Enemy, and by every Means in our Power to admit in maintaining and preserving the Honor of your Majesty's Crown and Dignity, and our happy Constitution as established in Church and State.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Preston, in the County Palatine of Lancashire, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne at this Time of impending Danger, and to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and of our determined Resolution to concur and unite with the Rest of our Fellow Subjects in resisting and repelling the hostile Attempts of the Enemy.

Retired, as we flattered ourselves, from the late Horrors of War, and consoling ourselves with the Expectation of the Continuance of Peace, we feel with Indignation the early Interruption of it by the insidious and restless Ambition of our inveterate Foe. And notwithstanding the Sacrifices and Privations which must necessarily be submitted to in this arduous Contest, we shall, on our Parts, consider them as Blessings contrasted with those Evils which we must otherwise experience if we do not zealously unite in the Defence of our native Land, our Religion, Laws, and Liberties.

Given under the Common-Seal of the said Borough this Twenty fifth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Sam. Horrocks, Mayor, in open Council.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPENED with a deep Sense of the Importance of the present Crisis, we, the Inhabitants of the Towns and Neighbourhood of Manchester and Salford, humbly beg Leave to repeat to your Majesty the Sentiments of our unabated Zeal and Affection.

Feeling alive to our Duties as Britons, we are anxious to assure your Majesty of our Determination not only to support the Measures already adopted by your Majesty's Government for the Defence of the Honor and Dignity of the Crown, and the Liberties and Happiness of the People, but likewise to devote our Lives and Fortunes to the glorious Cause of protecting our King and Country.

We are thoroughly convinced that your Majesty's paternal Endeavours to preserve to us the Blessings of Peace have been frustrated by the ambitious Conduct of our implacable and perfidious Foe; a Foe which has dared to threaten us with Annihilation as a Kingdom; yet, looking up to the Aid of that Providence which has hitherto been our Shield and Protection, and firmly relying on the united and courageous Efforts of your Majesty's loyal Subjects of every Rank and Description, we entertain no Doubt but that the present Contest will terminate in the Disgrace and Discomfiture of an insulting and desperate Enemy.

May your Majesty long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free and united People; and may the Example of Firmness, Moderation, and Dignity displayed in your Majesty's Conduct and Government, be imitated by other great and independent Nations.

Signed on Behalf of the Inhabitants of the Towns and Neighbourhood of Manchester and Salford, pursuant to the Resolution of a public Meeting on the Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Great Torrington, do humbly approach your Majesty's Throne with Sentiments of great Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

Sensible as we are of the many Blessings attendant on Peace, we have the most perfect Conviction, that no Endeavours have been omitted on the Part of your Majesty, consistent with the Honor of your Crown, and the Interests and Happiness of your People to prolong so great a Blessing.

We feel that we are forced to take up Arms in Defence of every Thing that is dear to Englishmen, by the restless Ambition of the Chief Consul, whose Conduct towards this Country, during a short Peace, has been one uniform System of Aggression and Insult, and who aims at our Destruction because we are a free and happy People, under a Sovereign, whose exemplary Justice forms the most striking Contrast to his own Perfidiousness.

Conscious, therefore, of the Justice of our Cause, and confiding under Divine Providence, and in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, we deem it necessary to declare that we are ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of our Sovereign, our Liberties, and our Country.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Lewes.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Lewes, humbly beg Leave, at this eventful Period, to assure your Majesty of our firm and unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and that we will, with the greatest Cheerfulness, embrace every Opportunity of exerting ourselves in their Support. Confident in your Majesty's paternal Care, steady in our Allegiance, unchangeable in our Loyalty, and determined in the Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, we cannot view without the greatest Indignation the Threats of our implacable Foe. With Pleasure we offer our Services to promote such Plans of National Defence and Discomfiture to our Enemies as your Majesty may deem it expedient to direct in a Contest which involves, in its Issue, our dearest Rights as Individuals, our Happiness as a People, and our Independence as a Nation.

We trust, under the Favour and Protection of Divine Providence, that the Skill and Valour of your Army and Navy, combined with the united Efforts of your faithful People, will so nobly support the Honor and Glory of the British Name, that your Majesty will be soon enabled to terminate the War by a secure, an honorable, and a lasting Peace.

Signed by Order of the Meeting; and given under our Hands and Seal of the said Borough, this First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your ancient Borough of Doncaster, in the County of York, most humbly approach your Throne with Sentiments of Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Sensible, as we are, of the many Advantages resulting from Peace, we have the most perfect Conviction that no Endeavours have been omitted on the Part of your Majesty, consistent with the Honor of your Crown, and the Interest and Happiness of your People, to secure and continue to your Dominions so great a Blessing.

Feeling the present as a War of Necessity for the Defence and Preservation of every Thing that is dear to us as Freemen and as Britons, your Majesty may rely upon every Exertion in our Power to enable you to defend and protect the Liberties and Constitution of the Country, menaced, as they now are, by the most haughty and inveterate Foe we ever had to contend with, whose avowed Object is our entire Subjugation.

But, with the Blessing of Heaven upon the united Efforts of your brave and faithful People, we firmly trust that your Majesty will soon convince the Enemy how impracticable a Thing it is to enslave this great, free, and independent Country, and be enabled to put an End to the present Contest by an honorable and permanent Peace.

Sealed with our Common Seal the Twenty-seventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Axbridge, in the County of Somerset, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this important Period with the sincerest Professions of our most steady and permanent Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Fully sensible how essential the Blessings of Peace are to the Welfare of this United Kingdom, we are, with knowledge, with the deepest Gratitude, your Majesty's patient and dignified Endeavours to preserve it to your People; and we have viewed with just Indignation, the Conduct of an ambitious and unprincipled Enemy who has frustrated your Majesty's Wishes, and now dares not to hesitate openly to avow his Intention of attempting the Ruin of this happy Country, and the Destruction of our Constitution and Government. We cannot therefore but feel that every Thing which is dear to Britons is at stake, Liberty, personal Security, and the Existence of the Empire itself. But we are not dismayed, because we know the Zeal, Courage, and Fidelity of all your Majesty's Subjects is such, that they will instantly unite their Hands and Hearts in this arduous Undertaking, will eagerly make every Effort, and will patiently and cheerfully endure every Privation and Hardship that may be necessary. And we trust, that the same Almighty Being whose Providence has never ceased to shield your sacred Person in the Hour of Peril, will still protect and guard your Majesty, and that his Wisdom will so direct your Councils, and strengthen your Arms that they will be crowned with Success, and the Blessings of Peace be again secured to your Majesty's Dominions and the whole World, on a broad, solid, and permanent Basis.

Given under our Common Seal, this Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

John Richards. Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Parish of Banbury, indignant against the Insolence of the Foe who dares to threaten Invasion to your Majesty's Dominions, humbly approach your Majesty, to express the Sentiment of Hearts full of Gratitude for the Blessings we enjoy under your paternal Care, and to assure your Majesty of the steady Attachment we bear to your sacred Person, and to our glorious and envied Constitution.

At this eventful Period we offer to your Majesty's Service our Lives and Fortunes, determined as we are, to sacrifice both rather than be deprived of transmitting to Posterity, unfulfilled as we received them, the boasted Liberties of our Country.

May the undoubted Valor of your Majesty's Fleet and Armies in the Downy Breeze (by the Affidavice of that Power to whom we address all) prove victorious; and for ever humble the Daring of our Peace. May the same Power continue to our beloved Sovereign the Enjoyment of every earthly Blessing; and to his People the Happiness of being long governed by the Wisdom and Energy of his Council.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Harwich, in the County of Essex.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and most faithful Subjects, feeling with Indignation and Resentment the insidious Threats held out by a neighbouring ambitious Power of invading this your Majesty's United Kingdom, intending thereby not only to subvert our truly happy and univalued Constitution, but to deprive your Majesty's Subjects of every other Comfort, which, under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, has been, and now is enjoyed, most humbly take this Opportunity of professing our firm Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's most sacred Crown and Person, and of assuring your Majesty, that, in order to frustrate any Attempts which this daring and implacable Foe might make to carry his threatened Plans into Execution, we, one and all, are determined to hazard our Lives, wishing, by our utmost Exertions, to preserve to ourselves and to our Posterity, untainted and undiminished, that Character, and that Liberty and Independence which have so long been Britons' Pride.

That your Majesty may long be continued to a grateful and loyal People, and that your Reign may be prosperous and happy, is and will ever be the fervent Prayer of us, your Majesty's most humble and ever-dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Harwich, in the County of Essex.

[Presented by — Adams, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tewkesbury, with one Heart and Mind, approach your Majesty at this portentous Instant, with our sincere Expressions of affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

The History of our Country affords us ample Matter of Exultation in the Ardor and Bravery displayed by our patriotic Ancestors upon every Attempt of the Daring and Ambitious to invade our Coast; degenerate should we be if we were less distinguishable for our Zeal in the Defence of our Religion, our Liberties, and our Laws, secured to us under the auspicious Government of your Majesty.

With these Sentiments we tender to your Majesty and our Country our bounden Services, confidently relying on the Wisdom and Firmness of your Royal Councils.

When we behold the abject Pusillanimity of the other Powers of Europe, in not resisting that Colossus-like Ambition of the First Consul of France, which would bestride the World, we have too much Reason to apprehend that the Subjugation of our own Country is the Acme to which his restless Views aspire. Our Civil Liberty provokes the Tyrant's Spleen; but this Palladium, the best Security of your Majesty's Throne, and the Glory of your Subjects, shall be the rallying Point of our Valor, while the Blood of Englishmen revels in our Veins. We could say to him, "Come, insatiate Murderer of the Peace of Nations; and, if you challenge us to the Conflict, see how Britons can defend those Altars which you venture to disturb." We will meet him with his Thousands, and his Tens of Thousands, and, under the Blessing of Providence, we have an entire Confidence, that the Hosts of our presumptuous Foe shall either bite the Dust of our insulted Country, or perish in those Seas by which it is happily and bravely surrounded.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,

Samuel Trueman, J. P. Haind, Bailiffs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most cordial and unequivocal Assurances of Allegiance and Fidelity to your sacred Person and Government, and to the inviolable Constitution of this highly-favoured Empire.

We have heard without Fear, but not without Indignation, the vaunting Insults and sanguinary Menaces of an Enemy ambitious, rapacious, and implacable; and whilst we admire the Wisdom and Integrity of your Majesty's firm but temperate Negotiations, we cannot but lament the barbarous Disposition of an unnatural Usurper, whom no Acts of Amity and good Faith can conciliate, and no Principles of Justice or Honor can restrain.

Yet, by the Blessing of Providence upon the Firmness and Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and by the spirited Exertions of a loyal, brave, and generous Nation, rising, like one Man, in Support of those Rights which we have long enjoyed under the Auspices of your Majesty and your illustrious Ancestors, we confidently hope that the British Constitution will be preserved pure and unimpaired, and that the Cause of Truth, Liberty, and Justice will rise superior to Perfidy, Tyanny, and Usurpation.

We, therefore, humbly tender to your Majesty our best and most faithful Services for the Protection of your Crown, and, what is inseparably connected with it, for the Liberties of your People; and the infolent and unprincipled Invader shall perceive, that the King of Great Britain, our true and lawful Sovereign, reigns in the Hearts of his Subjects, who, like their beloved Monarch, ever holding sacred the Rights and Liberties of others, will yet maintain their own with Energy and Perseverance, equal to the Justice of their Cause, and to the Magnitude and inestimable Value of the Objects which they are now called upon to defend.

With such Impressions we most dutifully submit to those Services and those Burdens, which, however reluctantly, your Majesty, and the Wisdom of your Parliament, may deem necessary to be laid upon us for the Preservation of our Country; and in Defence of that Country, and our revered Monarch, we will cheerfully surrender up that Property, which, whilst we have Arms in our Hands, shall never be torn from us by the brutal Violence of Plunderers and Tyrants.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Deacons of Crafts of the Royal Burgh of Lanark, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Deacons of Crafts of the Royal Burgh of Lanark, beg Leave at this most important Crisis, to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most sincere Assurances of zealous and hearty Support to your Majesty and your Government, in the arduous Contest in which this Empire is at present engaged.

Feeling that we are now contending with an Enemy who has already reduced many of the Nations of Europe under his arbitrary Sway, and whose Hatred and Envy of the Glory and growing Prosperity of this Country is such, that he has nothing less than our entire Subjugation in View; we think that no Exertions or Sacrifices on our Part, ought to be put in Competition with the Magnitude of the Evil they are calculated to avert.

We trust that the Spirit of the numerous, powerful, and loyal People over which your Majesty reigns, will be exerted so as to defeat the Designs of our Enemies, and to ensure the Safety and Prosperity of the Empire, and beg Leave to assure your Majesty that whatever Measures the Vigilance of your Majesty's Government or the Wisdom of Parliament shall think necessary for these Purposes in the present momentous Crisis, we will consider our most indispensable Duty cheerfully to comply with, and to carry into Effect to the utmost of our Power.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Gentry, Clergy, and others, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Colchester, feel it our Duty to renew our Assurances of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person at this most important Crisis.

We beg Leave to express to your Majesty the high Sense we entertain of all the invaluable Blessings we continue to enjoy under your Majesty's Government, while we observe with equal Regret and Indignation that all your Majesty's paternal Endeavours to secure these Blessings to us by a sincere Peace, have been frustrated by the Ambition and Perfidy of France, threatening the very Existence of these Dominions.

We have seen the most solemn Treaties violated, and your Majesty's Moderation repaid with reiterated Injuries. We have seen the Repose and Rights of other Nations by open Violence or secret Treachery invaded or subdued, and we are taught by their melancholy Example to appreciate the true Value of our own Happiness, and are animated by a Knowledge of their Sufferings to a full Exertion of all our Powers in opposing, with Firmness and Unanimity, and at the utmost Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, the implacable and unprincipled Enemy of our Laws, our Liberties, our Religion, and our King.

In Testimony whereof we have hereunto subscribed our Names, this Eighteenth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Preston, in the County-Palatine of Lancaster.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Inhabitants of the Borough of Preston, in the County-Palatine of Lancaster, most humbly beg to approach your Throne with every Profession of Loyalty, Duty, and Allegiance. Awful, though the present Crisis may be, we meet it without Dimay or Dread; and we trust that the willing Exertions of every Rank of your Majesty's Subjects will convince a daring and insulting Foe that all his Attempts are impotent and vain against a Country blessed with the best of Sovereigns, and with a Constitution framed by the Wisdom of Ages, and secured by the Valour of our Forefathers.

From the wife and salutary Measures enacted by the Legislative Authority in Aid of the just Prerogative of your Majesty's Crown, joined to your Majesty's constant paternal Care, and the Unanimity, Loyalty, and Bravery of your Subjects, we look forwards with well-grounded Hopes to a long Continuance of that Freedom, Independence, and Happiness, which make this Land the Envy of surrounding Nations.

We pray that that Almighty Power, by whom Kings reign, and Kingdoms flourish, may protect the sacred Persons of your Majesty and your Royal Family from all secret Conspiracies and open Violence; and grant that your Majesty may long, very long, remain the happy and beloved Ruler of a free, united, and affectionate People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Councilmen, and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town and Parish of Maidstone, in the County of Kent, humbly desire, at this important Period, to renew our Assurance to your Majesty of our firm Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, and the happy Constitution of this United Kingdom.

We see our Country engaged in a Contest endangering the Safety of our Liberties, our Property and Lives. Our Independence, and even Existence as a free Nation, are threatened with Destruction by an inveterate Enemy, who is directing the Power he possesses against this Kingdom, with a View to the Acquisition of the universal Dominion he so ambitiously desires. We trust, however, that the Valour of your Majesty's Fleets, and the Armies, and the general Spirit and Energy of the People, will, with the Assistance of Divine Providence, defeat his Expectations, and prove superior to the Occasion which calls for their Exertion.

We humbly thank your Majesty for recommending those spirited Measures of Defence, which have been sanctioned by Legislative Authority, and pledge ourselves to assist, by every Means in our Power, not only towards preserving unconquered the County of Kent, but in giving Effect to your Majesty's wise Plans for the general Defence of the Kingdom.

May your Majesty long continue to be the Guardian and Protector of a free, loyal, and affectionate People.

Signed at the Request, and on the Behalf of the Meeting,
Edw. Argles, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Alderman, and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Pontefract, in the County of York, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to assure your Majesty of our sincere Attachment to your sacred Person.

We lament with Feelings of Humanity the Horrors of Warfare; and are well aware of the perilous Situation of this Country: But, at the same Time, are fully sensible that the present War with France is not less justifiable than it was unavoidable; we are also sensible that we have to contend with a most powerful and inveterate Enemy, governed by an Usurper of unbounded Ambition; a Man who publicly avows his fixed Intention to invade this Country, to dethrone its Monarch, to overturn the established Constitution, to subjugate this happy

Land of Liberty, rendering it a Province of France; and, regardless of the Laws of Nations and of social Order, to put our Men to the Sword in cold Blood, and to despoil our Wives and Daughters with brutish Inhumanity.

We are fully aware of the entire Change that has taken place in the relative State of this Country with respect to the Rest of Europe, and of the imperious Necessity of this Kingdom becoming an Armed Nation, for its present and future Protection; we therefore, most gracious Sire, under all these Circumstances, do, in the most solemn Manner, pledge ourselves to support your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes in the vigorous Prosecution of the present most just War; resolved at all Times, to the utmost of our Ability, to defend our King, our Constitution, our Country, and whatever is most dear to Englishmen, against our inveterate Enemies.

That your Majesty may long live, and long continue to reign over a loyal, happy, and free People, is and shall be our fervent Prayer.

[Presented by William Wilberforce, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, impressed with an awful Sense of the present momentous Crisis of public Affairs, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the strongest Assurances of Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. Involved in the Calamities of War by the restless Ambition of a neighbouring Power, and even arrogantly menaced with Invasion, we are earnest to express our Zeal and Unanimity in pledging ourselves to whatever Exertions may be requisite to support the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and maintain the Independence of the Empire. And we pray your Majesty to believe, that we shall be ready at all Times to encounter every Difficulty, brave every Danger, and cheerfully submit to every Sacrifice of Property which the Exigencies of the Country may demand to frustrate the Designs of an implacable Foe, and ensure to your Majesty's People the Blessings of a permanent and honorable Peace.

[Presented by Sir William Elford, Bart. and Philip Langmead, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE!

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor and Corporation of the Borough of Portsmouth, with the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Towns of Portsmouth and Portsea, and the Island of Portsea, request Permission to offer the Assurance of our inviolable Attachment to your sacred Person, and our unalterable Determination to support your Crown and Dignity against all Assaults whatsoever: These, indeed, are the natural Sentiments of Britons, and therefore ever inherent in our Breasts; but the present Crisis calls upon us not only to cherish but to express and avow them.

Gratitude for your Majesty's paternal Care, Zeal for our invaluable Constitution, and a deep Sense of the Duties owing to our Country, inseparably unite us for the common Security and Welfare. Conscious of the high Responsibility imposed upon us by the Example and Achievements of our Ancestors, and indignant at the Menaces of an ambitious and arrogant Enemy, we desire to speak by Actions rather than by Words; and we dedicate our Fortunes, Services, and Lives to the Vindication of our Liberties and Independence, to the Cause of our Fellow-Subjects, our Sovereign, and our God.

[Presented by Captain Markham, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, and accompanied by Sir William Heathcote, Bart. and William Chute, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for Hampshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Kendal, in the County of Westmorland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Kendal and its Vicinity, beg Leave to assure your Majesty that it is our firm Resolution to support your Majesty, with every Exertion in our Power, in defending against a perfidious and unprincipled Enemy, your Majesty's Crown and Dignity; and in our several Capacities (when called out) to preserve the Liberties and Independence of your Dominions, convinced that the united Efforts of your Majesty's loyal Subjects will defeat every Machination to overthrow the Constitution of these Realms, and secure their Prosperity beyond the Arm of Aggression.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Councilmen, and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Cambridge, in Common-Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, feel it our Duty to come forward at this important and awful Crisis, and renew to your Majesty the solemn Pledge of our Loyalty and Zeal.

We consider the Contest in which we are now engaged as involving all the dearest Interests of Britons.

Our Families, our Country's Honor, our very Existence as an independent Nation, are at Stake. We look forward without Dismay, humbly imploring Almighty God to prosper the Wisdom and Energy of your Councils, and to bless the united Exertions of a brave and free People, rallying around the Monarch they revere, and determined to stand or fall with the Liberties of their Country.

Given under our Common-Seal the Twenty-ninth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Charles S. Manners, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Principal Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Thetford, your Majesty's true and loyal Subjects, think it our eſpecial Duty in the preſent Criſis to approach your Throne, and offer the Teſtimony of our unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, and though we cannot but deplore the dire Neceſſity which has compelled your Majesty to recommence Hoſtilities, after having enjoyed the Bleſſings of Peace for ſo ſhort an Interval, yet are we convinced that the unbounded Ambition and Rapacity of a neighbouring Nation have made that Step (however repugnant to your Feelings) eſſentially neceſſary to the deareſt Interelt of this Country. And although the Enemy holds out his Threats of an Invaſion with a View to alarm your Majesty's liege Subjects, we feel a Degree of Security in the Wiſdom of your Meaſures, which, by combining the whole Reſources and Energy of theſe Kingdoms, will, we truſt, deter them from the Attempt; or, if attempted, will fruſtrate their Plans and defeat their Intentions. We heartily and humbly implore the Divine Providence, the Giver of all Good, to guard your Majesty's Perſon, to watch over your Councils, and to give Succels to your Arms; and that the mutual Confidence ſubſiſting between your Majesty and your loyal People may be increaſed even to a perfect Union of Sentiment throughout every Degree; and on this Union we ſhall rely as the certain Pledge for the Security of us all, in Spite of the hoſtile Attempts of any foreign Enemy whatſoever.

Given under our Common-Seal, at our Guildhall, this Thirtieth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and three.

Truſting in theſe Meaſures which have been adopted in the Skill and Valour of your Majesty's Navy and Army, and in the Unanimity and Spirit of our Fellow Subjects in this happy Iſland, accompanied with the Divine Bleſſing; we are not intimidated by the Threats of our inveterate Enemy; but reſt ſatisfied that your Majesty will ſoon be enabled to reſtore Peace to our Country upon a ſafe, honorable, and laſting Foundation.

We are deeply ſenſible of our happy Situation both for civil and religious Liberty, which it has been the Glory of your Reign to ſupport, and the Happineſs of your People to enjoy.

May your Majesty long be preſerved to reign over us; may God Almighty bleſs you, your Family, and Country, and preſerve us all from the Power of Tyranny, and the Oppreſſion of a cruel and haughty Foe; and that Peace may ſoon be re-eſtabliſhed in all your Majesty's Dominions on an honorable and laſting Foundation, is the moſt ardent Prayer of your Majesty's moſt devoted Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of Burntisland.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

May He, by whom Kings reign, bleſs your Majesty with his richeſt Bleſſings, may He give Wiſdom to your Majesty's Councils, Strength to your Arms, and perſevering Fortitude to your People; may they feel that it is for their deareſt Interests that your Majesty is contending, and in this Conviction may their Hearts be united as the Heart of one Man, until the Sovereign of the Univerſe shall have crowned with Success your Majesty's Endeavours to re-establish Peace upon an honorable and permanent Foundation.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Trades of the Burgh of Perth, viz. Hammermen, Bakers, Glovers, Wrights, Taylors, Shoemakers, Fleethers, and Weavers, incorporated by Royal Charter, think ourselves called upon in the present Situation of public Affairs, to approach your Majesty's Throne with united Assurances of our Attachment to your Person and Government, and Reverence for our happy and glorious Constitution.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that we view with Indignation and Abhorrence the late Proceedings of the French Government. Scarcely however are we, that from your Majesty's Vigilance, the Wisdom of Parliament, and the Harmony and Unanimity that now happily exists among all Ranks of your People, the ambitious and daring Designs of the Ruler of France will be frustrated.

Determined therefore to assist to the utmost of our Power, the Infidelity of the Enemy, and that the Rights and Privileges of Britons struggled for and obtained by our Ancestors at the Price of their Blood may be continued to us, and transmitted to our Posterity; we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that in case of actual Invasion, or of the actual Appearance of the Enemy on the Coast, we will with Cheerfulness give our personal Service and Assistance in any Manner that may be thought advisable and most conducive to the public Service for Persons in our Situation.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AT a Period so important and eventful as the present, we, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Common-Council assembled, should think ourselves wanting in that Duty and Affection which we have uniformly borne to your Majesty's most illustrious Family were we to delay approaching your Royal Presence with the most unfeigned Assurances of our Loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and ardent and sincere Attachment to our most excellent Constitution.

Feeling, as we do, the Blessings we enjoy under this our free Constitution, and having that Feeling excited in a Degree proportioned to the Contrast the Situation of a neighbouring Country exhibits, and anxious to transmit those Blessings unimpaired to our Posterity, we beg Leave most humbly to assure your Majesty of our determined Resolution to use our utmost Exertions in the Support of the Measures of your Majesty's Government in carrying into Execution such Laws as your Majesty's Councils shall think advisable to enact at this momentous Crisis.

Given under our Common-Seal at the Tolsey, in the said City, the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, in Common-Hall assembled.

WE beg Leave, at this critical and dangerous Conjunction, to renew our strongest Assurances to your Majesty that we have the Honor and Safety of your Majesty's Royal Person, the true Interest and Prosperity of your Dominions, the Security and Advancement of their Commerce, and the Success of the War against France, entirely at Heart. These shall be the constant Objects of our Care and Attention, from which we shall never depart, being fully satisfied that the spirited Views with which your Majesty entered into this just and necessary War are not only evident to us but to the whole World.

Conscious that the Preservation of our most excellent Constitution, with all that is valuable to us, depends on our vigorous Exertions, we are the more strongly animated to support it by whatever Measures your Majesty shall deem expedient to adopt, being convinced that the Designs of the Government of France, whose inordinate and insatiable Views of restless Ambition are manifestly directed not only to overturn the Liberties of Europe in general, but to destroy your Majesty's Government, the solid Foundation of our Happiness.

We reflect with great Satisfaction that your Majesty used every possible Means to prevent the Renewal of Hostilities; and we are perfectly confident that your Majesty will do every Thing in your Power to restore the Blessings of Peace, as soon as it can be accomplished consistent with the Honor and Dignity of your Crown, and the Safety and Welfare of your Majesty's loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Citizens, Recorder, Sheriff, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City of Lichfield.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, and Citizens, Recorder, Sheriff, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City of Lichfield, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this important Crisis with Expressions of our sincere Concern, that your Majesty's Endeavours for the Preservation of Peace, and the unexampled Temper and Moderation evinced by your Majesty's Ministers during the late Negotiations, have been rendered unsuccessful by the ambitious Views of the French Government.

Impressed with the deepest Sense of the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under our happy Constitution, we humbly assure your Majesty of our Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and of our Readiness most zealously to concur in such Measures as the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils shall devise, for supporting the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Safety and Independence of the British Empire.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council, the Ministers of the City, Rector, Principals, and Professors of the University, Gentlemen now resident in the City, Merchants, Manufacturers, Traders, Seamen, and other Inhabitants of your ancient City of St. Andrews, beg Leave, at this important Crisis, to lay before your Majesty the Assurance of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government. We, in common with the Rest of your faithful Subjects, have beheld with indignant Feelings, that rancorous and determined Hatred of the French Government against this Country in all its Relations since the Conclusion of the Peace. We are grieved also, that the vital Interests of our Country, the peculiar Blessings which endear our social State, under our beloved Sovereign and happy Constitution, are involved in the Issue of the present Contest. Determined therefore to resist, to the utmost of our Power, the Arrogance and Encroachments of the implacable Enemy of our Freedom and Prosperity. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that in case of Invasion, or the Appearance of Invasion, we will unite with one Heart and Mind and will be ready every one of us to perform that Kind of Service by which he may be most useful, and to perish or conquer in Support of your Majesty and our glorious Constitution.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment.
St. Andrews, 3d August 1803. Kellie, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of your County of Chester, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and with a Fidelity and Loyalty which have ever characterized this ancient and honorable Palatinate, to express those Sentiments, which, as Freemen and Britons, we cannot but deeply feel at the Conduct of the inveterate Enemies of this Empire, and of your Majesty's happy Government.

A Country so blessed and so distinguished as ours; a Country, whose Religion is purity, whose Liberty is Reason, and whose Laws are the Union of Wisdom, Equity, and Mercy, could not fail to excite the Jealousy, and provoke the Malice of a People who have declared Hostilities against all the valuable Interests, and the general Happiness of Mankind. In the Fury of their Malignity they have dauntingly, but, we trust, most vainly, decreed our Overthrow.

Feeling with indignant Pride the Insult thus offered to a free and loyal People, we shall consider no Efforts too great, no Sacrifices too severe, which may be necessary to oppose their Attempts, and chastise their Insolence.

We are well aware that the Crisis demands extraordinary Exertions; but we are convinced that the Energies and Constancy of your Majesty's Subjects are such, as, if properly directed, will not only confirm and improve our internal Security, but will enable us to meet the Menaces, to baffle the Attempts, and retort the Dangers of Invasion.

Sensible of the Aggression we have to repel, and of the Blessings we have to preserve, we pledge ourselves steadily and vigorously to support all those Measures which your Majesty, in your Wisdom, shall think fit to adopt in order to bring this arduous Contest to a happy Issue. It is by Perseverance in this manly Conduct, and by this only, that we can hope to maintain undiminished the Luster of the British Name, the Honor of your Crown, and the Happiness of your Subjects.

May the Almighty Power, who alone can give Success, protect the glorious Cause, and prosper our ardent Endeavour. May he long, very long, shower down his Blessings upon your Royal Person and Family: May he continue to go forth with your Hosts, and to crown their Arms with Victory; so that, in his appointed Time, the equitable Concessions of humbled Foes may render this Nation as highly honored in Peace as it has ever been terrible in War.

By Desire and on Behalf of the Meeting,

John Fielder, Sheriff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Denbigh, deeply impressed with the Importance of the present awful Crisis, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the warmest Loyalty and Attachment to your sacred Person, and our most invaluable Constitution. We have heard with the deepest Indignation (though not Dismay) the haughty Menaces of Ruin and Destruction to our Commerce and Country thrown out by our inveterate Enemy; and, while we deplore the Renewal of those Hostilities, which his inordinate Ambition has rendered necessary, we feel only the more warmly animated to unite with our Fellow-Subjects in every possible Exertion to repel such unprovoked Aggression.

We are fully sensible that the Contest is for nothing less than our very Existence as a free People, and have, therefore, but one common Sentiment of the most determined Resolution to sacrifice every Thing to the Defence of your Majesty's Throne, and, with it, of our Constitution, our Property, and the sacred Independence of the British Empire.

That invincible Spirit which has hitherto so successfully defended our Island, and more particularly this Principality, against every foreign Foe, was never more strongly roused than at the present awful Moment; and we trust that, by the Blessing of the Almighty, the Issue of this arduous and important Contest will furnish a fresh Proof to all the World that Britain can never be attacked or insulted with Impunity.

Henry Ellis Bates, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express our Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment.

Sensible as we are, of the many distinguished Blessings which our Forefathers have for Ages enjoyed under the British Constitution, still more sensible of those which we ourselves have experienced under your Majesty's paternal Government, we should ill deserve the Name of Britons, were we at any Time to hesitate in employing our Talents, or in sacrificing our Fortunes and our Lives to defend that Government, to perpetuate that Constitution; but at the present momentous Crisis, when an implacable Enemy threatens Destruction, not only to our Freedom and our Happiness, but to our Existence, we are called upon by every additional Motive that can stimulate us as Men to strain every Nerve in the Cause of our King, our Country, our Religion and ourselves.

Firmly relying on your Majesty's Wisdom to direct our Exertions, we solemnly engage ourselves that we will leave untried no Means in our Power to give the most complete Effect to the Measures recommended by your Majesty. And we trust that an All-gracious God who has hitherto protected this favoured Land, will continue his Protection, and enable us to transmit to our Posterity those Blessings unimpaired which our Ancestors bequeathed to us.

Signed at the Request, and in the Name of the County, at a Meeting held the Fourth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

Hedworth Williamson, Sheriff.

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of Stirling, humbly beg Leave, at the present important Conjunction, to repeat our Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and to assure your Majesty of our Readiness to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in support of your Majesty and the Independence of the British Empire.

When we contemplate the happy Situation in which Providence hath been pleased to preserve these Realms, whilst others are groaning under Military Despotism, or under the debasing Influence of blind Superstition, our Hearts overflow with Gratitude for the Civil and Religious Liberty which we continue to enjoy—for the Unanimity and Patriotism which so eminently pervade all Ranks—above all, in being blessed with a King, whose bright Example casts a Lustre round the Throne, and whose highest Glory is to be filled the Father of his People.

Long may your Majesty be preserved to reign over us, and may the Hand of Omnipotence go forth with your Majesty's Fleets and Armies to set Bounds to the inordinate Ambition of the present Ruler of France, to rescue the Nations from his Tyranny and Oppression, and to re-establish Peace on a firm, equitable, and lasting Foundation.

Sealed and subscribed in our Names, and by our Appointment, at the Town-Hall of Stirling, this Nineteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three Years.

John Gair, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Leicester.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Leicester, beg Leave, at this most alarming Crisis, to renew those dutiful Assurances of the Attachment we bear to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, which we have most sincerely offered on former Occasions.

Under this daring Attempt of Invasion, evidently tending to the Overthrow and Destruction of the Laws, Government, and happy Constitution of these Realms, we feel it our incumbent Duty to assure your Majesty that we will be ready on all Occasions to exert ourselves to the utmost of our Powers, and to risk every Thing that is valuable and dear to us against the restless and despotic Ambition of our inveterate and implacable Foe, in support of our glorious Constitution, and in Defence of a Monarch who has upon all Occasions shown the truest Solicitude for the Happiness and Prosperity of his People.

Signed on Behalf of the Inhabitants of this County at Large, at a Meeting held at Leicester, on Friday the Fifth Day of August in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Rutland, Lieutenant.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Meath, beg Leave at this important Crisis, humbly to approach your Majesty, to express in the strongest Terms, our firm and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, and our Horror and Detestation of those treasonable and desperate Conspiracies which still unfortunately continue to disgrace this Part of the United Kingdom. We feel in the fullest Manner the Blessings which we enjoy under our present happy Constitution, calculated beyond that of any other Government to ensure the Happiness, the Liberty, and the Prosperity of those who have the good Fortune to live under it. And we entreat your Majesty to be assured, that incensed but not intimidated by the Threats of a vaunting Enemy, we are ready to stand forward in the Defence of our Country: that we will take every Method necessary to place this County in the best possible State either for offensive or defensive Operations. That it is our determined Resolution to stand or fall with the Liberties of our Country. And that your Majesty may depend upon every Measure which your Wisdom may suggest, being cordially and personally supported by us your loyal and faithful Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors, of the County of Wigtown.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Wigtown, in General Meeting assembled, consider it as our bounden Duty, at this perilous Period, to approach the Throne with the most sincere Assurances of our continued Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

While a menacing and unprovoked Foe presumes to threaten the Invasion of the Empire, we hold ourselves in Readiness to exert our best Services to assist in repelling the daring Intruder; and all and each of us anxiously willing to be employed for the general Good in the Manner your Majesty may be pleased to command.

Britons, if Necessity shall require it, will doubtless prove themselves worthy of the famed Valour of their Ancestors, and resist with Success the hostile Attempt of an Enemy, whose declared Object is to annihilate our Existence as a Nation.

That your Majesty may soon see all your Foes humbled, and continue to reign over a free, happy, and affectionate People, is our sincere Prayer.

Signed at Glenluce, the First Day of August

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Heritors, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of Argyllshire.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

SENSIBLE as we are of the Happiness experienced under your Majesty's Government, and the Blessings we enjoy in common with our Fellow-Subjects of the British Empire, we the Heritors, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of Argyllshire, think it incumbent on us, on the present Occasion, most humbly to approach your Throne with unfeigned Expressions of our warm Attachment.

Confident that the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Government will call forth and apply the Resources of this mighty Nation in such a Manner as to check the Ambition, and chastise the Insolence of the rapacious and implacable Enemy, who vainly hopes to intimidate Britons with proud Threats of Invasion, we declare our firm Resolution to exert every Means in our Power in the general Defence of the Kingdom, and towards humbling that Enemy of our public and private Prosperity, who has yet to learn what it is to invade a powerful, a free, and a united People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgessees, Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventre, in the County of Northampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

SENSIBLE of the great and manifold Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's most mild and equitable Government, and at the same Time impressed with the utmost Abhorrence and Indignation at the daring and infatuated Attempts of an ambitious and implacable Enemy, we, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgessees, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventre, humbly approach your Majesty with the most sincere and lively Emotions of dutiful Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

We come to you, Sire, not only with Professions of Gratitude and Reverence for your parental Care and unremitting Solicitude for the Welfare of your People, but we pledge ourselves, in the most solemn Manner, faithfully to dedicate our Lives and Services to the Defence of the Laws, the Liberties, and the Religion of our Country, firmly resolved rather to die in the Support and Maintenance of our free and invaluable Constitution, than to suffer our Rights and Privileges to be wrested from us by an insolent and inveterate Enemy.

Our Religion, our Laws, our Property are all at Stake. We feel the utmost Zeal for the Preservation of them, and the strongest Impulse to concur with your Majesty in every Measure that tends to repel and defeat the threatened Invasion of our Country.

Under such Circumstances, we are sensible that this is not the Hour, Sire, for us to indulge false Hopes of Security. We know our Danger: We will be prepared to meet it. We know that great and vigorous Exertions are necessary, we are therefore ready cheerfully to bear the Burthen which the Necessity of the Times imposes, and to come forward with our personal Services in the general Cause, hoping that the firm Union of all our Fellow Subjects will, under the Protection, and with the Assistance of Almighty God, preserve the peculiar Blessings of our Country, and transmit them unimpaired to our Posterity.

Signed on Behalf of the Meeting,

James Shaw, Bailiff.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Royal Burgh of Cupar Fife, considering the present eventful Period, humbly presume to approach your Majesty with the most solemn Assurances of our Loyalty to your sacred Person, and Attachment to our invaluable Constitution; and we assure your Majesty, that in the Defence of both, we will do all that Men can do who are actuated by an ardent Zeal and Love for their King and Country; this we will manifest by a prompt Obedience to the Orders and Directions of our Superiors; and the Issue we commit to the Almighty Disposer of all Events.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, in the County of Oxford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your sacred Person, and implicit Confidence in the Wisdom of those Measures which the Parent of his People has exerted for their Protection. We speak but the Language of every true Englishman, when we pledge our Persons and Property for the Defence of a glorious Constitution, purchased by the Blood of our Ancestors, and at all Times defended by the Energies of true and faithful Subjects. We trust that resting on the Rock of our Liberty, we may withstand the vain Assaults of a frantic Government whose Treachery or Violence has overpowered the more feeble States of Europe, and whose barbarous Tyranny still rules them with the Rod of Iron. We compare with Exultation the superior Laws which Englishmen obey, and those patriotic Abilities of her Senators, which, by the Increase of her Wealth have placed Great Britain on the Pinnacle of Power. We admire the Gallantry of those small but chosen Bands which have defeated the Gigantic Armies of convulsed France, and those Fleets which have invariably borne the Standard of Victory must always be the Admiration of free born Britons.

That your Majesty may long rule over a brave and united People, not only unbroken by Calamity or unshooked by foreign Force, but, through your Majesty's Care, and the Guidance of the King of Kings, led on to Victory, to Peace, and Glory, is the Prayer of your most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Done at a Common Hall, this Third Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Dudley North, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your ancient Burgh of Ayr, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne with renewed Assurances of our Affection for your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We see with the most lively Indignation, that Spirit of restless Ambition and despotic Tyranny which marks the Conduct of the French Government in all its Steps, and more particularly in its rancorous Hatred, and rooted Animosity against our happy Isle.

Upon that Account we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will embrace every Opportunity within the Compass of our Power, of impressing upon all Ranks of People with whom we are connected, the Necessity of making every Effort in Aid of the Operations of Government to defeat the Attempts of the insatiate and invading Foe, should he be so mad as to put his Threats into Execution; and that we will with our Lives and Fortunes, assist your Majesty in the arduous Contest in which you are engaged, and in which all Ranks and Descriptions of our Fellow-Subjects are so deeply interested in support of every Thing that is dear to us both as Men and as Britons.

That the Lord of Hosts, who can save alike by many or by few, may render our Efforts victorious, that your Majesty's Throne may be supported with additional Splendour, our invaluable Constitution preserved in its full Vigour, and your People attain more permanent Security and Prosperity than we have even hitherto enjoyed, is our most anxious and fervent Prayer.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, this First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three. George Charles, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Ramsgate, in the Town-Hall assembled, approach your Majesty with the warmest Sentiments of Attachment to our glorious and happy Constitution enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government. The restless and insatiable Ambition of our inveterate and unprincipled Enemy, who has forced us into the Miseries of War, and who now arrogantly avows his Determination to subvert and overthrow our Liberties, Laws, Religion, and every Thing dear to a free and independent Nation, loudly and cannily calls forth all Classes of your Majesty's faithful Subjects to unite with Hand and Heart in offering to your Majesty their strenuous and active Exertions to defeat the desperate and vain Boastings of this haughty Foe. With ardent Alacrity we join our Fellow Subjects on this important Occasion, and, with the utmost Cheerfulness, offer to your Majesty our best Services, assured that your Majesty's Goodness will restore to us, whenever it can be obtained with Honor and Security, the inestimable Blessing of Peace.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Dundee.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, approach the Throne of our gracious Sovereign with the heartfelt Satisfaction, that we are still enjoying the envied Liberty of Britons, and possessing the Blessings of a Government which has been, and will continue to be the Admiration of the World, while civil, political, and religious Liberty are held in Estimation among Mankind.

At this eventful Period, unexampled in the Annals of History, when this happy Country is threatened with Invasion by an insatiable Foe, headed by their presumptuous Despot, we beg Leave to renew our Professions of Attachment and Loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person and Family.

Proudly contrailing a Patriot King, and a British Constitution, with that wretched Slavery to the Will of a Tyrant which has overwhelmed a great Part of Europe, we have no Fear for the Event should the Boaster dare to bring it to Trial, with British Soldiers on British Ground.

We assure your Majesty that we will most cheerfully contribute to the important Contest, which we feel and know involves in it every Thing dear to free Men.

Under the Auspices of your Majesty and your illustrious Race, may this Country be ever distinguished by the Blessings of Social Order and a regular Government, and its Inhabitants continue to be a loyal, a free, and a happy People.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of Council.

To the KING.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Argyle, consider it as our Duty, at this Season of public Danger and Alarm, to approach your Throne with the warmest Declarations of our continued and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and we are happy to assure your Majesty, that the same Sentiments of Duty and Affection which we entertain prevail amongst the People committed to our Care. The avowed Intention of the Rulers of France to invade this Country, and the Preparations which they are carrying on for that Purpose, excite in us the strong & Feelings of Indignation. We have never ceased to cherish and diffuse Sentiments of Loyalty amongst the People with whom we are connected; and, at the present Crisis, we regard it as our indispensable Duty to exhort and animate them to employ all their Energies in resisting foreign Invasion, and in defending the invaluable Blessings, civil and sacred, which they have uniformly enjoyed under your Majesty's paternal Care and Protection. Roused by the Prospect of Danger, the Hearts of your People, most gracious Sovereign, are, if possible, more than ever yours; and, should Danger come, we are fully persuaded that all Ranks and Orders of Persons in this Part of the Kingdom will unite with Zeal and Ardour in the Defence of their Religion and Liberty, and of the Honor and Independence of the Empire.

That mutual Love and Confidence may ever subsist between your Majesty and your Subjects; that that Wisdom, which is from above, may direct all your Councils, and that Strength, which is Almighty, may go forth with your Arms; that the Lord of Hosts may bless all the Means that are employed for the National Defence and Security; that He may put a Period to the Calamities of Europe by a lasting Peace; that He may preserve our happy Constitution, and our Religion, and Liberties, to the latest Posterity; that He may take your Majesty into His Holy Keeping, and pour down His Blessings on all the Branches of your illustrious House; and that, after a long and prosperous Reign, over a free, a brave, and a grateful People, He may bestow upon you the Crown of Immortality through Jesus Christ our Lord, are and shall be the constant Prayers of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in this Provincial Synod of Argyle.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I AM at length enabled, by the State of public Business, to release you from your long and laborious Attendance in Parliament.

In closing the Session, I have the utmost Satisfaction in expressing the strong Sense which I entertain of that zealous and unwearied Regard for the Welfare and Honour of your Country which has distinguished all your Proceedings.

During the Continuance of Peace, your Conduct manifested the just View which you had taken of our actual Situation, and of the Dangers against which you were peculiarly called upon to provide; and since the Recurrence of Hostilities, you have displayed an Energy and Promptitude which have never been surpassed, in the Means which you have supplied for the Defence of the Country; and for the vigorous Prosecution of the War.

Your Proceedings, in consequence of the late treasonable and atrocious Occurrences in Ireland, will, I trust, have the Effect of preventing any further Interruption in its internal Tranquillity, and of convincing My loyal Subjects in that Part of the United Kingdom, that they may confidently rely on that Protection to which they are so justly entitled.

In the Midst of the Deliberations, which were occasioned by the immediate Exigency of the Times, you have not been unmindful of other Objects, to which I had directed your Attention; and I have great Satisfaction in observing that you have completed a System for consolidating the Duties, and regulating the Collection and Management of the several Branches of the Revenue; and that you have adopted Measures which are calculated to afford material Accommodation to the mercantile Part of the Community, and to encourage and extend the Navigation and Commerce of My Dominions.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons;

I return you My particular Thanks for the Liberality and Readiness with which you have granted the Supplies for the public Service.

It is painful to me to reflect, that the Means of necessary Exertion cannot be provided without a heavy Pressure upon My faithful People: but I cannot sufficiently applaud that Wisdom and Fortitude which have led you to overlook Considerations of temporary Convenience, for the Purpose of preventing a large Accumulation of Debt during the Continuance of the War. You may be assured that there shall be as strict an Attention to Economy on My Part as may be consistent with those Preparations and Exertions which will be best calculated to frustrate the Designs and to weaken the Power of the Enemy, by whose arrogant Pretensions and restless Ambition alone these Sacrifices have been rendered unavoidable.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I am fully persuaded that, during the Cessation of your Parliamentary Duties, you will continue to be actuated by the same Spirit which has been uniformly displayed in your Councils. It will be your Duty to assist in carrying into Effect those important Measures which your Wisdom has matured for the Defence and Security of the Realm; and particularly to give the most beneficial Direction to that Ardour and Enthusiasm in the Cause of their Country which animate all Classes of My People.

Justly sensible of the State of Pre-eminence, in which it has pleased the Almighty to support Us, for so many Ages, amongst the Nations of Europe, I rely with Confidence, that, under the Continuance of His Divine Protection, the Exertions of My brave and loyal Subjects will prove to the Enemy and to the World, that an Attempt to subvert the Independence or to impair the Power of this United Kingdom, will terminate in the Disgrace and Ruin of those by whom it may be made, and that My People will find an ample Reward for all their Sacrifices, in an undisturbed Enjoyment of that Freedom and Security, which, by their Patriotism and Valour, they will have preserved and ensured to themselves and their Posterity.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Thursday the Sixth Day of October next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the Sixth Day of October next.

MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1803.

Downing-Street, August 15, 1803.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was this Morning received by the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, from Lieutenant-General Grinfield, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Troops in the Windward and Leeward Islands :

MY LORD,

*Scarborough, Tobago,
July 1. 1803.*

I HAVE the Honor to report to your Lordship, the Surrender, by Capitulation, of the Fort of Scarborough, and the Restoration of the Island of Tobago to the British Government. I have the Satisfaction to add, that this Event appears to be received by the Colony, the Inhabitants of which are almost entirely British, with the liveliest Sense of Gratitude.

The Circumstances which led to this fortunate and valuable Conquest, were as follow : On the 25th, Commodore Flood, with the Fleet and Troops, sailed from St. Lucia, and Yesterday, at Day-Break, we made this Island. About Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, having landed the greater Part of the Troops, the two leading Columns marched forward towards Scarborough, and meeting with no Opposition in the Defiles of St. Mary's, advanced to Mount Grace, from which Place I sent a Summons to the Commandant-General Berthier, who returned an Answer by proposing Terms of Capitulation, which were finally settled about Four this Morning, and at Eleven Possession of the Fortrefs was given to the British Forces ; the French Garrison marching out with the Honors of War, and lying down their Arms, after passing the Guard of Honor, under the Orders of Brigadier-General Piñon.

The Fort having surrendered without Resistance, I can only speak, in general Terms, of the excellent Discipline and good Conduct of the Officers and Soldiers in this Expedition ; there is no doubt, had the French Garrison been sufficiently strong to have hazarded Resistance, they would have met with as obstinate an Attack as was experienced by the Garrison of Morne Fortunée.

It is next to impossible for me to say too much in Praise of the Co-operation of the Navy. The Troops are in the highest Degree indebted to Commodore Hood for the Accommodation afforded to them on board, and to the judicious Arrangements and Execution in the Embarking and Disembarkation of them by Captain Hallowell.

I take the Liberty to enclose a Copy of the Orders given to the Troops.

I likewise enclose a List of the Troops of the French Republic who laid down their Arms in consequence of the Capitulation ; also the Return of Ordnance and Military Stores taken in the Fort and other Batteries in this Island.

Captain Draper, my Aide-de-Camp and Secretary, returning to England, will have the Honor to deliver this Dispatch to your Lordship ; I beg Leave to recommend him to your Notice, as an intelligent, diligent, and active Officer.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) W. GRINFIELD, Lieut. Gen.
Right Honorable Lord Hobart,
&c. &c. &c.

Tobago, June 30, 1803.

THE Forces of His Britannic Majesty, now landed in this Island, being so superior to those of the French Republic, that Resistance will only prove an unnecessary Profusion of the Lives of Men.

The Superiority of the British Naval Force over that of the French in those Seas must preclude the Hope of Succour.

The Commanders of the British Army and Navy being fully sensible of their decided Superiority, so fully evinced on the 22d Instant, by the Capture of Morne Fortunée, in the Island of St. Lucia, by Assault, offer to the French Commanding Officer to accede to any reasonable Proposals for the immediate Surrender of this Island, as he may think proper to offer, premising only, that the Garrison must surrender Prisoners of War, to be conveyed to Europe, and that all the public Property is to be at the Disposal of the Captors.

The Officer who will have the Honor to deliver this, is to wait one Hour, and no longer, for an Answer.

Head-Quarters Tobago, 1st July, 1803.

GENERAL ORDERS.

THE Commander of the Forces has again the Opportunity of congratulating the Troops with the Success due to their Zeal, Discipline, and Courage, by the Surrender, by Capitulation, of the Forts of Scarborough, and the Restoration of the Island of Tobago, without Bloodshed, to the British Government.

The Commander of the Forces hopes the Commodore will permit him to impute the principal Cause of their recent Success to his steady Co-operation with the Army, and to the judicious Arrangements and Execution of Captain Hallowell, in the Embarkation and Disembarkation of the Troops.

The Commander of the Forces assures the Officers and Sailors of the King's Ships, and the Officers and Soldiers of the Royal Marines, that it will be with Pleasure he shall report to His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief their Attachment and laudable Perseverance in the Execution of those Duties the Service has required from them; and it will be next to impossible for the Army not to succeed in its Undertaking, when the Sailors give such essential Aid in the Conveyance of the Artillery, and the Royal Marines their Support wherever Occasion requires.

The Advance March of the first Column, consisting of Two Companies of the 64th Regiment, and Five Companies of the 3d West India Regiment, under Brigadier General Picton, which in all Probability has been the Cause of the speedy Surrender, is entitled to Military Commendation.

The Circumstances of the Capitulation notwithstanding any Occasion for the Display of British Valour, has fortunately also prevented any Loss; but every Commendation is due to the Army for their ready Obedience to the Orders necessary on these Occasions.

Great Praise is also due to the Alertness and Readiness of the Royal Artillery and Royal Artificers in their Embarkation and Disembarkation, both of themselves, Ordnance, and Stores, and for their Attention to their Discipline and Duties.

Admiralty Office, 15th August 1803.

Centaur, Great Courland Bay, Tobago, 1st July 1803.

HAVING sailed from St. Lucia on the Evening of the 25th of last Month, accompanied by the Ships named in the Margin*, with Lieutenant-General Grinfield and Troops for the Attack of Tobago embarked on board, and several small Ordnance and Provision Vessels, we arrived off the Island Yesterday Forenoon, and were joined by His Majesty's Ships Venus and Port Mahon, neither of which having Troops, I directed Captain Graves to anchor close to the Battery on the East Point of Courland Bay, and commence the Attack, that the first Division of the Army (composed of Two Companies of the 64th Regiment, and Five Companies of the 3d West India Regiment, commanded by Brigadier-General Picton, and conducted by Captain Hallowell of the Argo) might be covered in proceeding to land in the Bay, and Captain Nevill to run in with the Port Mahon close to the Back of the Battery to cover the Landing: And as soon as the Two Companies of the 64th were in the Boats, I bore up with the Centaur with an Intention of supporting the Ship and Sloop: but the Ready and judicious Conduct of these Officers in the Execution of this Service, was so completely effective, that the Battery was soon silenced by the Fire of the Venus, and the Port Mahon drove them from the Back, landed and took Possession without any Loss, by which the Troops were disembarked unopposed.

From the superior Energy of Lieutenant General Grinfield, the rapid Movements of the Army were such as to cause General Cesar Berthier to propose for the Surrender of the Fort of Scarborough the same Evening, and the Articles of Capitulation, a Copy of which I have the Honor to enclose †, were completed by half-past 4 this Morning.

I should do great Justice to the Lieutenant-General, and the several Officers and Soldiers under his Command, if I did not mention the most cordial good Understanding which has subsisted between us during the Whole of our Operations, as I should also do to the several Captains, Officers, Petty Officers, Seamen, and Royal Marines of the several Ships for their unremitted Attention and good Conduct.

* Centaur, Argo, Ulysses, Chichester, and Hornet.
 † See Lieutenant-General Grinfield's Dispatches.

The Royal Marines, and a Body of Seamen, were landed to co-operate with the Army, under the Command of Captain Hallowell; and it is scarcely necessary for me to add, his Zeal and Exertions were equally conspicuous as on the late Expedition to St. Lucia. He is charged with this Dispatch, and will give their Lordships any further Information they may desire on the Subject.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

GENERAL ORDERS.

PAROLE, ST. LUCIA.

THE Commander of the Forces has the Honor to congratulate the Troops under his Command, for the gallant Attack and Capture, by Assault, of the Fortrefs of Morne Fortune, and the unconditional Surrender of the Island of St. Lucia.

If any Thing could reconcile to the Officers and Soldiers who have been wounded, and to the Friends of those who have been killed, it will be the Reaction, of their most extraordinary gallant and soldierlike Behaviour.

The Commander of the Forces shall have particular Satisfaction in representing to His King the Readiness with which the Troops, who formed the Expedition, were embarked on the shortest Notice; he must particularly speak of the gallant Behaviour of the Second Battalion of the Royals, and the 64th Regiment; and he is very sorry that the 68th Regiment, by its being in the Reserve, under Brigadier General Picton, was not in the Action, otherwise there could have been no Doubt, but that the Conduct of that Regiment would have merited an equal Report, as was evinced from a small Detachment of that Regiment, in a feint Attack under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Shipley.

To the ready Attention of Commodore Hood, and to the Accommodation afforded to the Troops in the Men of War, and to the Exertions and Arrangements of Captain Hallowell in their Embarkation and Disembarkation, may be justly attributed the Success of the Expedition to this Island.

To the cool and determined Conduct of Brigadier General Prevost, and Brigadier General Breton, who led the Two Columns of Attack, may be attributed the Success of the Action; but to Brigadier General Prevost must be acknowledged, that to his Counsel and Arrangements the Commander of the Forces attributes the Glory of the Day.

To Lieutenant-Colonel Pakenham and Lieutenant-Colonel McDonald, (both severely wounded,) their respective Corps are indebted for their spirited Behaviour.

To Lieutenant-Colonel Shipley, and the Royal Engineers, he is indebted in a high Degree for Assistance and professional Advice.

To Lieutenant-Colonel Morden (severely wounded,) he is indebted for his spirited Offer and good Conduct in leading the Column to the Assault; and the Conduct of Major Sir Geo. Richardson, (also severely wounded,) was particularly noticed by Brigadier-General Prevost.

It would be of too great length to insert the Names of every Officer whose Courage and Behaviour on this Day has deserved to be marked; the Commander of the Forces can assure them that the Satisfaction expressed by Brigadier-General Prevost and Brigadier-General Breton, does them the highest Credit.

The Commander of the Forces would be unpardonable was he not to express that the General of Brigade Nogues, the Commanding Officer of the Forces of the French Republic, and the Troops under his Command, made a most gallant Defence for their Country, and highly honorable to themselves.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland, assembled at the Assizes, held in the Moot-Hall, in the Town of Newcastle, on Tuesday the Ninth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with Expressions of our sincere and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

This Declaration of our Duty and our Affection we feel it peculiarly incumbent on us to repeat at this Crisis, when we are threatened with Invasion by a dangerous and powerful Enemy.

To defeat any such Attempt, and to maintain the Independence, the Laws, and the Liberties of these United Kingdoms, we are prepared to make every Sacrifice which the Nature of the Contest may require, humbly trusting in your Majesty's paternal Care, that, by a wise Economy, and well-directed Exertions, the utmost Effect will be given to the powerful Means which are cordially offered for the Common Defence by an unanimous and zealous People.

Signed on Behalf of the County,
Shusto Crofter, Sheriff.

[Presented by Thomas Richard Beaumont, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Heritors of the County of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Heritors of the County of Aberdeen, beg leave to approach the Throne with those Sentiments of sincere and inviolable Attachment to our beloved Sovereign, which we have ever wished to cherish in our Breasts, and deem it our indispensable Duty to express in the most public and solemn Manner at the present momentous Period.

Threatened with an immediate Attack on our Country by a ferocious and implacable Enemy, whose Object is to spread Desolation and Terror as far as his Arms can prevail; although we cannot fail to join with our Fellow-Subjects in deploring the Miseries of War, and the Pressure of those Burdens that must inevitably attend the arduous Conflict in which we are now engaged: we yet feel that Confidence and Hope of final Success, which, under the Blessing of Heaven, is so justly inspired by the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils, and not less supported by the well-known Valour and Intrepidity of your Forces both by Sea and Land.

These, we trust, will at last bring the Contest, however severe it may prove, to a favourable Issue; and as we know that it cannot terminate according to our Wishes without expelling your faithful People to many Hardships and Inconveniences, which must be patiently endured, we can assure your Majesty, that we are fully prepared to perform every Duty, to submit to every Sacrifice, and encourage every Exertion that may be necessary for vindicating the Honor of your Majesty's Government, and obtaining that Security against future Violence and Aggression, without which we can neither hope to enjoy lasting Peace, nor preserve our National Independence.

May that Almighty Ruler, whose watchful Providence has guarded your Throne from every Danger, still continue to protect your Majesty's sacred Person, and give their full Effect to those salutary Measures which the Wisdom of your Parliament has adopted for securing internal Quiet, as well as outward Protection to every Part of your united Kingdom.

This public Testimony of our Loyalty and Affection, we humbly intreat that your Majesty will deign to accept as a grateful Acknowledgment of what is due to the bell of Princes, from a People enjoying the Bell of civil Constitutions which has ever fallen to the Lot of any Country upon Earth.

Signed in Name, by Appointment and in Presence of a General County-Meeting held at Aberdeen the Eighth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, by Gordon, Lord Lieutenant.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WHEN a Rebellion has again made its Appearance in this Kingdom, and broke out into Acts of open Violence in the Metropolis, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Louth, beg Leave to lay before your Majesty our sincere and cordial Assurances of the most devoted, firm, and loyal Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, and to the Succession of the Throne in your Majesty's illustrious House.

While we view with Horror and Indignation the wicked Designs of the Rebels, and lament their savage Brutality and barbarous Assassinations, more particularly in the Murder of Lord Kilwarden, a Man not less distinguished for his Humanity and inoffensive Manners, than for the indelexible Integrity, the Ability, and Knowledge with which he discharged the Duties of Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, we have the glorious Satisfaction of seeing these Designs defeated by the Ardor and Alacrity with which the Yeomen of Dublin flew to its Defence, and under the Favour of Providence happily saved the Capital.

Such Spirit must rouse the Energies of Government, and convince every Traitor within the Kingdom, and our implacable foreign Enemy, who would wish to wrest from the British Empire its old and happy Constitution, that there is in your Majesty's loyal Subjects of Ireland, a Zeal, Spirit, and Strength equal to protect their Country and your Majesty's Government against every domestic or foreign Foe.

Animated with this Confidence, and convinced that every Thing which is dear to us lies at Stake, we look forward with sanguine Expectation, that your Majesty's Ministers in this Kingdom will not suffer false Ideas of Security to delay their putting that Spirit and that Strength into the most effective and immediate State for Exertion.

In such a State, determined as we are, to stand or fall with your Majesty and the Empire, we feel a cautious and animating Security in our Power to crush all Rebels, and to defeat every Foe who may be desperate enough to invade us.

John Stratton, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro and the Neighbourhood, beg Leave, at this important Crisis, to renew our Assurances of Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and the Constitution of the United Kingdom. Feeling, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, the inestimable Value of that Constitution, and the Happiness which we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government, we should be wanting in Gratitude if we did not, at a Period when an inveterate and implacable Enemy is meditating the Destruction of every Thing that is dear to us, declare our firm and unalterable Determination to stand or fall with that Constitution and that Government.

Permit us, Sir, to return our most sincere Acknowledgments for the wise Measures which have been adopted under your Majesty's Auspices for the Defence of our Country, and to express our firm Trust, under Providence, that, if our Enemies shall be daring enough to attempt an Invasion of this Kingdom, they will be speedily involved in that Ruin which they are preparing for others.

By the Request of the Meeting,

Ja. Kempe, Mayor.

Dated the 5th of August 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Commonalty, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Penzance, assembled at the Guildhall there, the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three. The Worshipful the Mayor, in the Chair.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Commonalty, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Penzance, beg Leave, at this important Crisis, to assure your Majesty of our Fidelity and Allegiance to your Majesty's Royal Person, Crown, and Government. We have viewed with Indignation the hostile and devalating Spirit of a perfidious and inveterate Foe, who, having frustrated your Majesty's pacific Intentions, menaces Destruction to our happy Constitution, and the very Existence of the Empire.

Provoked by these Wrongs, confiding in the Justice of our Cause, and animated by that loyal Spirit which has ever pre-eminently distinguished the Inhabitants of this County; we pledge ourselves to join our Fellow Subjects in a vigorous Defence of your Majesty's Throne, of the civil and religious Rights we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, and of the Honor and Independence of the British Empire.

J. Batten, Mayor, Chairman.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Huddersfield, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne at this momentous Crisis, with the strongest Assurances of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We sincerely regret that the Wisdom, the Justice, and the Moderation of your Majesty's Councils have proved ineffectual in preserving to us the Blessings of Peace, and that the boundless Ambition of the daring Usurper of the Government of France, has again involved us in War, and threatens the Invasion of this happy Land.

Proud of the highly valued Privileges which Britons enjoy; firm in the Justice of our Cause; happy in that mutual Confidence which results from the exemplary Benevolence of the Sovereign; and the grateful and united Affections of the People; and relying on the Blessing of divine Providence, we fear not the haughty Menaces of our Enemies, and behold their Preparations with Indignation, but without Alarm.

From a Conviction that every Thing dear and valuable to a free and independent Nation is involved in the present Contell, we must willingly submit to those Privations which the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils may deem necessary; and are determined to support with our Persons and our Property the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown and Government, and the Rights and Independence of our Country.

May your Majesty be the favoured Instrument of Providence to check the devastating Progress of that Power, which, hitherto with Impunity, has trampled on the Rights of Humanity; and may He enable you speedily to terminate the War with Glory, and to re-establish the Blessings of Peace.

Jos. ph Radcliffe, Chairman.

St. James's, August 17, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Gentry, Clergy, Citizens, and other Inhabitants of your ancient City of Lincoln, humbly request Permission to approach your Majesty at the present momentous Crisis, and at the Foot of your Throne to offer up this Address in Testimony of our Loyalty and sincere Affection to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, most readily and zealously step forward to support and defend your Majesty's sacred Person, our Laws, our Religion, and Liberties against the daring, rapacious, and invidious Attack with which our Country is threatened by an ambitious and sanguinary Fox.

Dated at Lincoln, the Sixth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

T. Smith, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Lincoln, beg Leave, at this present important Crisis, to express to your Majesty our sincere Attachment and Loyalty to your sacred Person and our excellent Constitution, which it is our fixed Determination to use our utmost Endeavours to support.

Conscious of the Happiness this Country has enjoyed under that Constitution which has been handed down to us by our Ancestors, it will be our Glory to transmit it unimpaired to our Posterity; and we are convinced Britons can never think any Exertion or Sacrifice too great to defend their Country from the Danger of foreign Conquest.

We are fully convinced it is the great and leading Duty of every Individual to support and maintain the true Principles of the Constitution of the Church and State, and that these are the unanimous Sentiments of our Fellow Countrymen. We therefore view without Dismay, the Threats and Menaces of our Enemy, trusting, under Divine Providence, and our own manly and vigorous Exertions, we shall frustrate their hostile Intentions, and bring to an honorable Termination, that Contest on which the Liberty and Property of every Englishman depends.

Signed on the Behalf of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Lincoln, assembled at the County Hall, the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

Henry Nelthorpe, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Cornwall, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty at a Period when this Country is threatened with Invasion by a powerful and implacable Fox, to express our Sentiments of Attachment to your Royal Person, and our unanimous Determination to adopt and pursue every Means within our Power to ensure the Security, to assert the Independence, and to defend the Rights of your Majesty, of ourselves, and of our Fellow Subjects.

We are fully aware that in a Contest of such Magnitude, for Purposes so important, great and unusual Sacrifices must be made by us, and we are prepared, readily and cheerfully, to make them; feeling that it is only by the vigorous, persevering, and united Exertions of the whole Country against such an unprovoked Aggression on the Part of France that we can arrive at that State of Peace and Tranquillity which we are sensible it is your Majesty's most earnest Wish to procure for us.

Thos. Rawlings, Sheriff.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The dutiful and loyal Address of the County of Linlithgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

At a Season of peculiar Difficulty and Alarm, when the wild Ambition and inveterate Enmity of a foreign Power have placed the British Realm in Circumstances of new and extraordinary Danger, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Heritors, Freeholders, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Linlithgow, humbly desire to approach the Throne with the dutiful Expression of our hearty Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, and with the solemn Assurance of our Resolution to maintain, by the utmost Efforts which so interesting a Crisis may require, the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Liberties and Independence of our Country.

Knowing, Sir, the Spirit of Moderation on the Part of your Majesty, in which the Terms of the Treaty of Amiens were arranged, we were willing to indulge the Hope that those large Concessions towards the Tranquillity of Europe had not been made in vain; and that the Ruler of France might sincerely be disposed to indulge that enslaved and unhappy People in their earnest Wishes for a Period of Repose, after the long Series of Agonies and Miseries they had undergone.

But, convinced as we now are, by the uniform Train of Injury and Insult with which that relentless Person has since met the numerous Testimonies of your Majesty's friendly Dispositions, that this Treaty was nothing more than a delusive Truce, devised only in order to provide the Means of more effectually accomplishing the Destruction of a People whom he alike hates and envies, and that the great Struggles in which we are engaged could not have been prevented, nor even delayed, but by the Surrender of all that embles the British Name and Character, or ensures the Safety, Freedom, and Prosperity, of these fortunate Kingdoms; we feel that every Thing which any of us possess, or hold dear, is at Hazard on the Issue of this mighty Contest; and taught by the Misery and Debasement of the many surrounding Nations who have trusted to the Mercy, the Faith, or the Gratitude of our false and cruel Foe, we will make with Cheerfulness all Sacrifices and Exertions, how large and unusual soever, which are called for on so high an Occasion, and will seek our Deliverance from this great Peril in the Energy and Courage only of a free, a loyal, and an united People; and in humble Reliance on the Favour and Protection of the Almighty Disposer of Events, a Reliance grounded on the Consciousness of the Justice and Goodness of our Cause.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Linsithgow, this Third Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, Johnstone Hopetoun, His Majesty's Lieutenant for the County of Linsithgow.

[Presented by Colonel Sir A. Hope, Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Salop, beg Leave at the present awful Crisis of public Affairs to express our sincere and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government. We have heard with Indignation and Abhorrence the Menaces of an Insolent and haughty Enemy, who, in open Contempt of every Principle of Justice, and in Violation of the most solemn Acts of Faith, has again compelled us to stand forth in Opposition to its restless and insatiable Ambition; and we hasten to assure your Majesty of our Determination to employ every Means which Divine Providence hath afforded us of strengthening the Hands of your mild and equitable Government, and of maintaining with unremitted Exertions, the Cause of Truth, of Liberty and Justice against that of Perfidy, Tyranny, and Usurpation.

The spirited Acts of Authority for the Suppression of Vice and Immorality by which your Reign has been distinguished, and the Solitude which your Majesty has invariably discovered for the Maintenance of true Religion and Piety in these Dominions, afford us the most satisfactory Assurance that the Mind of our beloved Sovereign is deeply impressed with a Persuasion, that it is Righteousness which exalteth a Nation, and therefore we rely with implicit Confidence on your Majesty's continuing the Adoption of such Measures as will most effectually tend to secure to us the Protection and Favour of Almighty God. It is this Consideration, Sir, which imparts an Energy to our Efforts for the Defence of your Majesty's Person, and for the Preservation of our Church and Civil Constitution; it is this which animates us with a lively Hope, that the Conflict in which we are involved will terminate under the Divine Blessing, with Success, and serves to unite us in one common Resolution to sacrifice our Fortune and our Lives in resisting to the uttermost, the sanguinary Attempts of our rapacious and inveterate Foes.

Tbos. Kynnerley, Sheriff.

[Presented by Colonel Kynaston Powell, Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High-Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Essex, at all Times desirous to manifest the most zealous Attachment to your illustrious Family, feel it an indispensable Duty, at this Crisis, cheerfully to devote our Persons and Properties for the Maintenance of your Majesty's Crown and Government against the outrageous Attack with which they are threatened by a desolating and implacable Foe.

We feel, however, with Pride and Gratitude, that, while the unfortunate People of other Nations have been degraded into Slavery by a criminal Submission to the Will of an usurping Tyrant, the happy Subjects of these Realms continue to enjoy the enviable Blessings of Freedom under the Protection of a mild and merciful Sovereign.

We have learnt with the utmost Indignation that the common Disturber of human Repose, adding Insult to Aggression, now presumes to menace a personal Descent upon this Island. If, from its Conspicuity, he should be induced to adventure upon our Coast, we do assure your Majesty, with a Confidence which Loyalty inspires, that the Inhabitants of this extensive County will be found at their Posts, firmly united, and ready to oppose themselves as a Barrier against the Progress of this inveterate Enemy: We know that a Warfare must then be waged for all that is sacred in civilized Life, and that every Thing dear to us must be risked in the Support of a Monarch so deservedly beloved, and in the Defence of a Constitution which we are not disposed to survive.

Signed on Behalf of the County at large,

S. F. Gillum, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Nottingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Nottingham, beg Leave, at this important Conjunction, to renew our Assurances of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We have seen, with the utmost Regret, the restless and insatiable Ambition of the First Consul of France once more interrupt that Peace, which the benignant Efforts of your Majesty had restored to suffering Europe; and we observe with Indignation the hostile Preparations with which he threatens to insult our Shores: But, Sir, be assured that Britons are not to be dismayed by his Menaces or his Projects. Called upon by your Majesty to come forward in the Defence of our Country, we cheerfully obey the Summons; and we hereby pledge ourselves, with that Zeal and Unanimity which a generous Confidence will always inspire, to make the greatest Sacrifices, and to employ the most active Exertions for the Protection of your Majesty's Person, the Maintenance of the Honor and Independence of the Nation, and the Preservation of those Liberties which have been hitherto so well secured by our glorious Constitution.

Animated by these Sentiments, and relying upon the Justice of our Cause, we trust that, by the Blessing of Divine Providence, we shall enable your Majesty to frustrate the Attempts of all your Enemies, and to restore to this Country that unrivalled Prosperity which it has ever enjoyed under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

Signed on Behalf of the County,

W. C. Sherbrooke, Sheriff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne, and to express our Zeal to promote those Measures, which, with the Advice of your Parliament, your Majesty has adopted for the Defence of these Realms.

Great and awful as is the Crisis of the present Moment, we look forward to its Issue with cheerful Confidence, sensible, at the same Time, that it involves in it the Fate of every Thing that is most dear to us, the Maintenance of your Majesty's Throne and Dignity, the Defence of your Religion, our Laws, and Liberties; these shall never be surrendered to that implacable Enemy, who thirsts for our Destruction. The Judgment of an enlightened People can feel no Hesitation between the mild Sway of a rightful Sovereign, governing by Laws founded in the Wisdom of Parliament, and the arrogant Pretensions of an Usurper, acknowledging no Right but that of Arms, no Law, but his capricious Will.

Done at a General Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk, convened by the High Sheriff, and held in the Shire-House in the Castle of Norwich, on Wednesday the Tenth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, and signed at the Request of the Meeting, Thos. Hare, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE!

WE, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Monmouth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Assurances of our sincere and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and determined Resolution to resist, with all our Power, the menaced Attack of an insidious, vindictive, and haughty Foe for the Subversion of our constitutional Liberty, and Destruction of the social Institutions, which, contributing to our Happiness and Prosperity, render Life desirable.

Impressed with Sentiments of Veneration for your Majesty's Person, and grateful to Divine Providence for the Protection of our Freedom, enjoyed by ourselves and Ancestors for a long Series of Years, but more particularly under your Majesty's paternal Government; proud of our National Independence, and scorning Submission to an implacable and ambitious Enemy, we cheerfully stand forward with a Tender of our Services, personal and pecuniary, to be disposed of as the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils may suggest in Support of our Country.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffolk, beg Leave, at this most awful Crisis, again to approach your Majesty with the strongest Assurances of our warmest Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

From our Situation, as a maritime County, it is probable we may be amongst the first of your Majesty's Subjects who may be destined to resist the threatened Attempt of our most inveterate Enemy; and we trust that, when the Hour of Contest shall arrive, we shall not be appalled by the Danger, but be found ready and willing to make every Sacrifice that may be required of us in Defence of our King, our Country, and our Constitution in Church and State; and that, under Divine Providence, we may be able to repel the desperate Invader, and preserve to our Posterity those inestimable Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's most beneficent Reign.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of East Lothian, in a General Meeting assembled, deeply impressed with a Sense of the Duty imposed upon us and every British Subject at this momentous Crisis, feel ourselves called upon to assure your Majesty of our ardent Love for our Country, of our earnest Desire for the Preservation of its matchless Constitution, of our unshaken Loyalty, and of our sincere Affection for your Majesty's sacred Person, and your mild and paternal Government.

We are threatened with Invasion by a most implacable and faithless Enemy, whose first Wish is the Destruction of the British Empire, as a Step towards universal Dominion, by an Enemy who has made some of the greatest Nations tremble before his Arms, and bow to his Dictates; by an Enemy regardless of those Laws that regulate the Connection of independent States, and whom the most solemn Treaties are too weak to bind.

Although we desire not to conceal the just Sense we entertain of the Dangers that surround your Majesty and your faithful People, yet do we disclaim and deprecate every Idea of Depression or Alarm.

The peculiar Circumstances of the Times are so far from terrifying us, that we look forward to the Issue of this mighty Contest with Hope and Con-silence, relying on the Loyalty, Firmness, and spirited Exertions of a gallant, united, and exasperated People, and on the Wisdom of your Majesty and your Parliament; but above all, humbly trusting in the Protection of that Almighty Being, who will ever prosper the Efforts of Men enlisted in the Cause of Religion and Order.

We presume further to assure your Majesty, that, so far from considering the Burdens imposed upon us as vexatious, we do most sincerely and unanimously concur in Opinion, that they are absolutely necessary, and declare that we will cheerfully submit to whatever Privations the Wisdom of the Legislature may think fit to subject us to.

We reflect with Grief and Indignation on the late horrid Insurrection in another Part of the United Kingdom, accompanied as it was, by Circumstances of peculiar Atrocity. We feel ourselves called upon to express our Detestation of its Iniquity, and our Hope, that as, since the Commencement of the present arduous, just, and necessary Contest, it has been the first Symptom of Disaffection in your Majesty's Dominions, so it may be the last.

Finally, we do most solemnly bind ourselves to pay the utmost Attention to our respective Duties, to carry into Effect with the greatest Expedition, every Act of Parliament for the Defence of our Country, to obey with Zeal and Alacrity all your Majesty's Commands tending to that important End; to do all that in us lies to encourage and direct that truly British Spirit which pervades all Ranks in this Country, and to infuse into the Mind of every Individual belonging to it those Sentiments of Loyalty, Reverence, and Affection that it becomes a free and grateful Nation to cherish towards a Sovereign who has ever proved himself the Father of his People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Carnarvon, animated by the purest Affection for your Majesty's Person, and by the most ardent Zeal for the Safety and Protection of our Country, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne at this momentous Crisis.

We view with Sensations of deep Regret, the Necessity that involves us again in a state of Warfare, and we deplore the Evils to which it inevitably tends, but we see in the Character and Conduct of our Enemy the sole Cause of those Evils which we deplore. For our Defence and Security, under Providence, we rely upon the continued Exertions of your Majesty's Government, upon the Zeal and Spirit which pervade every Class of your Majesty's Subjects, and upon the well known Valour and Perseverance of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, and upon the general Exertions of the Country.

fidence and Fortitude to the Torrent which has overwhelmed the Continent, and look forward with Confidence in the Justice of the Cause for a happy Restoration of Peace.

With these Sentiments and every other Feeling of affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, and to our happy Constitution in Church and State. We beg Leave again to declare, that we shall use our utmost Exertions to support your Majesty and your Government in this just and unavoidable War.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Dumfries.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Dumfries, beg Leave, at the present important and unexampled Crisis, humbly to express our entire Approbation of the Measures lately pursued by your Majesty in commencing Hostilities against our insidious and inveterate Enemy, who, under the deceitful Mask of Peace, was preparing for, and plotting the, Subversion of your Majesty's Government, the Overthrow of the Constitution by which, under Divine Providence, the civil and religious Rights transmitted to us from our Forefathers are secured and protected, and the final Subjection of this Country; and we, at the same Time, take this Opportunity to profess and testify our unvaried Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and our firm and unalterable Resolution to support your Government, and defend our Country, with our Lives and Fortunes.

We feel with Indignation the insolent Menaces held out by our determined Foe, who has long contemplated with Envy and Malevolence the Prosperity of your Majesty's Kingdoms, convinced that Britain alone presents an invincible Obstacle to his daring and ambitious Schemes, and sensible that our free Government is a continual Reproach to the System of Tyranny, founded on Usurpation, which he has established through every Part of Europe where he has gained the Ascendancy.

The Fate of France affords an instructive Lesson to all Nations, and an awful Warning against the adopting of Innovations, without duly reflecting on the Consequences; after renouncing Allegiance to their Sovereign, and abjuring Christianity, the insatiable and wretched Inhabitants of that Kingdom have groaned under the Yoke of a Succession of sanguinary Tyrants, and are now become the Slaves of a despotic Ruler, who governs them with the Iron Hand of Power, whilst your Majesty's happy Subjects, under your mild and auspicious Government, enjoy the Blessings derived from a Constitution whose Basis is Liberty, founded upon Law. Animated by a just Sense of our enviable Situation, when compared with that of other Nations, permit us again, Royal Sir, to assure your Majesty that we will lose our best Blood in defending our Country, repelling our Enemies, and averting the Calamities with which we are threatened, persuaded, as we are, that Bri-tons, unanimous, true to themselves, and actuated by the gallant Spirit of their Ancestors, are greatly superior to any Attempts of Invasion that can be made by a foreign Enemy.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Kincardine, beg Leave, humbly to approach the Throne at this important Crisis, to renew our Assurances of Loyalty and of Affection to your Majesty's Person, and to express, in the strongest Manner, our confident Reliance on the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Government.

We see with Regret and Indignation, that your Majesty's anxious and uniform Endeavours to preserve to your People the Blessings of Peace have been rendered ineffectual by the violent Spirit of Animosity and the inordinate Ambition of an inveterate Foe, whose declared Purpose is to invade, plunder, and subdue this United Kingdom, and to destroy its Existence as an independent State. We are, however, happy in being able to assure your Majesty of the unanimous Resolution of the Inhabitants of this County to unite, with their Fellow Subjects, in supporting with their Persons and Properties, those Measures, which the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils may adopt, to defeat the Attacks and challenge the Insolence of our Enemies.

Trusting to those Measures and to the Justice of our Cause, we shall enter, without Diffamy, on the great Contest for every Thing we hold dear to us as Men and as Britons, in the fullest Confidence that this Nation, with the Divine Aid, will be enabled to confound the Designs of the Enemy, to secure to your Majesty and your Heirs the Independence of your Imperial Crown, and to transmit to our Posterity the Religion, Laws, and Liberty which we received as our Birthright, and which we at present enjoy in the fullest Manner under your Majesty's mild and truly paternal Government.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Scarborough, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign, tachment to the unrivalled Constitution of this Empire, at once the Source and Protection of our Freedom and Happiness.

While we contemplate the boasted Preparations of the Enemy, who vainly anticipates the Subjugation of this United Kingdom, and the Annihilation of our Rank among the Nations of the Earth, we trust that the irresistible Efforts of a brave and free People, contending for all that is dear to their Existence, will, under the protecting Arm of Divine Providence, prove an insuperable Barrier to a Host of Foes, lured by the Hope of Plunder, to fight the Battles of lawless and inordinate Ambition.

In this momentous Crisis we are equally impelled by Inclination and Duty, solemnly to pledge to your Majesty, our most strenuous and persevering Exertions, in support of every Measure, which the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils may adopt for the Protection of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and for the Defence of the British Empire, which has gloriously resisted the rude Attacks of the Spoiler, and still retains, unimpaired, its Religion, Liberty, and Laws, amidst the awful Wreck of the desolated States of Europe.

We do sincerely regret that your Majesty's earnest Endeavours to preserve the Blessings of Peace to your Subjects and to Europe have been ineffectual; and that by the political and ambitious Views of the Leaders of France, we are again involved in War—a War for the Preservation of our Liberties, our Properties, and for the Support of the Constitution of these Realms. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ready to step forward at this important Juncture, and to do all in our Power to repel the Enemy, to support the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and for the Defence of the Kingdom.

Convinced, as we are, that we have been forced into the present War by the restless Ambition of an implacable Enemy, we feel it our Duty voluntarily to arm for the Defence of every Thing that is dear to us as Englishmen, and we do humbly assure your Majesty that we are ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of our Sovereign, our Liberties, and our Country.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Stamford, and the Inhabitants of Saint Martin Stamford Baron, feel the greatest Indignation at the insulting Language and false Calumnies that the First Consul of France has uttered and propagated against your Majesty, whose Virtues are above all human Praise, and whose Courage, founded on religious Principles, is firm enough to meet and resist all the Attacks that may be made by our perfidious Enemies; and we are resolved to employ our best Endeavours to repel the threatened Invasion by the destructive Armies of our implacable Foes, being fully sensible that every Exertion and Sacrifice should be made at this awful Crisis, to protect every Thing that is dear to us in this World, and to secure to our Progeny the Blessings annexed to our happy Constitution both in Church and State.

Actuated by such Sentiments we humbly offer to risk our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of our beloved Sovereign and our unrivalled Constitution, and shall be ready to come forward and act whenever your Majesty may think proper to call for our Services.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Recorder, and Chamberlain, with others the Inhabitants of the Borough of Evesham, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne in this momentous Crisis of threatened Invasion and public Danger.

We are truly sensible that your Majesty has lately used your utmost Exertions in endeavouring to preserve to us the Blessings of Peace, and that they have only failed of their desired Effect through the insatiable Ambition, and implacable Malice of a Man, the avowed Enemy of all your Majesty's Subjects, and the Destroyer of the Rights and Liberties of Europe.

Animated by the honest Warmth of Patriotism, and proud of the many enviable Distinctions of just Laws, of unsullied Honor, and of genuine Freedom handed down to us from our Ancestors, we are anxious to preserve them in their original Purity, and to transmit them unimpaired to our latest Posterity. For this Purpose we are desirous of embracing every Means, which your Majesty's Government may in their Wisdom afford us of co operating with our Fellow Britons in resisting all Attempts of an invading Foe.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, beg Leave to approach the Throne at this very important Period with the most zealous Sentiments of Fidelity and Allegiance to your sacred Person and Government, impressed with the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of that unprincipled and implacable Enemy, who, elated with Conquests abounding in Wickedness, and intoxicated with Ambition, threatens, and certainly meditates the total Destruction of every Thing that is or ought to be dear to us as Men, as Englishmen, and as Christians.

We are fully convinced that the Preservation of our Liberty, the Safety of our Persons and Property, the Existence of our happy Government, and the Maintenance of true Religion and Virtue depend upon the Success of the present eventful Contest; when such Evils are to be obviated, and such Blessings contended for, no Vigilance can be too strict, no Preparations too great, no Exertions too strenuous. Judging from our own Feelings, we trust that one Principle of Loyalty and Attachment to your august Person and our glorious Constitution pervades every Rank and Individual of your Majesty's Subjects, and that the only, but the noble Strife amongst us will be, who shall serve their King and Country with the most Sincerity, disinterested Zeal, and uncorrupted Fidelity.

It is our earnest Prayer that every Blessing may attend and prosper your Majesty's Exertions for the Welfare of your People, and may the Lord of Hosts, the God of Battles, inspire your Commanders with Wisdom, your Troops with Bravery, and crown that Wisdom and Bravery with Success.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Shrewsbury, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincere and zealous Expressions of the most hearty Duty and Attachment.

In a Crisis like the present, when your Majesty is engaged in a most just and necessary War for the Defence of your Crown and People, and their Protection from an invading Force, whose ferocious ambition having desolated the fairest Part of the Continent, meditates the Subversion of our Laws, our Liberties, our Religion, and dearest Rights, and the Deraison of that Country, which, from its Pre-eminence in Valour and Virtue, has always been the Terror of Tyrants, and the Refuge of the oppressed, we should be unworthy of the Name of Britons did we not pledge our Lives and Fortunes in your Majesty's Support.

Sensible that, under the Blessings of our envied Constitution, the Protection of your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and the bright Example of your domestic Virtues, we have attained a Degree of Power and Happiness unknown to foreign Nations, and unexampled in our own Annals, we confide in the Wisdom of your Majesty, in the Valour of Britons, and in the Protection of the Almighty, for the Defence of your Crown, and the Preservation of your People.

Threatened by a foreign and implacable Enemy with Invasion, and Privation of every Thing which is justly held dear to us in this Country, we cheerfully obey the Summons to unite with Hearts and Hands, under the Wisdom and Direction of your Majesty's Councils, to repel any Attack which may be made on this Island, firmly and confidently relying (under the Favour of Divine Providence) on the Justice of our Cause, and the Spirit and Unanimity of Britons, for the Protection of their Religion and Laws, and the Defence of a most beloved and revered Sovereign.

Given under our Common Seal the Eleventh Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Aldermen, Common-Council, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Ruthin, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty's sacred Person upon the alarming Threats of Invasion by our Enemy. While we have to regret the Calamity of War, we most cordially and cheerfully come forward, individually and collectively, to support your Majesty in a War that is become so necessary and unavoidable for the Defence of our Lives, Properties, and most blessed Constitution against any Attempt of a foreign Force, who, not content with usurping the Power of Royalty in France, is determined on an Attempt to invade our happy Island, for the Purpose of overthrowing our Religion, our Laws, and Constitution, we therefore, being determined to repel most vigorously any such Attempt, do most humbly implore that your Majesty will graciously receive the unfeigned Assurances of our firm Support of your Majesty's Crown, and our Country, to the utmost Exertion of our humble Means, and as ancient Britons, to conquer or die in the common Cause.

At the Request, and on the Behalf of the whole Meeting,

Rich. Hughes and W. Ellis, Aldermen.

[Presented by the Honorable Frederick West, Representative in Parliament for Denbigh.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Maestfield, humbly request Permission to approach your Throne in this Moment of Alarm with the warmest Assurances of Affection to the Person of your Majesty, of unshaken Attachment to our Constitution in Church and State, and with a firm Determination to spend our Fortunes, and to shed our Blood, rather than not to transmit to our Children, undiminished and untarnished, those precious Laws, that pure Religion, and that honorable Name among the Nations of Europe, which we have received from our brave and loyal Ancestors.

We lament the stern Necessity which calls us to this dreadful Conflict; but, confident of the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Government, and of the public Spirit, Unanimity, and Valour of our Fellow-Subjects, we doubt not, with the Blessing of Almighty God, to defeat the Attempts of our Enemies, and not only to preserve inviolate the Palladium of British Liberty, but to hold out her saving Hand to the Nations on the Continent.

That the Almighty may shed his choicest Blessings on your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and long preserve you to sway the Sceptre of a brave and loyal People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most affectionate Subjects.

Signed on Behalf of this Meeting,

Nathaniel Higginbotham, Mayor, Chairman.

[Presented by Thomas Cholmondeley, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for Cheshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deputy, Minister, Churchwardens, and Inhabitants of the Town of Margate, and Parish of St. John the Baptist, in the Isle of Thanet, beg Leave, at this momentous Crisis, to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Although we cannot regard with Indifference the haughty Menaces of our inveterate Foe, the general Dissembler of the Universe; yet to impress'd are we with a due Sense of the Protection which this Country hath for Ages experienced from the special Favour of the Almighty, the Supreme Disposer of all human Events, that we can at bold look forward with Confidence to the Support of the same Being to carry us with Honor through the arduous Conflict in which we are engag'd, for the Defence of every Thing dear to us as Christians, as Men, and as Britons.

In this Confidence therefore, and in the perfect Conviction that we have been thus far the Conquerors by an unprincipled Enemy, animated by Views of boundless Ambition, to which he considers this Nation as the only Bar, we will be bold to assure your Majesty that we are not degraded from our Ancestors, and that your Majesty may safely rely on the Courage and zealous Affection of your Subjects.

Signed on Behalf of the Meeting,
August 11, 1803. For. Colb. Deputy.

[Presented by the Right Honourable William Pitt.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Denbigh, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this awful and momentous Crisis, to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned and sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, your illustrious Family, and the glorious Constitution of this happy Country.

We lament that your Majesty's Endeavours for the Preservation of Peace and Tranquillity have proved ineffectual. All Europe can bear Testimony to the Moderation, Candour, and Consistency of your Majesty's Demands, and must attribute the Renewal of a deadly and destructive War to that mad System of Fanaticism, inordinate Ambition, and Spirit of Aggrandisement which has so long characterised the Government of France. We acknowledge with Gratitude the parental Anxiety and unremitting Solitude manifested by your Majesty for the Defence, Prosperity, and Security of the United Kingdom against the Attack of a sanguinary and implacable enemy whose Footsteps are marked with Blood and Massacre, who seems determined at all Hazards to pursue his hostile Designs against the Happiness and Safety of your Majesty's Dominions, and even threatens to put an End to our Existence as a free and independent People.

Thus circumstanced, and attached to your Majesty by every Principle of Duty and Gratitude, sensible that our present Safety and future Tranquillity depend upon our Courage and Firmness, trusting in that Divine Protection which has always hitherto been extended to us, we pledge ourselves to unite with our Fellow-Subjects in support of your Majesty's Throne, in Defence of the Lives and Property of your Majesty's People, the Government, Constitution, Honour, and Independence of the British Empire; and, rather than witness the Infringe and Downfall of our Country, to perish with our Religion, our Liberties, and our Laws.

Signed at a public Meeting under our Common Seal, this Third Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three. By order of the Council.

John Cyster Williams, Town Clerk.

[Presented by the Honourable Peter Hall Esq. Member for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and others the Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Denbigh, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne humbly to offer our Sentiments of veneration and Gratitude at this momentous Crisis.

We are truly sensible of your Majesty's constant Attention to the Peace and true Interests of your Subjects; and gratefully acknowledge ourselves happy in your Example and Protection, we cannot, therefore, be too ardent in pressing our Readiness to come forward with all that is dear to us in Defence of so gracious a Sovereign and his Dominions, feeling, at the same Time, that our Lives and Fortunes are at Stake from the Designs of the most insidious and unprincipled Enemy that ever a civilized Country had to deal with. We lay our Cause before God, who, we doubt not, will support your Majesty, and save your People from the utter Destruction with which they are threatened.

[Presented by ——— Sargent, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Portreeve and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Aghburton, animated by an ardent Desire to assist in frustrating the Designs of a daring Enemy, humbly presume to approach your Majesty's Throne with a zealous Offer of our most vigorous Exertions in Defence of your Majesty, our Constitution, and our Country.

With the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects, we have heard with Indignation the proud Threats of an insolent Foe, who has dared to reproach us with Cowardice; but if he invade your Majesty's Dominions, he will feel that the Swords of our Ancestors have not lost their Edge, and that the Strongest Fortification to oppose his Designs is, a living Rampart of Britons contending for Freedom and Independence.

Your Majesty must see with Satisfaction the Unanimity of Englishmen in Defence of their Country, and from that Unanimity anticipate a happy Result.

May your Majesty and your illustrious House long continue the Guardians and Protectors of our Rights and Liberties, while they give Happiness to the Subject, reflect a Lustre on the Crown.

[Presented by Sir Hugh Inglis, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Whitechurch, in the County of Salop, beg Leave at the present momentous Period and humbly to approach your Majesty with the Assurance of our firm and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, Royal House, and our inviolable Constitution.

We cannot avoid returning your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for the anxious Solitude so lately manifested in your Endeavours to procure for and secure to your Majesty's faithful Subjects the Blessings of Peace, but which the Ambition of our detested and implacable Foe has rendered entirely abortive, and in whose Conduct alone we see just Cause for the present War.

As Britons, and the Subjects of a much beloved Sovereign, we shall, under the Blessing of Providence, ever consider it our bounden Duty to guard the sacred Person of your Majesty and your illustrious Family, and to defend our most excellent Constitution, which has ever been, and, under the benign Influence of your Majesty's Reign, still is the Delight and Veneration of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and the Envy and Admiration of all the World.

SIR,

HEREWITH enclose a Letter I have this Day received from Captain Mundy, of His Majesty's Ship Hydra, giving an Account of the Capture of the French Armed Luggers Le Favori, by the Boats of the Ship under his Command, highly creditable to the Steadiness and Bravery of Lieutenant Tracey, and the Officers and Men employed on that Service, and which I request you will please to lay before my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I am, &c.

JAMES SAUMAREZ.

Hydra, off Havre de Grace, August 1, 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor of informing you, I this Day succeeded in preventing the Entrance of a French Luggers into Havre, but being hauled close to the Beach, about Two Miles to the Westward of Tongues, I found it necessary to fend the Boats, under the Command of Mr. Tracey, the Second Lieutenant, with Messrs. Barclay and French, Midshipmen, to endeavour to bring her off; on the near Approach of our Boats, the Crew precipitately quitted her, and ranged themselves (in Concert with a Party of Military) behind the Sand Bank a-break of their Vessel, not Half Musket Shot from her, and kept up a heavy and constant Fire upon our People, which the Marines returned with great Steadiness and Soldierlike Conduct, and every Officer and Man doing his Duty, they succeeded in beating off their Prize.

The Luggers is called Le Favori, pierced for Four Guns, but none mounted, supposed to have been thrown overboard, and appears to be a Government Transport, commanded by a Lieutenant de Vaisseau. I have to regret the Loss of Matthew Morfitt (Seaman,) who was killed in the Barge.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

G. MUNDY.

Copy of another Letter from Sir James Saumarez, K. B. Rear-Admiral of the Blue, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Diomedes, at Guernsey, August 17, 1803.

SIR,

I BEG you will please to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the Boats of His Majesty's Ship Cerberus made an Attack on the Enemy's Vessels in Concarre-Bay, under the Orders of Lieutenant Mansel, of that Ship, but the Coast being alarmed, they succeeded in only carrying off One large Fishing Vessel, leaving a Sloop which they had boarded, but which, unfortunately touched the Ground. The same Officer succeeded better with Two Boats of the Cerberus, in cutting out Seven Fishing Vessels, from Sixteen to Eighteen Tons each, out of St. Cas Bay, which arrived here Yesterday, except one of the Boats, which unfortunately overlet, with the Loss of Two Men belonging to the Cerberus.

I am, &c.

THE following Address having been presented to the KING, which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Magistrates and Gentlemen of the County of Banff, beg Leave, at this momentous Crisis, humbly to approach the Throne, with renewed Assurances of our continued Attachment and Loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

We view with Indignation that Spirit of Enmity against all States, and particularly the rancorous and malignant Hostility against the British Empire, which have so long marked the Councils and Proceedings of the French Government, and of the hated and tyrannic Usurper at its Head. And while we deplore the degraded and miserable Situation of those Nations subjugated and enslaved by the Arms of France, and deluded by her still more detested Principles and Doctrines, we pray Almighty God to avert such Calamities from this happy Land.

We consider the War in which this Country is now engaged as just, necessary, and unavoidable, and we solemnly pledge ourselves to support it with our Lives and Fortunes, and we feel infinite Satisfaction in assuring your Majesty that the same loyal Principles, the same firm Determination of resisting the common Foe, and of defending and maintaining our glorious Constitution pervades all Ranks and Descriptions of the People in this County.

That your Majesty's Arms may be crowned with Success, and finally triumph over all our Enemies, and that you may long continue to reign over this free, happy, and prosperous Nation, is the most ardent Wish and Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful Subjects.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment in a General Meeting of Lieutenantcy, &c. of the said County, held at Banff, this Ninth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

Fife

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary of State.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Mayo, of all Religious Persuasions, at a Meeting held at Castlebar, the Eighth of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty with every Assurance of Regard and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

While we contemplated with infinite Pleasure your Majesty's earnest Desire to preserve the Blessings of Peace to the British Empire, so long as it was consistent with the Dignity of your Crown, and the Security of your Dominions, we could not avoid lamenting and feeling with every Sentiment of just Indignation the restless and inordinate Ambition of France, which has again unavoidably involved us in War, and dares even to threaten the Invasion of Great Britain and Ireland, however we feel every Confidence, that, by the Wisdom with which the public Force will be directed, the Attacks of our Enemies will not only be repelled but finally turned to our Glory and their Confusion, with real and sincere Regret have we found that there exist in Ireland Men sufficiently bold to forward the Views of a foreign Power, by disturbing our internal Tranquillity, yet, considering the ardent Loyalty of a very considerable Majority of your Majesty's Subjects in this Part of the Empire, we look up in such Acts as the expiring feeble Efforts of despairing Traitors.

With the deepest Sense of Humility we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that no Exertion of ours shall be wanting to counteract the wicked and rebellious Designs of such Traitors, to point out the gross Error of those who have been deceived by chimerical Notions of Liberty, and by the most vigorous, prompt, and energetic Measures to maintain inviolate our happy Constitution, the Boat of Europe, and the Admiration of the World.

Michael Cormick, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary of State.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Grand Jury for the County of Wicklow, assembled at Summer Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury of the County of Wicklow, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Assurances of our devoted and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, and of our determined Resolution to support, by all Means in our Power, the Succession to the Crown of this Realm in your Majesty's illustrious House.

We deem these Assurances indispensably necessary at this Moment when Rebellion has again burst forth into Acts of savage and ferocious Atrocity, and the Metropolis of this Island has been dishonored and disgraced by the wanton and unprovoked Murder of the Chief Justice of Ireland, a Magistrate whose unsullied Integrity, whose mild demeanour, and lenient Administration of the Duties of his high Office, ought to have disarmed Treason itself; and whose heroic Fortitude, and unexhausted Mercy, extended to his Murderers, even in the Hour of his own Dissolution, the Benefit of those Laws, whose Protection their Cruelty had denied to him.

Be assured, most gracious Sovereign, that we view these Crimes with the deepest Abhorrence, and that no Efforts shall be wanting on our Parts to detect, punish, and repress them: Be assured also that we view without Dismay the vaunted Preparations of our foreign Enemies; that we fully understand and justly appreciate the Character of France; and that we shall endeavour to explain it to our disgraced and deluded Countrymen; that we shall point out to them the Folly as well as Wickedness of their Conduct; and show them how vain must pose the Expectation of establishing the Liberty and Honours of Ireland upon a Republican Form of Government, by the Aid and under the Protection of a Power which has already overthrown and subverted Venice, the most ancient; Holland, the most opulent; and Switzerland, the most free, happy, and unoffending Republic upon Earth.

We revere, Sir, the Principles of our free and happy Constitution, which encourages Industry, protects Property, and secures personal Liberty; and, fully sensible of the Advantages it affords, and the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government, we shall endeavour to deserve the one and secure the other by zealously contributing to restore and preserve the Peace of our Country by a prompt Obedience to, and a strict Enforcement of, the Laws, and by devoting, if necessary, our Lives and Fortunes to their Support.

William Hoare Hann, Foreman.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Perke.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Governor and Deputy Governors of the County of Wicklow, beg Leave, thus humbly to approach your Throne with the most cordial Assurances of inviolable Fidelity and Attachment to your sacred Person, Family, and Government, and our firm and decided Determination to step forth on all Occasions with Alacrity and Zeal in support of that Constitution and those Laws so wisely framed, and so mildly administered under the Directions and Influence of the best and most benignant of Sovereigns, and so eminently calculated to promote and preserve those Blessings and Comforts which we, in common with all your Majesty's People, feel and enjoy. Among those People however, Sir, notwithstanding those Blessings, we lament to find a few misguided Wretches, whose Atrocities in the late Insurrection in the Metropolis stand foremost in the black Catalogue of criminal Depravity; but, beloved Sovereign, their impotent Malice can avail them nothing, your faithful Subjects throughout the Realm feel themselves sufficiently strong to keep them down. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we shall continue unequivocally united to oppose, resist, and subdue, as well your domestic as all your foreign Foes, should any dare to set Foot on our Land.

Adborneugh, Chairman.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Perke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Dunheved otherwise Launceston, in the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH infinite Pleasure we observe the Unanimity so prevalent through your Majesty's Dominions in Resolutions to unite in their Endeavours to defeat the Attempts of an audacious Adventurer against your sacred Person, and (what we are persuaded is an equal Object of your Regard) against all your loyal Subjects. With the same Earnestness and Sincerity we join the general Voice; and though it is not in our Power to give your Majesty those more substantial Proofs of our Zeal in this important Cause, which your Majesty's more opulent Citizens have done, yet to this we pledge ourselves, that, as far as our Abilities extend, we will not be behind them in every Exertion that may be necessary to support our much envied and most excellent Constitution against all Invaders of it of whatever Description.

And our most ardent Prayer is, that the Almighty, without whose Aid vain is the Help of Man, will disappoint their infernal Machinations, and make them recoil upon themselves.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The loyal Address of the Bailiff, and Burgesses, and others, Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of North Allerton, and its Neighbourhood.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, beg

Leave to approach your Throne to assure you of our most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to offer to you, in this momentous Crisis of public Danger, the united and strenuous Effort of every Hand and Heart among us to repel, in Conjunction with the Rest of our Countrymen, the insolent Menaces and daring Attempts of an insidious and implacable Foe, to carry War and Desolation into the very Bowels of this Kingdom, and to rob us of all we hold dear as loyal Subjects and free Citizens.

Your Majesty's paternal Care, and the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, sanctioned by the constitutional Power of the Legislature, have put into the Hands of us, and all your faithful People, Arms for the Support of your Throne, and for the Preservation of our Laws and Liberties, and we pledge ourselves to use them with Fidelity and Zeal.

The Bosom of your Subjects shall form Rampart within Rampart around your Majesty's Person and Throne, to protect a Life so valued, and a Government so revered.

We spurn back with Indignation the Calumnies of an unprincipled Foe; and may God, who governs according to the unerring Laws of Justice and Equity, judge and decide between your Majesty and your Enemies, and give you Victory in the Day of Battle! so pray, in Confidence, your affectionate People.

North Allerton, the 2d of August 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Vianders of the Borough of Newport, and the Inhabitants of the Parish of Saint Stephens by Launceston, in the County of Cornwall, impressed with a due Sense of the Comforts we enjoy under the Government and Protection of a good King and a mild and free Constitution, beg Leave to declare our Abhorrence at finding that any of our Fellow-Subjects could ever (especially at this important Crisis) wickedly attempt to interrupt the Repose of any Part of your Majesty's United Kingdom, and to express a just Indignation against our foreign Foes who have threatened to invade this happy Isle, and destroy its Independence, and rob us of the Fruits of our honest Industry as a Commercial and an Agricultural People.

Relying on the Providence of God, and the Measures which have prudently been taken by your Majesty to guard against all hostile Attacks, we trust that the Attempt, if made, would be defeated, and your Majesty receive an additional Proof of the Strength of your Dominions, and the Valour and Attachment of your faithful Subjects.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Free Burgesses and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Maldon, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Expressions of Attachment, and to assure you at this important Moment, when the Kingdom is professedly threatened to be invaded by a faithless and inveterate Enemy, whose Progress in other Countries has been marked by Bloodshed, Devastation, and Despotism, that we are determined to stand forth as with one Heart and one Hand, to aid your Majesty to preserve those Blessings which we possess under your Constitutional Government, and which we are equally anxious, as your Majesty is, should be preserved entire to our latest Posterity.

Maldon, August 8, 1803.

[Presented by Colonel Strutt, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Magistrates, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, Clergy, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person on an Occasion the most important, and at a Crisis the most interesting, with every Sentiment of Duty, Loyalty, and Affection.

Engaged with a powerful and insidious Foe, who knows no Bounds to his Dominion, who tyrannizes over the Continent of Europe, and awaits the Sacrifice of this happy Island as the ultimate Project of his ruthless Ambition. We behold with extreme Satisfaction the wise and prudent Measures adopted by your Majesty's Government, of strengthening the Naval and Military Force, establishing Classes of the People, and calling forth the Energy of the Many to support the Happiness and Independence of the Whole.

Under such Regulations we cannot doubt but the associated Spirit of the Country, should the daring Invader attempt to effectuate what he has had the Boldness to assert, will teach him and the Confederates of his Ruin, that whatever Success may have hitherto attended his foraging Hand, it is reserved for Britain to chastise the Intolerance of France, and we have only to look back to those Monuments of our ancient Glory, the inviolable Defences of an invading Foe to establish this important Faith.

We are at the same Time, Sire, conscious that to deserve Success is to insure it, and that we are called upon to discharge the Duties of the most active Preparation with unabated Zeal, Fidelity, and Attention.

Impressed with these Sentiments, your Majesty may be assured that your faithful People of Yarmouth, ever distinguished for their Loyalty to their King, and Love for our excellent Constitution, will, with one Hand and Heart unite in every Measure to preserve inviolate the Security of the Country, the Safety and Happiness of your Majesty (whom God long preserve,) and your People.

Given under our Hands, this Twenty-eighth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that a Luger was seen within the Rocks at Ushant, which had the Appearance of an Armed Vessel. Boats from the Ville de Paris, under the Direction of Lieutenant Watt, went on the 16th at Night, and brought her out.

She is called the Messenger, pierced for Eight Guns, has Six mounted, with the Owner and Forty Men on board, completely fitted for a Two Months' Cruise.

Lieutenant Watt boarded her with Eighteen Men in a Pinnace before the other Boats, which had separated to look out for her, could get up. Only a few Frenchmen were wounded upon making a feeble Resistance.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

SIR, Endymion at Sea, August 14, 1803.

I HAVE the Satisfaction to inform you that Lie General Magoon, a very fine French Schooner Privateer, of Sixty Tons, and Eighty-five Men, was this Evening captured by His Majesty's Ship under my Command. Lie General Magoon is a perfect, new Vessel, had been out only Six Days from Bonaire, and had made no Captures.

THE following Addressees having been presented to the King; which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery, feel ourselves not less called upon by Duty than by Attachment to express to your Majesty the Abhorrence and Indignation with which we view the Designs avowed against this Country by our ambitious and insatiable Enemy.

Of the Dangers of the present Moment we are fully aware; but we are likewise aware of the Means of Resistance which the Blessing of Divine Providence has placed within our Power: We confide in the Wisdom and Magnanimity of your Majesty that these will be to the utmost employed; and that we shall not desert from this great Contest until it is brought to a successful and glorious Issue.

Permit us further to assure your Majesty, that there is no Sacrifice which we will not submit to, no Burthen which we will not bear, no Danger which we will not encounter with Cheerfulness, in Defence of the Religion, Laws, and Liberties of this Kingdom, and of your Majesty's Person and Government.

By Desire of a Meeting of the County of Montgomery, Da. Mytton, Chairman.

York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Heritors, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Selkirk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of Peace, Heritors, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Selkirk, humbly request that your Majesty will, at this important Crisis, be pleased to accept of the unanimous Expression of our Loyalty and Zeal for your Service.

As we ascribe, under God, the Blessings and Security which we enjoy to your Majesty's paternal Government, so, with God's Assistance, we are ready to devote our Lives and our Fortunes to its Support. We make this Pledge with the greater Confidence, because we know that we express not only our own Feelings but those of a respectable and high-spirited Yeomanry, of a hardy and virtuous Peasantry, and, as we hope and believe, of every Individual within the County of Selkirk, who is capable of distinguishing betwixt Good and Evil.

Should the inveterate and determined Foe of the British Name attempt to carry into Execution the Threats of Invasion, which his Presumption has dictated, we trust the Inhabitants of this County have neither so far degenerated from the Valour of their Ancestors as to hesitate in choosing betwixt Death and Thralldom, nor so far forgotten their Father's Religion, as to doubt that the Blessing of God will be with the righteous Cause of our King and our native Land.

Signed in Presence of the Meeting, at Selkirk, this Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three. Aspicer, Preses.

York.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with the renewed Assurance of our unfeigned Regard and Fidelity to your Person, and firm Attachment to the Laws and Religion of that happy and established Constitution, by which true Liberty, personal Property, and every Blessing consistent with the Order and Well-being of civil Society, is so amply secured to us. We pledge ourselves to every Exertion, and even the Sacrifice of our Lives and Fortunes, for defeating the avowed Intentions of an implacable Enemy, who, actuated by Envy and boundless Ambition, now threatens not only the Invasion of our Coast, but to subvert our Constitution, and fix the Gallic Yoke on Britain's Neck.

Long may your Majesty, confident in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects, defy the Advance of such a Foe; and for Ages to come may England's Sons transmit to their Posterity what they have inherited from their Predecessors, the Freedom and Happiness of a British Constitution.

Brooke and Warwick, Chairman.

Warwick, August 19, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts, sensible that we should be unworthy the Happiness which, as British Subjects, we enjoy did we not feel anxious on every proper Occasion to lay at the Foot of the Throne the most ample Assurances of our sincere and respectful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Your Majesty, therefore, will not be surprized that this Disposition should operate with more than usual Force on our Minds at a Period when we see surrounding Nations languishing under the despotic Tyranny of an ambitious and unprincipled Usurper, who, not content with having plundered and enslaved great Part of Europe, is eager to satiate his Vengeance with the Blood and Treasure of this free and fortunate Country.

We cannot but observe with singular Satisfaction your Majesty's Subjects in every Part of this United Kingdom attached to your Majesty by every Motive, that can actuate a prosperous, enlightened, and loyal Nation, preparing, by the most vigorous Exertions, to give to this desperate and profligate Invader such a Reception as we are confident will, with the Assistance of Divine Providence, successfully repel his threatened Attacks, overwhelm him with Destruction, render him an Object of Ridicule and Contempt; and should any of the Enemy's Force escape the vigilant Attention of your Majesty's Fleet, give him an additional Proof that British Valour is as invincible by Land as it is on the Sea.

Animated by these Sentiments, in common with the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects, we are ready to make every Sacrifice of Life and Fortune we may be called on to do in so glorious a Cause. The best Reward we can wish for in Return is a long Continuance of the unbounded Blessings we possess under your Majesty's mild and beneficent Reign.

Signed in pursuance of a Resolution made at a Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts, held in pursuance of public Advertisement from the High-Sheriff, in the Council-Chamber at New Sarum, on Wednesday the Twenty-seventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thomas Henry Hely Philipps, Sheriff of the said County of Wilts.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Malmesbury, and presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Heitors and Justices of the Peace of the County of Roxburgh, in a General Meeting held at Jedburgh, on Monday the Fifteenth of August

One thousand eight hundred and three, in consequence of an Advertisement in the Newspapers from the Sheriff Depute, humbly approach your Majesty with those Sentiments of inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and of ardent Zeal for the Honour and Security of our Country, which never fail, in Moments like the present, to inspire the Breasts of a free and loyal People, and we entreat your Majesty to accept our heartfelt Acknowledgments for all the Blessings, which your paternal Reign has uniformly dispensed to us and to ours.

We have seen with equal Concern and Indignation the unjust Attack, which, in Hatred of us, our inveterate Enemy has made on your Majesty's Continental Dominions, and we are deeply affected by that generous Devotion to the Interests of your People, with which we now behold your Majesty and some august Members of your Family, stand foremost in making the first great and signal Sacrifices to the public Good.

This exalted and endearing Example, while it yields new Motives of loyal and grateful Affection for our beloved Monarch and his illustrious House, will, we are assured, be reflected in the Energy and Constancy of your faithful Subjects, when they are called upon in their Turn, to act or to suffer in the same Cause.

We revere and cherish as our best and dearest Patrimony, that venerable and happy Constitution which has so long distinguished us amongst the Nations of the World, and which our Ancestors have deposited in our Hands as a sacred Trust for our Posterity.

Our Hearts are firmly devoted to the Land in which our Fathers and ourselves were born, and we now solemnly pledge ourselves to your Majesty and to each other, that we will maintain, with our latest Breath, and the last Drops of our Blood, its Independence, its Laws, its Religion, and Renown.

Animated with these Sentiments, we deem it our first Duty to assure your Majesty, that we wait only the Approach of an Enemy to rally round your sacred Person, and to flock to your Royal Standard, securely relying on the Divine Protection of so just a Cause, and resolutely determined to stand or fall by our Sovereign, and to conquer or to die in the Defence of our native Land.

Ancram, Prefes.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, sensible of the transcendent Blessings which we derive from the British Constitution, administered with that paternal Care and anxious Solitude for the public Welfare which so eminently characterize your Majesty's Reign, desire to convey to the Foot of the Throne the Assurance of our unshaken Fidelity and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Awakened to a more lively Sense of these Obligations, by the Contrast of our own Situation with that of the Nations which have been surprised or betrayed under the degrading Yoke of French Despotism, we approach your Majesty with the Assurance of our firm Determination to support your Majesty with our Fortunes and with our Lives in humbling the Pride, and repelling the Insults of an Enemy, rendered implicable by finding in the Spirit of this Country an insurmountable Barrier to the Schemes of his wild and insatiable Ambition.

Your Majesty has called upon us to arm; we obey the Call with Alacrity; and we trust that your Majesty will find in every Subject throughout this County a Soldier ready to defend to his last Breath the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, which we hold to be inseparable from our National Independence, and our individual Happiness.

May your Majesty long continue to reign over a free, loyal, and united People.

Signed on Behalf of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon.

York.]

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects of the County of Worcester, beg Leave to approach your Throne in order to renew the Assurances of the Attachment we have ever entertained towards your Majesty's Person and Government. This we feel ourselves in a more particular Manner called upon to do at this awful Moment, when our inveterate Enemies, disengaged from every other Contest, are directing their concentrated Powers towards the utter Subjugation of this Country, the only remaining Barrier to their Ambition.

We feel that, under such Circumstances, all Submission or Compromise would be as dangerous as disgraceful; and that we must either resolve to become the Victims of their Designs, or by bold, well-concerted, and persevering Efforts, maintain our Dignity and Independence.

We feel too that these Efforts cannot be carried on without great Sacrifices made by every Class of Men in this Kingdom; and that in order to secure the great Object of its complete Defence weighty Expenses must be incurred, and formidable Difficulties must be encountered, it therefore becomes our Duty, in common with all our Fellow-Subjects, to come forward and declare to your Majesty, that no Consideration of personal Labour, of Loss in our Property, or of Peril to our Lives, will prevent us from cordially and vigorously, by every Means in our Power, supporting your Majesty in this momentous Struggle, on the Event of which we are fully sensible depend the Maintenance of your Throne, and the Continuation of those Blessings, which, through the Bounty of Providence, we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty, and your august Predecessors.

We have seen with the utmost Satisfaction that your Majesty has resorted to the Measure justified alike by the Example of past, and the Exigency of present, Times, of making a Call at once for the personal Aid of all your Subjects. To render this Call as effectual as possible, we shall direct our assiduous and earnest Endeavours; and we entertain not the feeblest Doubt, that, in a very short Time, a Force will be by this Means placed at your Majesty's Disposal sufficient to bid Defiance to the Attempts, and to chastise the Insolence, of your Enemies.

Signed by virtue of a Resolution at and on the Behalf of the County Meeting called for and dressing His Majesty on the present morning in this Situation of this Kingdom, John Phillips, Sheriff of Worcestershire.

[Presented by the Honorable John William Ward, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the County of Carlow, beg Leave to express our Detestation of the late wicked and desperate Attempt of a Band of Rebels in the very Metropolis of this Kingdom, and to renew to your Majesty the Declaration of our unalterable Zeal and Attachment, and our firm Determination to support your Majesty, and the Constitution of this Country, against the Designs of foreign Foes and domestic Traitors. We trust that the Spirit of Loyalty, which, upon the late Occasion, has been displayed in every Part of this Kingdom, and more particularly by our gallant and loyal Yeomanry, (and the Spirit and Vigilance which must be roused by the full Conviction, afforded by the Perseverance of a daring Band of Conspirators, whom the mild and impartial Government of His Excellency Earl Hardwicke could not conciliate or soften,) will appal the disaffected, and convince our foreign Foe, that should he attempt to invade us he would only meet with Disappointment and Defeat.

Ja. Herring, Sheriff, County Carlow.

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, Heritors, and Clergy of the County of Elgin, in a General Meeting assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne upon the present important Crisis, with the zealous Expression of our sincere Attachment to you Majesty's Person and Government, and heartfelt Gratitude for the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Administration; and with the solemn Assurance of our Resolution to support and maintain, with our Lives and Fortunes, the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Liberty and Independence of our Country.

Engaged in a just, a necessary, and unavoidable War against a cruel and implacable Enemy, for the Preservation of every Thing dear to us as Men and Britons, we are determined to make the utmost Exertions, and with Cheerfulness to submit to every Sacrifice necessary for averting the threatened Danger from these happy Kingdoms. Depending upon the Firmness and Energy of a free, a loyal, and an united People, and humbly relying on the Favour and Protection of the Almighty Ruler of the Universe, founded upon a Consciousness of the Justice of our Cause.

Considering in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Measures, and the unconquerable Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, we trust that your Majesty will be able speedily to confound the Designs of the Disturber of the Peace of Europe and the relentless Scourge of the human Race, the present Tyrant of France. And we hope and pray that your Majesty may thus soon have the Glory of restoring the Blessings of Peace, and long continue to reign over a free, happy, and united People.

Moray, Lieutenant.

Torke.]

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of South Molton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of South Molton, beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we are duly sensible of your Claim to our grateful Acknowledgments for your Solicitude for the Welfare of this Nation, so signally manifested during your late Negotiations with the Government of France. Hostilities having become unavoidable through the faithless and crooked Policy of the Enemy, it is our firm Resolution, as it is our Duty and our Interest, to unite with our Fellow-Subjects in using our best Endeavours to effectuate your Majesty's wise and gracious Purposes for the Security and Welfare of our Country. By the Blessing of Providence on the Wisdom and Energy of your Councils, and on the wonted Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, we trust that this War will be brought to a prosperous Issue, and terminate in a safe, honorable, and lasting Peace.

Guildhall, South Molton,

August 9, 1803.

[Presented by the Lord Mayor of the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Common-Councillors, and Freemen of the ancient Borough and Corporation of Appleby, in the County of Westmorland, at their Town-Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty on this awful and perilous Crisis, and to testify to your Majesty that we are one and all fully determined to support your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes in this arduous Conflict in which your Majesty is unprovokedly involved.

We sincerely lament that the Peace of your Majesty's Dominions should be broken by the vile Machinations, the restless and ambitious Spirit, of one of the most treacherous and blackest Tyrants that ever existed; and cannot but, with heartfelt Indignation, reflect on the Author of it, who seems to be the common Disturber of the Universe.

It is a lamentable Circumstance, and we are sincerely sorry for it, that Disturbances should again break out in a certain Part of your Majesty's Dominions; but we unfeignedly pray that a speedy Stop may be put to them, and that the Instigators thereof may be caught in the Snares they have laid for others, and brought to condign Punishment, as we are duly sensible that Unanimity, aided by the patriotic Zeal of your Majesty's Subjects, is all that is wanting to frustrate the Schemes of a haughty and vindictive Enemy.

We therefore, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to conclude, by assuring your Majesty, that we will at all Times, when called upon, readily stand forth in Support of your Majesty's eminently just and mild Government, and of our glorious, envied, and unparalleled Constitution, most cordially and humbly offering your Majesty our sincere Thanks for your Majesty's great parental Care over us, and all your Majesty's Subjects praying to the Almighty to spare your Majesty long to reign over us, and that the Remainder of your Majesty's Reign may be crowned with Peace and Happiness to yourself, and your Majesty's most illustrious Family.

Given under the Common-Seal of this Corporation, the Fifth Day of August, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

G. Klinez, Mayor.

Torke.]

To our Most Gracious SOVEREIGN.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chepping Wycombe, filled with Indignation at the insolent Menaces of the French Usurper against this Kingdom, and awfully affected with the present momentous State of Things, deem it our bounden Duty to approach your Majesty with the full Assurance of our unanimous Resolution to stand or fall with our King and Country.

Convinced of the Justice of our Cause, we cannot observe with Indifference the Honor of the British Name insulted, the most valuable Blessings of civil and religious Liberty undermined, and all Security for Life or Property threatened with total Annihilation, by an unprincipled and profligate Invader.

To prevent these impending Calamities, and to preserve the dearest Rights of Englishmen, we are happy to see a bold and enlightened Nation united in one Sentiment of patriotic Love. And we should think ourselves unworthy of the glorious Constitution under which we live, unworthy of the Name of Britons, were we not animated with the same Warmth of Affection towards the best of Kings, and inviolable Attachment to our happy Country, did we not likewise consider the public Safety as the chief Concern of every Individual, and resolve to make every Exertion with Earnestness, and to bear every Sacrifice with Cheerfulness, which our much-beloved Sovereign may find it necessary to impose upon us, or which this awful Crisis may demand. Trusting, therefore, in the Blessing of Almighty God upon our Arms, we here resolve, with a firm Union of Hands and Hearts, zealously to espouse our Country's Cause, to put forth our best Services in its Defence, and rather to perish together than to lose the Inheritance of Greatness, Honor, and Liberty which descended to us from our Forefathers, is held sacred to the present Moment in every British Heart, and which we are determined to transmit unshaken to Posterity.

John Chasles, Town-Clerk.

[Presented by Sir John D'Aylwood King, Bart. and Sir Francis Baring, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the High Steward, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Montgomery, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this important Crisis with Sentiments of unshaken Loyalty and Attachment, at a Moment when the Existence of the British Empire, its matchless Constitution, and its amiable Sovereign are all menaced by a van-glorious and unprincipled Usurper; we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we are already united and diligently preparing to combat for Objects dear to Britons; sensible that we shall fight for a Constitution which is the noblest Monument of civilized Society; for a Monarch endeared to us by his Virtues, and uniform Regard for the Welfare of his People, and for the only Country in which genuine practical Liberty is to be found; confiding too in the indisputable Justice of our Cause, in the Temperance and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils, and in the invincible Valour of our Countrymen, we humbly trust that, under Almighty God, we shall inflict the most signal Chastisement on that boasting Tyrant, should he dare to contaminate our happy Shores, and convince him once more, that the ancient British Fire still glows in our Breasts with unabated Ardour.

Given under our Common Seal, this Eighteenth Day of August, and in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and other Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, assembled on Saturday the Twentieth Day of August, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three, at the Guildhall there.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor and other Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, beg Leave to express our cordial and unanimous Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our Determination to resist, to the utmost of our Power, every Attempt to subvert the Independence, to abridge the Liberties, or to tarnish the Honor of this Country. In thus avowing our unshaken Principles we are persuaded that we do but join in the general Voice of the Inhabitants of this favoured Land. We are aware that it must be the Wish of every one who is duly sensible of the Blessings afforded by the British Constitution, and who recollects the Price at which they have been obtained at by our forefathers, to rally at the present Crisis around your Majesty's Throne; a Throne originally founded on the Rights of the People, supported by Clemency and Justice, adorned by truly Royal Virtues, and hitherto guarded (may it be for ever guarded) by the Hand of Divine Providence. We feel assured that a long and uninterrupted Enjoyment of our civil and religious Liberties has not led any of us to set a lower Value upon them than those of our Forefathers did, who longed for them for us with their own Lives; nor can we be insensible to whatever may endanger, or even threaten, those inestimable Privileges; but, confiding in the Justice of our Country's Cause, in the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils, in the Courage, Loyalty, and Patriotism of Friends engaged in the Defence of all that is most dear to them, and, above all, in the God of our Fathers, who has raised us to the Rank we hold among the Nations of the Earth, we hear without Dismay the Threats and Boastings of an insolent and ambitious Enemy. It is to the Hands of Britons only, already free and happy, that Arms may be indiscriminately and safely confided. And we trust that, should an Opportunity be presented for the Use of them, they will be so employed as to cause any Enemy whatever to repent of his having set an hostile Foot upon the British Shore, and compel him to accept of such a Peace as may secure the Tranquillity of Europe, the Independence, Glory, and Prosperity of this United Kingdom.

By the Desire, and on the Behalf of the Meeting, Lionel Self, jun. Mayor.

[Transmitted by Sir Martin Browne Folkes, Bart. and the Honorable Horatio Walpole, and presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, feel ourselves bound, as much by Inclination as by Duty, to unite our own with the general Voice of the Country, and to assure your Majesty that we are deeply Partakers of the one common Sentiment that at this Time animates every British Heart, an ardent Attachment to your Royal Person, and to the happy Constitution under which we live.

We love our gracious Sovereign because we have been happy under his Government; the Majority of us have been brought up from our earliest Years under the Auspices of his mild and prosperous Reign, and it is with the most heartfelt Satisfaction that we hail our beloved King as by Office, by paternal Affection, and by Length of Years, the Father of his People.

We are attached to our Constitution because we have experienced all the private and public Blessings which a well-ordered Government is able to cherish or bestow, and our Attachment to it is unalterably confirmed by the Opportunity that we have of contrasting its mild Restraints with the galling Chain of Military Despotism.

With these Sentiments firmly rooted in our Bosoms, the Menaces of an insulting Foe serve only to enhance, in our Estimation, the Value of our long enjoyed Privileges, and to nerve our Arms with a double Vigour in their Defence.

We are prepared to make any required Sacrifice for the Preservation of all that we hold most dear; we are desirous to forward by our most hearty Co-operation, the extensive, and we trust, effective Measures of Defence adopted by the Legislature; and we pledge ourselves to concentrate every Energy that we possess for the Protection of your Majesty and your Royal House, for the Safeguard of our Religion, our Laws, and Liberties, firmly confident, that by the Blessing of Providence upon your Majesty's Arms, we shall now, as heretofore, rise superior to our most powerful Enemies.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Goldhall, the Twentieth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Transmitted by Sir Martin Brown Folkes, Bart. and the Honorable Horatio Walpole, and presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Forke.]

WE, the Bishop, Dean, and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham, attached to your Majesty by every Tie which can influence our Hearts from Forty-three Years Experience of your Majesty's paternal Concern for the Welfare of your People, of your Love to that Constitution which has been entrusted to your Care, and of your public and private Virtues, presume to approach your Throne at a Crisis unparalleled in the Annals of our Country. Though Ministers of the Gospel of Peace, and anxious, where it is possible, to avert the Evils of War, yet we feel ourselves called upon, at a Moment like the present, to contribute our Endeavours towards the common Resistance of an Enemy whose Attempts are directed not only against our Constitution, our Liberties, and all that is dear to us as Englishmen, but against Religion itself. Impressed with the warmest Sense of this most important Duty, we offer to your Majesty those Services which we can perform, together with our Fortunes, to be disposed of in any Way that your Majesty may think most conducive to the Good of our Country.

Wherever the Contest may be, whether on the Ocean or the Shores of this Island, our earnest Prayers will be, that the Lord of Hosts may go forth with your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, protect them in the Hour of Battle, and crown them with Victory.

[Transmitted by the Lord Bishop of Durham, and presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Forke.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Bishop, Dean, and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich, approach your Majesty with Sentiments of profound Respect and unalterable Loyalty.

As Ministers of the Gospel, we are Ministers of Peace, it is our Duty to inculcate and to promote Peace; but surely, Sir, it is not less our Duty to oppose every possible Resistance to the avowed Purposes of that Man who is the common Enemy of Peace.

Under this Impression we are impatient to assure your Majesty of our Readiness to sacrifice all that we hold most dear, to the Defence of our Religion, to the Maintenance of our Laws, and the Protection of your Majesty's sacred Person.

Use us, Sir, as we can be made most useful, and in this awful Crisis, let not our ordinary Habitudes deprive us of that Share which belongs to us in the Support of every Thing that is sacred and of Value in social Life.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th of August 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in the Countries styling themselves the Ligurian and Italian Republics, Measures of Hostility have been adopted against His Majesty's Subjects; and whereas the said Countries cannot but be considered as absolutely dependent on, and under the Controul of, the Government of France; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the said Countries styling themselves the Ligurian and Italian Republics, so that as well His Majesty's Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned, by Letters of Marque, or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the Persons inhabiting the Countries styling themselves the Ligurian and Italian Republics, and bring the same to Judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions; and, to that End, His Majesty's Advocate-General, and the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Person or Persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprisals to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the Persons inhabiting the Countries styling themselves the Ligurian and Italian Republics; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, his Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the se veral Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions which shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance of, and judiciously proceed upon all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be made, and to hear and determine the same, and according to the Course of Admiralty, and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels, and Goods as shall belong to the Persons inhabiting the Countries styling themselves the Ligurian and Italian Republics; and that such Powers and Authorities be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Majesty at this Board a Draft of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the said several Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's foreign Governments and Plantations for their Guidance herein; as also another Draft of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes afore-mentioned.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's Loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, and Freeholders of the City of London, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, with those Sentiments of Attachment and Fidelity which we have at all Times felt, and in the present Crisis peculiarly feel, for the best of Sovereigns.

We have with us a Concern, only equalled by our Indignation, a recent Attempt to seize the Horrors of Rebellion. We lament the Infatuation of those incorrigible Traitors, whom neither an Experience of the Valour that subdued, nor of the Lenity that spared them, has hitherto taught the Folly and Atrocity of their Projects, who, insensible to the Blessings of your Majesty's paternal Rule, are ready to exchange the mild Restraints of our excellent and unrivalled Constitution, for the oppressive Weight of a Foreign Yoke; and who, to gratify the malignant Feelings of an unnatural Revenge, would overwhelm their Fellow-Citizens in the Ruins of their common Country.

Such Hopes, and such Attempts, must excite our Abhorrence, but shall never inspire us with dismay. We confide in the Justice of our Cause, in the Energies of Freemen, in the Activity of our Yeomanry, in the Bravery of your Majesty's Troops, which, under the Protection of that over ruling Providence which has so often and so signally interposed in our Behalf, will always powerfully co-operate with the Efforts of your Majesty's Government in Defence of every Thing we hold dear.

We intreat your Majesty to accept on this Occasion our unqualified Assurances of the most implicit Attachment and Devotion to your Royal Person, Family, and Government; we solemnly vow collectively and individually, to guard the constitutional Blessings we enjoy beneath that Government, with a Zeal and Vigilance proportioned to their inestimable Value, and to support and defend them against the open Assaults and secret Machinations both of Foreign and Domestic Foes.

Signed for, and on Behalf of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, and Freeholders of the City of Dublin.

Henry Jones and Geo. Welch, Sheriffs.

Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Dublin, feel it to be one of our dearest Privileges, as well as our most sacred Duties in the Hour of Danger, to approach your Majesty's Throne with the emphatic Assurance of our unshaken Attachment to your Royal Person, and of our most ardent and entire Devotion to the Constitution delivered to us by our Fathers, what they established with their Blood, with our Blood we will defend.

We have learned with the deepest Regret, the most disgraceful and sanguinary Acts of the 23d of last Month, a Day that will for ever remain a Disgrace in the Page of Irish History; but we pledge ourselves to your Majesty, never to rest satisfied at the Destruction of an insolent and unprincipled Invader, without exerting ourselves to defeat the Designs of all domestic Assassins.

We have heard with contempt, and without Dismay, the ferocious and unprincipled Threats of an insolent Enemy. We are now ready to meet him, and, with a firm Trust in God, and our own Exertions, we set all his implacable Malignity at Defiance, and we declare ourselves ready to conquer, or to perish with our Country.

Such, Sire, at this most eventful Moment, is our most deliberate and inflexible Resolve; we are made still more confident in your Majesty's Support from your most gracious Speech at the Close of your Parliament.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free and happy People, is the sincere Wish and Prayer of this great and Loyal County.

County of Dublin.*

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaster, humbly beg leave to address your Majesty at the present momentous Crisis. At this awful Period, when the vital Interests of our Country are at Stake, when the fair and flourishing Fabric of our happy and unrivalled Constitution is menaced with destruction, by an unprincipled and inveterate Foe, it is with just and becoming Pride, that we step forth to declare our unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. Truly sensible of the many and signal Blessings we and our Ancestors have enjoyed under the mild Sway of our just and equal Laws, and grateful for that unexampled Degree of Wealth and Prosperity which their benign Influence has procured for this great commercial County, we thus declare to you, our revered Sovereign, and to the World, our firm and unalterable Determination to stand or fall in their Defence. Permit us, Sire, to return our most unfeigned Thanks for that unceasing Solitude which your Majesty has been pleased to evince for the Welfare of your People, and to assure your Majesty, that we will cheerfully unite Hand and Heart for the Support of those Means, which, in your Royal Wisdom you may think fit to recommend for the Defence and Security of this happy Nation. That the Almighty Director of Events may long preserve your Majesty, the beloved Sovereign of a grateful and prosperous People, is the sincere Prayer of your Majesty's faithful County Palatine of Lancaster.

*J. Blackburne, Sheriff.
Preston, 19th August 1803*

[Transmitted by Colonel Stanley and J. Blackburne, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County, and presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the County of Down, impressed with Sentiments of the deepest Concern, but far from being dismayed by the present Aspect of National Danger, deem it our bounden Duty to approach the Throne in Testimony of our unshaken Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government. It is a Moment when the Voice of every faithful Subject should be heard aloud, not merely lamenting that Rebellion has shewn its hideous Face in this Land, but execrating, in the strongest Terms, the savage and cruel Acts of Murder perpetrated in the Metropolis of this Kingdom by an abandoned and desperate Set of Traitors; Men, who, forgetting what they owe to their God, to their King, and to their Country, renouncing every Principle commendable in human Nature, could become vile Instruments in the Hands of a wicked Usurper; who, not content with enslaving his own and surrounding Nations, is jealous of the Power, Glory, and Prosperity of the British Empire, thus wishing to excite internal Commotion, to facilitate the destructive Projects his Ambition meditates against the United Kingdoms. Gracious Sovereign, be assured, although some Individuals have been base indeed, your People are not degenerated, their Indignation is fully roused with the Audacity of the Design formed for the Conquest of the British Isles. We love our King, revere our Constitution, and know, too well, the Value of civil and rational Liberty to part with these Blessings but with our Lives: There is no Danger we will not face, there is no Effort we will not make, to protect our King, and defend our Country. In this Cause our Persons, and all we have, are at your Majesty's Command; whatever your Wisdom points out, it will be the Pride and Glory of your faithful Subjects, with Heart and Hand, to fulfil and execute.

Matthew Foulle, High-Sheriff of the County of Down.

Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Magistrates, and Freeholders, of the Queen's County, think it incumbent on us, at a Time like the present, when unnatural Rebellion, accompanied by barbarous Assassination, has again made its Appearance, to renew our Declarations of steady and unalterable Attachment to our free and excellent Constitution, and of affectionate Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ready to expend the last Shilling of our Property, and the last Drop of our Blood, in opposing, and, by the Blessing of God, defeating the Foes of your Majesty, and of all good Government whether they be Foreign or Domestic.

At the Desire of the Meeting, Castle Coote.

Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Grand Jury, Magistrates, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Longford, assembled at the Summer Assizes, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our sincere, firm, and unaltered Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and with unshaken Loyalty to declare our Sentiments on the alarming Situation of Public Affairs.

When Rebellion, instigated by an insidious and inveterate Enemy, has suddenly and unexpectedly burst forth, and commencing with barbarous and brutal Outrage, has dared to raise its Head in the very Seat of Government, we conceive it the bounden Duty of every good and faithful Subject, to express the Horror with which he looks back on the bloody Scenes, lately the Disgrace of our Capital.

Impressed with these Feelings, we assure your Majesty of our prompt and cheerful Co-operation to put down and suppress Rebellion, and to protect and guard our Country from Invasion; and we promise with our Persons and Property to support and strengthen your Majesty's Government.

With the highest Respect for your Majesty's Ministers in this Part of the United Kingdom, we trust the Ardour and Patriotism evinced by your Majesty's Loyal Subjects, will stimulate their Exertions for the Preservation and Security of this Part of the United Kingdom; and we earnestly Hope, from the Wisdom of their Councils, the Adoption of such decisive and vigorous Measures as will frustrate the Schemes, and confound the Devices of our foreign and domestic Enemies.

John Harward, High Sheriff.

Torke.]

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Grand Jury of the City of Coventry, and County of the same.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Jurors for the City of Coventry, and County of the same, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said City and County, beg Leave to approach your Majesty in the present Situation of public Affairs, to express our Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty, and our excellent Constitution, we pledge ourselves in the most sacred Manner to exert all our Influence and Ability to support the Person of your Majesty, and the Government under which we live, in every possible Way, against the malicious Designs of the Enemies of your Majesty and our Country.

We sincerely pray that your Majesty may long continue to sway the Sceptre of these Realms, and reign in the Hearts of a free and happy People.

Signed, at the unanimous Request of the Jurors, this Eleventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Samuel Borton, Chairman.

[Presented by Captain Stratton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, in Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to renew, at this important Crisis, those Sentiments of Zeal and Fidelity which we have uniformly possessed for the sacred Person of your Majesty, and for your Majesty's Crown and Government.

Convinced that the Enemy, against which your Majesty is now impelled to act, have in Contemplation the Subversion and Overthrow of the mild and equitable Government of your Majesty, and the inestimable Constitution under which we live, we humbly beg Leave to return your Majesty our grateful Thanks for the decisive and dignified Measures adopted by your Majesty, which are eminently calculated to convince our inveterate Foe that the Independence of this Country cannot be shaken.

Impressed with the full-st Conviction that the inestimable Blessings we, in common with your Majesty's other faithful Subjects, enjoy under the mild and paternal Rule of your Majesty, we most solemnly pledge ourselves to resist, by every Means in our Power, the Aggressions of the most inveterate and unprincipled Foe a civilized Country ever had to encounter, and in this we have no Doubt we shall be unanimously assisted by the Subjects of your Majesty's whole Empire.

That Divine Providence may succeed your Majesty's Zeal and Exertions for the Welfare of your People, and that your Majesty's Life may long be preserved as a Blessing to your United Kingdom, is our sincere and fervent Prayer.

In Testimony whereof we have herewith affixed our Common-Seal, this Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Captain Stratton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of your your ancient and loyal City of Hereford, in Common-Council assembled, alarmed at the serious Aspect of public Affairs, the intended Invasion by a neighbouring Power, and the threatened Annihilation of the Constitutional Liberties and political Existence of this happy Island, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to repeat in the strongest Terms our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, under which we have for so many Years enjoyed such accumulated Blessings, and which, with great Concern, we now see interrupted by an ambitious Individual, aspiring above his superiors, the lawful Sovereigns of Europe.

We cannot help observing with much Surprise the Lukewarmness of those Powers in making Head against such unwarrantable Strides of Ambition; and with Admiration contrast your Majesty's glorious Conduct, in standing forth singly to resist them, and to rescue from Destruction all that is inestimable to us, our Lives, our Laws, our Religion, and dearest Liberties.

We beg Leave to tender to your Majesty our most hearty Co-operation in so glorious a Cause, and to join our utmost Efforts and fervent Prayers to the great God and Giver of Victory for Success of your Majesty's Arms both by Sea and Land. That we may soon see this imperious and malignant Despot humbled in the Dust, and that your Majesty's hallowed Standard may ever fly triumphantly over his blasted Banners, polluted with the Stains of Ambition, Prophaneness, and Impiety.

Given under our Common-Seal this Ninth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Symonds, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Citizens and Inhabitants of the ancient City of Hereford, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, at this most interesting and awful Crisis of public Affairs, impressed with Sentiments of cordial Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and zealous to repel every hostile Attack that may be made by the ambitious and overbearing Power of France to disturb the Comforts and happy Constitution of this favoured Island.

We are fully conscious of the restless and insatiable Ambition which actuates the Power that menaces our Country; and are anxious to exert our utmost Efforts not only to preserve our dearest Liberties and Laws, and every Thing that is valuable in Society, but to join with one Heart and Hand to meet and avert the threatened Dangers that surround us.

Firmly relying on the wise Precautions adopted by your Majesty's Government, and on the Valour of our Fleets and Armies, we trust, under the Aid of Divine Providence, in a glorious Termination of our Exertions and Sacrifices, by securing, on a permanent Basis, the Blessings of Peace, and of public and private Tranquillity.

Signed by the Order and on the Behalf of the Inhabitants of the said City, this Thirteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

John Griffiths, Esq; Mayor of the said City, Chairman.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Symonds, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Merioneth, humbly beg Leave, at this momentous Crisis, to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Assurances of Loyalty and Attachment to your sacred Person and Government.

Fully sensible of the peculiar Advantages we enjoy under the Protection of our unrivalled Constitution, and your just and equitable Government, we have been at all Times desirous of manifesting our Loyalty, and at the present Moment, when your Majesty's sacred Throne, the Laws under which the Country has so long flourished, the Property and Lives of your Subjects, are threatened by a cruel and rapacious Usurper, we feel it our bounden Duty to offer our utmost Exertions to repel the nefarious Attempt, and to declare our full Determination to stand or fall with our King and Country.

We cannot omit this Opportunity of expressing our warmest Approbation of the just Cause in which we are engaged, and our firm Reliance, that, aided by the entire Co-operation of your Majesty's Subjects, the present Contest will, under the Blessings of Almighty God, be speedily brought to a successful Issue.

Signed by the Desire of the Meeting,
John Forbes, Sheriff.

[Presented by Captain Forbes, High-Sheriff for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Yeomanry, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Derby, beg Leave to approach the Throne, at this interesting and important Crisis, to express our faithful Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and our steady Loyalty to the Constitution of our Country.

These Sentiments of our Hearts, at all Times warm and lively, now derive additional Energy from the Nature of the Contest in which we are engaged, from the Character and Disposition of the Enemy, and from the general State of Europe.

When we consider the outrageous Demeanour and crafty Designs of an ambitious and unprincipled Despot towards our Country, and all that is dear to us; when we behold the abject and deplorable State in which some Countries are, at this Moment, groaning under his merciless Oppression; when we contemplate the dangerous Supremacies of others amidst the threatened Wreck of all, we turn with Pride, Reverence, and Affection to your Majesty's dignified Conduct; we cling with increased Enthusiasm to English Liberty, and, disdaining his unbridled Wrath and haughty Menaces, we join Heart and Hand with that Spirit of Loyalty and Patriotism which animates all Ranks and Descriptions of your Majesty's Subjects, and unanimously resolve, that with your Majesty and the Constitution we will stand or fall.

May your Majesty live long, and continue to enjoy this proud Distinction, The King of a free People.

Signed by the Order and on the Behalf of a General Meeting of the Inhabitants of the County of Derby.
Robert Wilmet, High Sheriff.
County-Hall, Derby, August 22, 1803.

[Presented by Sir Robert Wilmet, Bart. the High-Sheriff, and accompanied by the Right Honorable Lord G. H. Cavendish and Edward Miller Mundy, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of your County of Radnor, deeply impressed with a Sense of the great Blessings at present enjoyed under your paternal Government, and feeling an Ardour equal to that of the most zealous of your Majesty's most affectionate Subjects, to encourage, promote, and join in the most effectual Measures for repelling from our Native Land a ferocious and vindictive Enemy, who insolently threatens to invade it, and involve this hitherto free and prosperous Country in all the Miseries he has brought upon every State and People in whose Territory he has been able to gain a Footing, either by open Violence, or by treacherous Offers of Friendship, humbly approach the Throne to assure your Majesty of our firm Resolution to support unimpaired, as far as we may be able, our Rights and Liberties, and to perpetuate that Government, the best in the known World; to secure Freedom and Prosperity to those who are happy enough to be born under its fostering Auspices; and further to assure your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, concur in any Measure that may be most conducive to the Preservation of our most excellent Constitution, the Legacy of our Ancestors, which we ought to transmit to our Posterity as free and as ample as we have received it from them.

M. H. Thos. Gwynne, Sheriff.

[Presented by Walter Wilkinon, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Brecon, assembled in their Shire-Hall, this Fifteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IN Times of great and trying Circumstances, when unexampled Dangers threaten the Existence of our Government, and the Safety of a beloved Monarch, it is the Duty of every true and loyal Subject to testify his Zeal, and exert his utmost Energies to protect them, accept then this dutiful Address of your faithful Subjects as a Tender of their true Allegiance.

We humbly beg Leave to express our warmest Thanks for the paternal Anxiety manifested by your Majesty for the Defence of your envied Empire, of our Laws, our Liberties, our Religion, and our Existence, and to express our Resolution to aid and further, to the utmost of our Power, the Plans which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to adopt for the Preservation of the Blessings we enjoy.

We trust that, aided by the Divine Providence, and united with our loyal Fellow-Subjects, we are competent to defeat the mischievous Machinations of a threatening Tyrant. We are well aware that our utmost Efforts will be necessary to repel so formidable an Enemy: But when we look around us, and review that Union which pervades your Councils, that Zeal and Alacrity which animate the Exertions of a loyal and free People, we entertain a just Confidence of Safety, and can even venture to congratulate your Majesty upon an Occasion which declares to all the World how entirely you command the Affections of the British Nation.

May the all-good Providence of God protect your Person, support your Government, and assist the Efforts of your faithful People.

Edw. Kendall, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Sir Charles Morgan, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, beg Leave to approach your Throne to renew the Assurances of the Attachment we have ever entertained towards your Majesty's Person and Government. This we feel ourselves in a more particular Manner called upon to do at this awful Moment, when our inveterate Enemies, disengaged from every other Contest, are directing their concentrated Power towards the utter Subjugation of this Country, the only remaining Barrier to their Ambition.

We feel that, under such Circumstances, all Submission or Compromise would be as dangerous as disgraceful, and that we must either resolve to become the Victims of their Designs, or by bold, well-concerted, and persevering Efforts, maintain our Dignity and Independence.

We feel too that these Efforts cannot be carried on without great Sacrifices being made by every Class of Men in this Kingdom: And that, in order to its complete Defence, weighty Expenses must be incurred, and formidable Difficulties must be encountered, it therefore becomes our Duty, in common with all our Fellow-Subjects, to come forward and declare to your Majesty, that no Consideration of personal Labour, or Loss in our Property, or of Peril to our Lives, will prevent us from cordially and vigorously, by every Means in our Power, supporting your Majesty in this momentous Struggle, on the Event of which we are fully sensible depend the Maintenance of your Throne, and the Continuation of those Blessings, which, through the Bounty of Providence, we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty, and your august Predecessors.

Geo. Fred. Stratton, for James Taylor, Esq; High-Sheriff.

[Presented by Captain Stratton, accompanied by the Right Honorable Lord Francis Spencer and John Fane, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County, and the Earl of Macclesfield.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholder, of the County of Galway.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Galway, beg Leave most humbly to express the just Abhorrence, Indignation, and Regret with which we are impressed by the late atrocious and treasonable Insurrection in the City of Dublin, an Insurrection not less wicked and mad in its Object, than barbarous and cruel in the Means adopted for its Execution.

As Members of this great Empire, we lament that any Individual should manifest Symptoms of Disaffection to a King who may justly be called the Father of his People, and to a Constitution, the only remaining Standard of Liberty in Europe; at the same Time it affords us some Consolation to reflect, that, after the fatal Example of other Countries subjugated by France, the insidious Sophistry of her dark Agents in this Country can no longer succeed to seduce Men of common Understanding, but can only make Converts of a wretched Rabble, whose partial Outrages, though they may require the Exertion of active Loyalty to suppress, must meet the usual Fate of ill-concerted Desperation.

We earnestly hope, that, warned by those sad Examples, the Loyalty of those who had been wavering will now be confirmed, and that those who have been ever loyal will redouble their Efforts to save their Country from Ruin, and baffle all Attempts of our foreign and domestic Enemies, whether made by open Force or secret Treachery.

Permit us, Sire, to express our firm Resolution to unite in that common Cause which should bury all party Distinctions amongst Irishmen, and to stand or fall in Support of your Majesty's Crown and Dignity, and in Vindication of the Liberties and Existence of the Empire.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it is the Opinion of your faithful Subjects, that the Removal of every civil Distinction arising from religious Difference of Opinion between your Majesty's Catholic and other Subjects in this Kingdom, would materially tend to invigorate every Exertion of the loyal, and to defeat even the Pretext of the wicked to subvert our happy Constitution.

Nett. Blake, Sheriff.

Yorkes.]*

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Grand Jury, and principal Inhabitants of the King's County, assembled at Philipstown, on Tuesday the Sixteenth of August One thousand eight hundred and three, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Royal Person to express our Regret and Indignation at the late daring Insurrection, by which a misguided and desperate Set of Men interrupted the Peace of our Capital, and committed Acts of atrocious Barbarity disgraceful to the Irish Nation and Name, particularly in the horrid Murder of your Majesty's late Chief Justice; a Necessity not more illustrious for his great Abilities, Integrity, and Learning, than for his mild, benevolent, and Constitutional Disposition of the Laws of this Country.

We have, however, much consolation in reflecting that the Spirit of Insurrection had been manifested itself before it was suppressed; and we feel a perfect Conviction that, however daring the Attempts of the Disaffected may be, the Power of the Government, and the Zeal of the Yeomanry and other loyal Inhabitants of this Country, will be at all Times adequate to frustrate every Attempt to disturb the public Peace, and to make those tremble at their Authority who cannot be reclaimed by their Example.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that this Country at present enjoys all the Blessings which domestic Tranquillity, a growing Prosperity, and a mild Government, can bestow: should, however, that Tranquillity be interrupted, should Treason dare to raise its Head amongst us, should a foreign or domestic Enemy endeavour to subvert our Constitution, we are resolved to meet with Firmness every Danger and Difficulty, and to sacrifice Fortune and Life in Defence of our Country, and of your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Animated with these Sentiments, and actuated by the warmest Love and Reverence towards your illustrious Family, under which this Country has attained a high Degree of Prosperity, we tender to your Majesty our best Services in the present Emergency. We proclaim your Majesty's Enemies to be ours; your Danger to be ours; your Victory to be ours; and that, in all Cases, we will stand or fall with the Constitutional Liberties of our Country.

Jackon Wray Atkinson, High-Sheriff.

Yorkes.]*

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Wexford, assembled at this present Summer Assizes held for said County, think ourselves peculiarly called upon at this awful Crisis, when Rebellion seems willing to re-assume her Station in this Kingdom, to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, and our determined Resolution to defend with our Lives and Fortunes, that happy Constitution in Church and State which stands unrivalled among the Nations of this World, a Constitution which affords equal Protection to the High, the Low, the Rich, and the Poor.

While we see and lament the too general Acquiescence of many great and powerful Nations, under an usurped and predominating Power, destructive of all the Comforts of private Life, and all the Security the public Safety derived from long established Constitutions. We are too sensible of the Blessings, which, by God's Providence, we have derived from our Ancestors, and which we have enjoyed under a Succession of Sovereigns, who deserved and possessed the Love and Esteem of their Subjects not to be aware of the Dangers which now threaten not only our Liberties but our Existence.

Such are our present Circumstances, threatened with Rebellion at Home and with Invasion by a foreign Usurper, we are determined to stand or fall in Defence of your Majesty's Rights and our own; and we doubt not, that with the Assistance of Providence, our Exertions in such a just and equitable Cause, will be as fatal to the Enemies of our Country, foreign and Domestic, as they will be successful and honourable to ourselves.

Henry Archer, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Hon. Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with the most zealous Affection for your Majesty's Family, Person, and Government, and to assure your Majesty, that in Proportion as Difficulties threaten or Dangers surround us, we feel an Increase of our Attachment for your Person of our Respect for the Constitution, and of our Interest in the Tie that binds, and that we trust will ever inseparably bind us to Great Britain.

Shocked as we are by the Conspiracy that has lately broken out in some Parts of this Country, and incensed by the Menaces of a vaunting Foe, we are neither intimidated by the one or the other, but shall meet the Conflict whenever it is necessary with that Confidence which is the best Pledge of Success, and which such a Cause can never fail to inspire.

Bulwer Waller, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Glamorgan, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with unfeigned Assurance of Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and seeing as we do, with all due Alarm (though perfectly undismayed) that the Interest, the Honor, the Sovereignty of your United Kingdoms, are now menaced by an ambitious, insolent, and implacable Foe, we feel it our bounden Duty at this momentous Crisis, to declare in the most solemn Manner, that, under your Majesty's Direction, we will, as it were, with one Mind, come forth in support of those Laws which have been our Protection, and of that Government which is at once our Pride and Blessing; and by our united, prompt, and vigorous Efforts, we are determined to crush at the Instant, any Attack on these Kingdoms, to as to afford to all the World, a glorious Example worthy of Imitation.

That your Majesty and your Posterity may long reign over a People, happy in enjoying those Blessings which the Accession of your Ancestors to the Throne of these Kingdoms has hitherto insured to us is the unfeigned and ardent Wish of your Majesty's most dutiful, faithful, and devoted Subjects.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Renfrew, deeply impressed with the present critical Situation of the Country, approach your Majesty's Throne with Sentiments of the purest Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We have beheld with Solicitude the restless Spirit of Ambition and Aggrandizement which has characterized the Government of France; and we have felt with sincere Regret that the Dispositions of Moderation and Justice, which have actuated your Majesty's Councils, and might have afforded us Grounds to expect a Continuance of Peace and Amity between Two great Nations, have produced no other Effect than that of inflaming the Avarice, and increasing the Insolence, of our determined and implacable Foe.

Engaged in a just and necessary War, and in a Contest the most important and arduous which this Country has ever experienced, while we rely with Confidence on the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Government, and on the tried Skill and Valour of your Fleets and Armies, we content ourselves with heartfelt Satisfaction the Zeal, Unanimity, and spirited Exertions of all Ranks of your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

Recollecting the glorious Achievements of their Ancestors, and sensible of the Happiness enjoyed by all in this Land of Freedom, they have resolved, under the Protection of Divine Providence, to arrest the Progress of that avowed System of Oppression and Slavery to which so many European States, formerly independent, have been subjected; and to meet, as becomes Britons, the threatened Attack on the Honor, Security, and Existence of this great Empire.

Animated with the same Spirit of Patriotism which pervades every Corner of the Kingdom, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our firm Determination, in whatever Manner our Services may be required, to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of the Dignity of the Crown, the Independence of our Country, and all the inestimable Blessings we derive from the peculiar Excellence of our unrivalled Constitution.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at the County-Hall, Paisley, on the Twentieth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three Years.

Will. M Dowall, Lieutenant.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Carmarthen.

May it please your Majesty,

WE beg Leave in this Hour of Peril, when your Majesty's United Kingdom is threatened with Invasion by an insolent and overbearing Foe, to assure you that we view with Detestation and Contempt the Effusion of his disappointed Ambition: confident that the Loyalty and Affection of your grateful Subjects, will, under Divine Aid, secure those Rights which your equitable Government has hitherto maintained, and we pledge ourselves in our individual Capacities, to carry into full Effect, to the utmost of our Abilities, those Measures which your Majesty has adopted, or may adopt for the Defence and Security of your Dominions.

John Jobne

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful Address of the County of Kinross.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful, loyal, and attached Subjects, the Freeholders, Clergy, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, Heritors, and others, the Inhabitants of the County of Kinross, beg Leave, at this momentous Crisis, humbly to approach the Throne to express our devoted Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to the Constitution of these Realms, under which we enjoy the best of Blessings, the Government of mild and equal Laws, securing to us our Religion, our Property, and our Liberty.

When a daring and inveterate Foe threatens our Coasts with Invasion, and our Country with Conquest, we feel it to be our Duty to our Sovereign and to our County to express with becoming Reverence, and with an ardent Spirit, a dutiful Regard for your Majesty's Person, and our Attachment to a Government in Church and State, under which we enjoy Blessings unknown to, and unseen by, the other Nations of Europe, to assure your Majesty, that, while we feel the Duties cast upon us by the present Posture of public Affairs with that Seriousness which is natural when we are called upon to defend British Interests on British Ground, we are ready to encounter every Difficulty and Danger with that steadfast Courage and undaunted Resolution which ought to characterize the Subjects of a mild and gracious Sovereign, reigning over a free and virtuous People.

We are well aware if our implacable Enemy should attain the Object of his Ambition, that we should be reduced to a State of the most abject Slavery; and we are determined, with one Heart and one Voice, to defend our best Rights, and the best of Kings, with the Energy which dignifies a free, a loyal, and united People. And we trust that, by the Favour and Providence of God, your Majesty, supported by your faithful People, will be enabled to repel every hostile Attempt, and to transmit to future Generations that Happiness and Security which we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's Government.

Signed, by the Direction of the Meeting,

William Adam, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Torke.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the County of Wigtown.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Farmers, Merchants, Tradesmen, and other respectable Inhabitants of the County of Wigtown, beg Leave, at the present critical Juncture to approach your Majesty's Throne with a Tender of our Services; and with the truest Sentiments of Loyalty; and with Assurance of the firmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

And that, though we lament the unbounded Ambition of the Tyrant of France, which has obliged your Majesty to enter again into a State of Warfare with the French Nation, and which must necessarily give a temporary Check to the Agriculture, to the Commerce, and to the Manufactures of your Majesty's Dominions, yet we cordially join in every Mode of Defence your Majesty may judge requisite for repelling the Attempts of a daring and a powerful Foe: Nay, we are eager to receive those necessary Commands to be embodied under such Leaders as your Majesty shall be graciously pleased to appoint, who will not only pay the strictest Attention to our Military Order and Discipline, but who, with manly Firmness, will also head us to any Part of Great Britain wherever the Enemy may make his Appearance, being firmly persuaded that, otherwise, our Services cannot be rendered effectual to the Protection of your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the Defence and Preservation of the British Empire.

And while with Millions of our Fellow-Subjects we thus step forward in these Times of Danger, we cannot but felicitate your Majesty on the internal Force and Resources of the Nation, and which, when called forth by your Majesty, we trust, must overpower the mighty Consul and all his deluded Allies.

Thousands and Ten Thousands of your Majesty's late brave Volunteer Corps, whose recent Services fit them for immediate Action, are waiting with Ardour and Anxiety for Orders to the Field! And seeing the whole Kingdom must be of the same Mind, determined to fight and to conquer every Invader, or perish in the glorious general Defence, of our King, our Country, and of every Thing we hold dear: What then have we to fear?

And may your Majesty live long to reign over a free and happy People. God save the King.

Signed by me in the Name of, and by the Order of the Inhabitants of the County of Wigtown.

Wm. Stewart, M. P.

[Presented by William Stewart, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltash, in the County of Cornwall, humbly approach your Royal Presence at this Moment of awful Visitation to declare our Attachment to your Majesty, and our firm Determination to act like Britons in Defence of that Liberty and Independence which we have inherited from our Forefathers, and which they acquired for us under the Protection of your illustrious Family.

We are sensible of the Magnitude of the Danger with which we are threatened by a Foe who possesses neither Principle nor Humanity, but we are fearless of the Event while Providence continues to bless your Majesty's Councils, feeling that a great Nation knows not its own Power until it fights for its Existence in a good Cause.

The Stake, the Event, the Glory, and the Peril of such a Contest are the same both for the highest and the lowest. By noble and generous daring this brave and envied Nation will, from the Palace to the Cottage, preserve all that can render this Life desirable, all that is comfortable or amiable in private, all that is respectable or honorable in public, the free and secure Enjoyment of our Rights and Independence, the Tranquillity of our Families, the Admiration of Mankind, and the exulting Applauses of our own Conscience: But by an ignominious Flight from our Invaders, or a cold Indifference in defending, at the Call of Heaven, those Blessings with which we have been long so highly indulged, we shall fall from the lofty Pre-eminence of our Forefathers into a Slavery unexampled in the Annals of History; which will be embittered by the Remembrance of our former Dignity, and by the ingenious and watchful Malignity of an Enemy who makes his Refinement subservient only to his Cruelty and Oppression, whose Rapacity swallows up the greatest, nor spares the Pittance of the most humble.

May no poisonous Imputations blind the Minds of any of our Fellow-Countrymen to this important Truth: May we in this distant Corner of your Dominion (who boast Descent from the list of Britons that with high Spirit, superior to unequal Contell, scorned to yield even to that illustrious Roman whose Arms subdued the World, but were rivalled by his Virtues) cherish in these later Days the sacred and hereditary Flame; and on that Ground where they so nobly made their Stand, catch, in the Moment of Peril, the Inspiration of their paternal Spirit, and joyfully devote our Lives, ere we submit to a ferocious Plunderer, who, springing like a noxious Pest from searchless Obscurity, spreads his wide Aim at the Destruction of the Universe; whose Sword is sharpened only by Vice; and whose Path is marked by Desolation.

May One and All be the Watch-Word not only of this our County but of the whole United Empire; and may the God of Battles go forth with and protect your Majesty's Arms against an impious and licentious Adversary; and crown your Days with the sweetest of all Blessings, and the highest of all Praises, that of having fought for, preserved, and established the Peace, the Religion, the Liberty, and the Happiness of the World.

J. Buller, Mayor.

Torke.]*

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Common-Council of the Borough of Monmouth, think it our bounden Duty, at this awful Crisis, to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to assure your Majesty of our warm and unalterable Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government. We gratefully acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Care for all your People, and we are daily sensible of the invaluable Advantages which we daily derive from our envied Constitution; but we should consider ourselves as totally unworthy of the great and various Blessings which we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and equitable Reign, if we did not at this Time feel and express a Readiness to resist to the utmost of our Power, the Machinations and Attempts of a selfish and ambitious Enemy, who insolently threatens to invade our Country, destroy its Commerce, and annihilate its political Influence among the Nations of Europe.

Impressed therefore, with a proper Sense of the Importance of the Contell in which we are engaged, and of the mad Fury of the implacable Fox, with whom we have to struggle, we beg Leave to declare to your Majesty, that we are prepared to submit cheerfully to any Sacrifice, however great, that will enable us to defend effectually your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to preserve inviolate the Honour, the Independence, and the Civil Institutions of our Country.

Town Hall, Monmouth, August 23. 1803.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Common-Councilmen, Magistrates, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, humbly beg Leave, at this awful Crisis, to approach your Throne with renewed Professors of Fidelity and Attachment to your sacred Person, and to the Constitution under which we have the Happiness to live. At a Time when the Destruction of our Liberties, our Laws, and our Lives are threatened by an ambitious, insolent, and overbearing Fox; we feel it incumbent on us as free Men and Britons to make a public Declaration of our Sentiments to support the Measures of your Majesty's Government in vindicating the Honor of the Nation, the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and in repelling that horrid System of Aggression which aims at universal Empire. We are too sensible of the many and invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under the mild Auspices of your Majesty's Government, and feel strongly and indignantly the horrid and atrocious Crimes committed in those Countries which have the Misfortune to groan under the despotic Rule of our implacable Enemy, not to appreciate fully the Danger which threatens us; and we are confident that the Energy, the Virtue, the Patriotism, and Enthusiasm of your People in their Country's Cause will encounter it with a firm undaunted Courage which will add Lustre to the Annals of Glory which are recorded in the Pages of our History. For our Parts, as Subjects of your Majesty, we make this public Profession, that in the great Cause in which we are engaged, we are ready and willing to make any Sacrifice, or to suffer any Privations towards our Country's Welfare; we put no Object in competition, and in its Defence we most cheerfully would put ourselves under the Banners of your Majesty's Armies with a firm Resolution to conquer or to die.

By Order of the above Assembly,
W. Paxton, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE!

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital and other Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Stafford, in the County of Stafford, beg Leave once more to approach your Throne with the Assurance of our firm and unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. A few Months only have elapsed since we offered you our Tribute of Loyalty; and an Event which we then anticipated has since been realized. It should seem that the restless Ambition of the Corsican Usurper will never be appeased till he has erected the Standard of Despotism on our native Soil. That general Spirit of Loyalty which pervades the Kingdom might well teach him, if he were not above Instruction, how little Hope there is that such an Effort would succeed. When a Nation rallies round a beloved Monarch; when a People outstrip, by their voluntary Offers, the more tardy Operation of the Laws; when a determined Spirit to resist foreign Tyranny fires the Breast of every Briton, there can be, under God, little Doubt of the Event. Happy under our excellent Constitution, and deeply impressed with a Conviction of those Blessings which it imparts, we have determined to grasp it even in Death. Allow us, Sire, to appeal from Words to Fact. Your Majesty, we know, hears with peculiar Complacency the Efforts of the Loyalty of your People. It is on this Ground that we presume to mention the Spirit manifested by this ancient Borough. The prompt Alacrity shewn by its Inhabitants will, we trust, be a Tribute not unworthy your Royal Acceptance. The very Idea of impending Danger has roused all their Energies; has induced them to change their domestic and peaceful Occupations for the Toils of War, and the martial Character of the Soldier. We have seen the once happy and independent Switzerland bow its Neck to the galling Yoke of a foreign Tyrant; we have seen the fair and fertile Field; of Italy desolated by this Scourge of Nations; we have seen Holland, broken in its Spirit, ruined in its Commerce, impoverished in its Finances, receive and execute the Commands of its haughty Conqueror; and we have heard of Brutalities, that would disgrace a Horde of Savages, committed by a lawless and abandoned Soldiery upon your Majesty's peaceable and harmless Hanoverian Subjects. With such Examples before us, we assume no Merit for our Exertions, far from it; for, under such Circumstances, we think Inactivity would be Crime, and Negligence might invite Destruction. But we are resolved to profit from the Sufferings of other Nations; and having learned from their Experience to appreciate correctly the Extent of Gallie Perfidy; we wish to announce to your Majesty, to the World, and to the Infidel Murderer of Jesus, who salutes with equal Indifference the Crescent or the Cross, that we are determined to adhere to the Religion and the Laws of our Forefathers, to live Britons, and to die free.

Given under our Hands at the Borough of Stafford aforesaid, this Ninth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three. W. Fieldhouse, Mayor.

[Presented by Richard Brinsley Sheridan, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishop, the Dean and Chapter, of the Cathedral and Metropolitane Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Canterbury, humbly approach your Throne, that we may testify, in this awful Crisis of public Danger, our most fervent Attachment to your Royal Person and Authority, and declare our Resolution firmly to co-operate in the Defence of the venerable and justly-esteemed Constitution, under which we have hitherto enjoyed the free Exercise of our Holy Religion, Liberty in our Persons, and Security in our Possessions.

At a Moment like the present, when all that is justly dear to us is threatened, and when, from Respect to our sacred Function, our Order has been indulged with Exemptions from public Services, and a Relief from the ordinary Burthens of War, we feel it peculiarly incumbent upon us distinctly to avow our Readiness and Zeal to meet with Cheerfulness every Sacrifice which the Emergency may require; and in our collective and individual Capacities to stand forward, by our Influence and Example, to give Efficacy to every Measure which may be adopted for the public Good.

When we call to Mind the many Instances of the Divine Providence, which have heretofore shielded your Majesty's Royal Person from imminent Danger, and our Country from threatened Destruction, we are the more induced to place our sure Confidence in that Almighty Power, who is our only Resource in Time of Need, and, as most becomes us, to offer up our fervent Prayers that he will continue to us his Protection, and enable us to maintain our ancient Character of a loyal, brave, and independent Nation.

In this Spirit, and actuated by these Motives, we most dutifully tender to your Majesty these our renewed Tokens of Allegiance; and most religiously add to them our solemn Determination to promote, to the utmost of our Power, the Support of your Majesty's Government, the Prosperity of the Empire, the Maintenance of our Constitution, our Laws, and our Religion.

J. Cantuar.

[Presented by the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Irvine, met in Presbytery.

May it please your Majesty,

AT this Season of Alarm when the unbounded Ambition and implacable Hatred of a foreign Power have placed our Country in Circumstances of unprecedented Danger and Difficulty, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Irvine, humbly desire to approach the Throne with Expressions of the most heartfelt Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and of the most determined Resolution to maintain, as far as in us lies, the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Freedom and Independence of our Country.

Assured from your Majesty's Spirit of Moderation, love of Peace, and paternal Regard for the Welfare of all Classes of your Subjects, that nothing but Necessity could induce your Majesty to have Recourse to Arms, we will cheerfully make every Sacrifice and Exertion which may be thought necessary to support and bring to a happy Issue that just War, in which the Perfidy and Ambition of our inveterate Enemy have involved us. Our Experience of that unexampled Freedom, Prosperity, and Happiness, enjoyed under our excellent Constitution and your Majesty's auspicious Reign, as well as a View of the Misery and Debasing of those Nations who have trilled to the Justice, Mercy, or Gratitude of a faithless and cruel Fox, will ever lead us to cherish in the People under our Charge, that patriotic Spirit and ardent Zeal for the Support of Order and the Defence of our Country, which the Threats of Invasion have already roused, and which we doubt not, will, under Providence, defeat the Attempts of every Invader, and finally overwhelm him.

As Servants of Christ, and Ministers of his Religion, we deplore the Sins which have drawn down upon us the Displeasure of Almighty God, and will continue to exhort our People to forsake them, and to cultivate that Righteousness which exalteth a Nation.

As Religion and its Institutions are countenanced and supported in this happy Island by the State: as we have long enjoyed every valuable Privilege civil and religious, we will, as the best Means of preserving both, cherish in our People an Attachment to that excellent Form of Government, which hath, by the Blessing of God, been the Source of our unexampled Prosperity and Happiness.

That that God by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Justice, may bless your Majesty with a long and prosperous Reign over a loyal, united, and free People; and that you may late resign an earthly for a heavenly Crown, is the Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Irvine, met in Presbytery.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by James Richmond, Moderator.

Irvine, August 16. 1823.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS under the present Circumstances, much Danger may arise to the public Tranquillity from Alien Enemies resorting to, and residing in Great Britain: And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of Our Reign, intitled "An Act to repeal an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident therein; and for establishing, until Three Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident therein, in certain Cases," due Provision has been made for inflicting Penalties on all such Aliens as shall disobey any Proclamation issued by Us, directing that such Aliens shall depart the United Kingdom: Now We, being desirous of carrying into Execution the Intent and Meaning of the said Act, and thereby providing for the general Safety of the Realm, do, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, order and direct, That all Aliens being Subjects of the French Republic, or of any Place belonging to, or under the Dominion of the Government of the French Republic, or of any Country or Territory at War with Us, who shall have arrived in Great Britain since the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and one, and on or before this Day the Thirty-first of August (other than such Aliens as are hereinafter excepted), shall depart Great Britain in Manner hereinafter mentioned; that is to say,

All such Aliens residing within the City and Liberties of Westminster, or elsewhere within the Bills of Mortality, or within the Parishes of Saint Mary-le Bone, Paddington, Pancras, or Saint Luke at Chelsea, on or before the Fifteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three.

And all such Aliens residing in other Parts of Great Britain (except as hereinafter excepted) shall depart Great Britain on or before the Twentieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three.

And We do further declare and make known, that every such Alien who shall knowingly and wilfully refuse or neglect to pay due Obedience to this Our Royal Proclamation, and shall be found in Great Britain contrary to such Proclamation, will be liable to be arrested and committed to the Common Gaol of the County or Place where he or she shall be so arrested, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until he or she shall be taken in Charge, for the Purpose of being sent out of Great Britain; and if any such Alien sent out of Great Britain in pursuance of this Our Proclamation shall, without Licence for that Purpose by One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, return into any Part of the United Kingdom, such Alien being duly convicted thereof will be liable to be transported for Life according to the Provisions of the said Act.

And in order the better to enable such Aliens to comply with this Our Proclamation and the said Act, We have caused to be provided Ships and Vessels at Gravesend, for conveying such Aliens to some Port or Ports on the Continent of Europe: And all such Aliens as are desirous to avail themselves of this Accommodation are directed to repair to Gravesend on or before the Fourteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three: And all such Aliens repairing to Gravesend, and having obtained their Passports conformably to the said Act, by applying at the Alien Office in Crown Court, Westminster, shall be permitted to embark, and shall be conveyed on board the said Ships to be furnished by Us, free of Expence, to some Port or Ports on the Continent of Europe.

And all such Aliens as shall decline availing themselves of this Accommodation for carrying them out of Great Britain, free of Expence, are hereby required nevertheless to repair to the Port of London, and to none other Port, and there to embark, having their Passports conformably to the said Act, to be obtained on Application to the Alien Office, as aforesaid, in order to depart on or before the said Fifteenth or Twentieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three respectively, as the Case may require, under the Penalties hereinbefore mentioned.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal any Part of Our Proclamation of the Twelfth of this instant August, requiring the Aliens therein mentioned to reside within the Limits therein described, except in Cases where any Aliens as aforesaid, shall be bonâ fide proceeding on their Journey to the Port of London and to Gravesend, in order to embark and depart thereat from Great Britain.

Provided always, that this Our Proclamation shall not extend to any Foreign Ambassador, or other public Minister duly authorised, or the Servants actually attending upon such Ambassador or public Minister, or any domestic Servant of any of Our natural born Subjects, or of any Subject who has been made Denizen or naturalized, such Servant being actually and bonâ fide employed in the Service of their respective Masters; nor to any such Alien as shall, by virtue of a Licence under the Hand and Seal of One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, or of such Person or Persons as shall be appointed for that Purpose, be authorised to dwell and reside in some Part of Great Britain.

We do hereby charge and command that all Aliens to whom this relates, do pay due Obedience to the same, and that all Justices of the Peace, Mayors, and other Magistrates, and all Constables and other Peace Officers, do respectively use their utmost Diligence to enforce the same.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.
